One of these happy events so much in favor in the month of June, took place at the residence of George Bears, Brooklyn, N.S., on the eve of June 22nd, when his daughter, Elizabeth, was united in marriage with Aleck McLean, of Glen Martin. The ceremony was performed at 8 p.m., by the Rev. George McLellan, of Caledonia in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride's dress was white organdie trimmed with insertion and lace, and prettily topped with a white silk sash. Miss Mary McKenzie, niece of the groom, was maid of honor, and was also dressed in white, while John W. Bears, brother of the bride supported the groom—as best man. After the ceremony, the happy couple received the best wishes of their numerous friends, and they and the guests returned to the dining room to partake of the sumptuous repast prepared for the occasion. After all had been served in an hospitable and efficient manner, the remainder of the evening was whiled away with music games, etc., until the wee sma' hours when all departed for their homes well pleased with the evening's enjoyment. Mr. and Mrs. McLean drove to their future home in Glen Martin, where they have the best wishes of a large number of friends. The bride received many useful and valuable presents, all showing her popularity among her friends. P. E. I. papers please copy.
