

WOMAN A PHYSICAL WRECK

Tells in Following Letter How She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Milwaukee, Wis.—“Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a physical wreck. I had been going to a doctor for several years but he did me no good. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I decided to give it a fair trial, and it gave me relief from bearing down pains which had been so bad that I would have to lie down. I also used the Sanative Wash and it has done me a great deal of good, and I am not troubled with a weakness any more.”—Mrs. P. L. BRILL, 1299 Booth Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

The most successful remedy for woman's ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has stood the test for forty years, which would be impossible if it did not have genuine merit.

For special advice, free, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

The National Interest

In their enthusiasm to serve Canada, a number of men in Class One—bachelors and widowers without children (not otherwise excepted) who were 20 years old on the 13th October, 1917, and whose 34th birthday did not occur before January 1st, 1917—will desire to report for service, when in fact it is in the national interest that such men should continue in their habitual occupations.

The purpose of the Military Service Act is to select the authorized 100,000 reinforcements in such a way that the industries essential in the national interest will not be handicapped unnecessarily. With this in view, the privilege is extended to employers to claim exemption for men referred to in the first paragraph. This course obviates the possibility of requiring that men be returned to civilian employment after months of military training—a waste of time and money for all concerned. The grounds upon which exemption may be claimed, of special interest to employers, are:

(A) That it is expedient in the national interest that the man should, instead of being employed in Military Service, be engaged in other work in which he is habitually engaged.

(B) That it is expedient in the national interest that the man should, instead of being employed in Military Service, be engaged in other work in which he wishes to be engaged and for which he has special qualifications.

(C) That it is expedient in the national interest that, instead of being employed in Military Service, he should continue to be educated or trained for any work for which he is then being educated and trained.

The Employer's Statement

Where an employer claims exemption for an employee on the ground that it is expedient in the national interest that the man should continue in the work in which he is habitually engaged, he should prepare for the tribunal a statement and a schedule as follows:

Total number of employees, grouping them according to their respective occupations and qualifications, and stating the number in each group. Indicate the possibility or otherwise of replacing the labour of Class One men with the labour of those not in the statutory class called up; also the extent to which the withdrawal of men in the statutory class would affect the business, the reasons for considering that the carrying on of the business is in the national interest; and such other facts and circumstances as may appear to be relevant.

The Employer's Schedule

This should state the names, ages and occupations of all Class One men employed, and the medical category in which those who have been medically examined have been placed. There should also be noted against each name whether or not claim for exemption is being made and whether in the employer's opinion exemption, if granted, should be conditional on the man's continuing his present occupation, or whether it would suffice if exemption were granted for one, two, or more months, as the case may be.

—ADDRESS OF WELCOME.—The following is the address read to Mr. Aubin Arsenault, returned soldier, at the reception tendered him on his arrival, by Miss Theresa Gallant his cousin. Dear Son of your Country, Two years ago, you bade adieu to your home and parish, to rally to the flag at the sound of the bugle, to do your part in this terrible war of nations. The crisis of your fatherland bleeding from wounds inflicted by a cruel enemy, reached your ears, and in the midst of the happiness enjoyed in the smiling surroundings of your happy Christian home you have heard the call of duty. You went forth in the full contentment of health coupled with a bright mind and a noble courage, and you have returned alas, bearing the scars of battle, a victim of love for your country. Your parents on this side of the vast ocean never ceased in their prayers, that Divine Providence protect their dear son, and it is a source of extreme happiness to us to see you back, enjoying to the full the use of your faculties, a mark of evidence that the prayers of your people have been heard. Your presence amongst us gives us cause for joy, but a joy suppressed. From the humble home whence you set forth to defend your country, had already gone two soldiers. Two of your brothers had already taken the part of duty. All three have been reared together, have been caressed by the same maternal hands, have been strengthened by the same wise counsels, and today their filial devotion and their acts of courage, are crowns of glory to those who were blest with their care. God in his unfathomable decrees, has taken away from this noble and patriotic family one of their soldier sons. Dead on the field of battle: What tidings sad and glorious! From the vacant chair by the fireside, the mournful thoughts of the mother wander away to a lonely grave in Flanders. Such is the sad story. Our sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family now mourning the death of their hero child. It is impossible for us to express to you our sentiments of gratitude on this occasion you have given yourself in our defence, what more can we ask? Yes, your act of Patriotism and Sacrifice is and will be the subject for commendation. As a feeble testimony of our debt of gratitude and love please accept this small gift and let it not be a measure by which you can appreciate our feelings, but rather accept it as a mark of recognition from your friends of Abram's Village. Mr. Amand Gallant then presented the soldier with a Silver-headed ebony cased, and Miss Nellie Arsenault presented a bouquet of flowers.—M.
