When Chief Justice Greenhalgh of Quebec declared at the convocation of Bishop's College that Canada needed a Union government, he stirred up a tempest in the House of Commons, drawing forth a barrage of criticism from House members from prime minister down. Mr. Bennett, however, stated he chose not to believe the chief justice was speaking officially but only giving a personal view. Chief Justice Greenhalgh is seen above at his desk.

Peters Road And Vicinity

Frequent rains with heat have given farmers a favorable season for plant growth and all crops are in most cases making fine progress.

The lobster catch with few exceptions has not given good results this season. Many fishermen do not favor an extension now.

Mr. Edgar VanDerstine, Peter's Road, has had his residence extensively re-modelled throughout. This work was performed by Mr. Hayden VanDerstine and Mr. Garfield Johnston, Peter's Road, who did the work in a most satisfactory manner. Following this the building was painted by Mr. Joseph Acorn, Glen William, both inside and out, the exterior in white with green trimmings. It now presents a most pleasing appearance in outline and color. The paint was furnished and work performed by the Imperial Varnish and Color Co. of Canada, and was a prize awarded Mrs. Edgar VanDerstine in a contest put out by that company for the best blending of colors for kitchen, bath room and hall and also exterior coloring. We, her friends, congratulate Mrs. VanDerstine in her good fortune.

Mr. J. L. McKinnon, Peter's Road, is enlarging his residence which will be a decided improvement. Mr. Edward Munn, Greek River, is in charge of the work.

His many friends are pleased to see Mr. Joseph G. Jenkins, Greek River, around again in improved health after a few weeks illness.

Mr. Josiah Jenkins, proprietor of Greek River Mills, is having his mill-dam rebuilt which was partially carried out some time ago.

Mr. D. A. McCormack, Boughton Island, recently paid a short visit to Peter's Road and Cambridge.

Mr. Charles Crawford, Rosemeath, recently visited Peter's Road on a flying visit.

Presbytery of P.E.I.

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island met in special session at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 18th, in the Presbyterian Church Hall, Summerside, and was opened in due form by the moderator, Rev. D. Lloyd Griffiths. The chief item of business before the court was the inducting of the Rev. Walter McCleary into the pastoral charge of the Summerside congregation.

At the induction service which was held in the church at 8 p.m., Rev. D. Lloyd Griffiths, moderator of Presbytery, presided, and inducted, Rev. R. Hensley Stavert read the Scripture, Rev. M. E. Genge, D.D., offered prayer and Rev. L. Orwell Hughes preached the sermon. In the absence of Rev. Fred Williamson, interim moderator of the Summerside session, Rev. J. A. Pritchard narrated the steps leading up to the call and later addressed the people of the congregation and Rev. W. O. Rhoads gave the charge to the newly inducted minister. Mr. David Griffiths sang very effectively "The Stranger of Gallilee."

The service throughout was a very dignified and impressive one. At the close of the induction service the Presbytery reconvened for a short while to deal with a number of routine matters. The next regular meeting of Presbytery will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday, July 11th, in the Presbyterian Church, Cardigan. The Presbytery then adjourned to meet at the call of the moderator and clerk, of which public intimation was given and the meeting was closed with the benediction by the moderator, Rev. D. Lloyd Griffiths.

Penthouse Love

"Lovely lady!" He forced the old careless grin. Then he turned to the tall young man, "Mrs. Temple, may I introduce Doctor Phillips— and Billie Miller, Doctor Phillips." Billie's heart gave a flip flop of glad surprise. The doctor was all of six feet two and the handsomest, dark-haired, blue-eyed male she'd encountered in many a day, even to the dimple in his chin. Dr. Phillips was so smitten with the first look at the stunning model that he felt like a college freshman at his first prom. When he stood staring at Billie, he blurted out, "Billie, appointed him? That's the trouble with those blind dates."

The doctor got his bearings and took Billie's arm, freshly. "I knew I'd rate an old gal fat and forty—but come along. Nobody knows me in this town anyway." Billie gave him a little kick in the shins and the party was on. It looked as though every one in New York had made up their minds to attend the Casino roof opening. Batch was glad he'd had the presence of mind to reserve a table several days before when he saw the crowd. He'd ordered a ringside seat where they would be facing the floor show.

They made their way through the

The cost of living, which reached its peak in 1920, has declined, but on the 1913 basis it is still much higher than the price of gasoline. In 1934 the cost of living was 20.7 per cent. higher but the price of gasoline was 28.4 per cent. lower than in 1913. The data for this graph are based on figures published by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

LIVING COSTS MORE BUT GASOLINE COSTS LESS

THE cost of living in Canada in 1934 was approximately 21 per cent. higher and the price of gasoline 28 per cent. lower than in 1913. The price of gasoline never rose to as high a peak as did the cost of living. Since 1920 gasoline prices have declined almost continuously to the present low level.

Imperial Oil has always sought for economical ways of doing business and has always passed on to the consumer the benefits of such economies. Imperial Oil operates on a very small profit and in 1934 earned an average of slightly more than one-half of one cent per gallon on gasoline.

Not only is gasoline cheaper than ever—it is better than ever. Imperial Oil research laboratories played a leading part in developing fuels for modern motors. Imperial gasoline of 1935 is a far better gasoline than that of 1913 yet it sells at a price considerably lower.

City Moves Up As World Rues Serbian Shots

(By The Canadian Press)

Named city of 100 mosques, its roots in the valley and its suburbs spreading up the mountain sides around, Serajevo has grown in area and population but otherwise its little change in topography since the shots of a Serbian student drew the lifeblood of an Austrian Archduke and his wife on the city streets 21 years ago today. It is still a city of pronounced Muslim characteristics. But Serajevo is more peace-minded than on June 28, 1914, when the royal assassination sounded the tocsin for the war—the greatest armed conflict in history. The present city is a centre of progressive Yugoslavia, the post-war union of Bosnia, Serbia and others in a "Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes."
