

CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this province.

The city market Saturday was well attended but no great quantity of produce was handled.

Give her chocolates for Easter. They are the one gift that is always appropriate and appreciated.

A nurse girl is wanted immediately at No. 10 Greenfield Avenue, Brighton.

About $400 was realized by the Ladies' Aid of the P. E. 1. Hospital on Saturday, (Flag Day).

All should hear Miss Hazel Brenner and Bud Carmin in vocal gems at the Opera House tonight, also the School of Music orchestra under the direction of Prof. Wright.

Brown's store is simply brimming with quality clothes at less than ordinary prices.

No one should forget ten cents for some of the best home made candy ever sold at the Opera House to night.

The funeral of the late Thomas Cummiskey, Fort Augustus, took place yesterday afternoon at three o'clock from his late residence to the Fort Augustus Church where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Allan MacDonald.

of their many friends in their bereavement. His death took place on Friday.

The special evangelistic services in the Baptist Church will be continued this week in the main audience room of the Church.

"Macs' Condition Powders are so superior to any you have ever tried before that you'll wonder why you did not always use them.

Rev. Z. L. Fash will preach. On Tuesday night the Rev. E. P. Calder will preach. The services will be held each night this week except Saturday.

Miss Maymie MacDonald, Crapaud, was a passenger by the Earl Grey on Saturday returning from St. John where she has been attending the wholesale millinery houses.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth McCarthy, Fort Augustus, was held yesterday morning at ten o'clock from her late residence to Fort Augustus Church and Cemetery where interment was made. The funeral was largely attended.

After Dinner

To assist digestion, relieve distress after eating or drinking too heartily to prevent constipation, take

Hood's Pills

Sold everywhere 25 cents

The remains of the late Miss Shepherd, formerly of this city, were brought over from Sydn y on the Earl Grey Saturday morning.

BORN

WARREN—At Hertsick Falls, N. Y., on March 28th to Rev. A. W. and Mrs. Warren, a daughter.

DIED

DINGWELL—At Bay Fortune on March 27th, 1911, after an illness of two years, Jane E. McCallum, beloved wife of Charles E. Dingwell, aged 80 years.

SPRING EXHIBIT

The Standard of Excellence in Spring Millinery

ON THURSDAY EVENING LAST WE held by far the greatest and most comprehensive millinery showing in the history of this business. On every side came the comments "The finest showing of millinery I ever saw in Charlottetown" "The hats are perfect dreams" "Such tasteful wearable millinery" "Your milliners are certainly artists"

WERE YOU IN TO SEE THE SHOWING? If you were not, you will do well to call to day—there is still a splendid exhibit of every sort of handsome headwear, Millinery of style—of grace, of individuality

LET US HAVE YOUR ORDER EARLY IN the week—in spite of a largely increased staff, crowding our work room, the orders have piled up enormously on us so that for the present we will have to ask you to give us all the time you can.

Know how your suit fits you, before you buy THAT IS ONE OF THE ADVANTAGES THAT this ready to wear department offers you

Moore & McLeod

The Busiest Store on Charlottetown's Busiest Street