'VIDA' THE GIRL WHO KNOWS
And An Excellent Picture Program at the Prince Edward.

One of the best attractions that has played here for some time, is now being staged at the Prince Edward Theatre. Different from anything else that has been presented to the public in the last twenty years, is the VIDA act. As a mind reader, VIDA stands alone, and her ability to read one's thoughts like an open book convinces the most skeptical persons that she could tell much more in a few minutes than they themselves could answer the questions they had on their minds, and advised as to the future. The little lady claims that no question is too difficult for her to answer. Her manager Mr. Wm. Turner says that she likes to solve thrilling and sensational questions the best.

THRILLING MELODRAMA
One exciting situation follows closely on another in Fox Films "Black Paradise" an original crook melodrama featuring Madge Bellamy, Edmund Lowe and Leslie Fenton, which ends its run at the Prince Edward Theatre today. It is William Neil, director of the production is also co-author of the story from which the picture was adapted. Edward Piel, Paul Panzer, Harvey Clark, Doris Lloyd and Sam Blum compose the rest of the cast.

Minogoo Won Yacht Race
Once more the Minogoo, owned and sailed by Jack Pineau demonstrated that in a light breeze she is a craft worthy of the closest attention. Last Saturday she finished two minutes ahead of the closest runner nearest rival after a sparkling race over the entire course. The P. No finished third, Sheba, fourth, Shadow, fifth; Shick sixth and Zephra, seventh.

Saturday's race was the fifth of a series of seven for the Commodore Cup, total points to count. The P. No and Zenith are now tied with an even number of points, with the Minogoo next. Therefore with the series drawing to a close, the remaining two races should be held on a number of more than the usual amount of interest and excitement.

The party of cadets from Palmer's School, in the county of Essex, England, now touring Canada under the charge of Rev. H. also, was a half-truth. Mr. Grays, where the General refused him dissolution, no...

Premier Baldwin Taking Holiday

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Premier Stanley Baldwin and Mrs. Baldwin left for Aix-les-Bains today. The Prime Minister's physician advised that he take a holiday after the strenuous parliamentary session. This will eliminate for the moment attempts to settle the coal strike, in which there has been little change. The miners' leaders are doing their utmost to persuade the miners in Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire not to resume work tomorrow, even though they may have signed up. A manifesto issued to the men points out how, by accepting the owners' terms of their old wages on a 7 1/2 hour day basis, they are losing all the advantages that were gained by the national settlement and are delivering themselves bound into the owners' hands.

Burn Their Clothes As Signal Flares

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Twenty fishermen, adrift for nearly 24 hours in a disabled launch, nearly naked, and chilled and hungry, were picked up by the crew of the freighter R. J. Reid, which arrived here last night.

The men, Thomas Galvin and Walter Faber, of Buffalo, were returning to this port on Tuesday evening with their catch when their boat shipped several heavy seas and the engine went dead.

They burned newspaper flares without attracting attention. Then pieces by pieces they burned their clothes after soaking each article in gasoline. Still no rescue appeared.

When the launch was picked up by the Reid, Galvin and Faber were clad only in their underclothing.

Dr. C. W. Eliot Dies at Home in Northeast Harbor

NORTHEAST HARBOR, Me., Aug. 23.—Dr. Charles W. Eliot, President emeritus of Harvard University, died at his home here yesterday. He was 92 years of age.

Mr. Eliot had been in delicate health since he came here early in the summer and had been confined to the house of late. He had spent his summers at Northeast Harbor since the early 80's. The end came peacefully.

Funeral services will be held in the Union Church here on Tuesday at noon and services will be held also in Appleton Chapel at Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., on Wednesday.

Many Attractions At New Annan On Wednesday

A feature that will add attraction to the New Annan races on Wednesday will be the decorated cars display. A prize of $5.00 is offered for the car which most fittingly symbolizes Canadian and United States fraternity. It has been said that the people of Canada are not so demonstrative of their flag as our neighbors to the South and this is the opportunity to emphasize the "old piece of bunting" and the spirit of friendship.

His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, accompanied by his Aides, is expected to attend the New Annan races.

The New Annan races have always proved enjoyable and successful in previous years and have attracted crowds always far and near who have always thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

This year's attractions are particularly interesting and include beside a splendid list of entries in the horse races, special prize events in dancing and fiddling, boxing and acrobatics.

Mr. W. T. Scantlebury the Island's well-known athlete and gymast, will furnish good sport along his particular line and military band and bag pipe music will combine to make the event a star attraction.

A record attendance is anticipated.

City Baseball League

The City League Baseball Schedule is drawing to a close and possibly the final game will take place this evening at the Abegweit grounds when the Anchors and Stars meet in the most important game in either sections.

The Stars won this evening's set to in order to come even with the Anchors, and then for the final tilt on Friday night.

The Anchors in winning this game will have clinched the second section and the right to play-off with the Stars for the City League Championship.

So that either teams have to stay right with the game until the Umpire calls the last out or the game on account of darkness.

If the stands were ever filled with fans this season there should be the standing room only sign for this game.

Both teams have kept right in the pink and each will look good in a win so that high class ball and lots of excitement should be crowded into tonight's fixture.

McQuaid and McCabe were never working better and the whole nine innings daily in their batting togs so that the Anchors will have to do some finished play to head 'em off.

McFarlane and Francis a combination hard to beat with Hobbs to pick from for the twirling end makes a difficult proposition for the Stars, and when the hard hitters of the Anchors start connecting, it takes cool, fast working to keep apart in running up on the old score board.

Some one predicted one thousand fans for tonight's game, but looking at the stakes from the outcome should be on hand to boost their teams.

Krim's Exile Begins Aug. 28.

FEZ, Morocco, Aug. 23.—Abd-el-Krim will leave Fez, according to present plans, on August 28 for his exile in Reunion Island.

The French will take precautions to avoid exposing the former Rifian leader to public curiosity. For this reason it is not announced where he will embark, but it is believed that a French cruiser will take him aboard at Casablanca for his last year old journey.

Floods Of Speed

At no time in the history of light harness racing has there been such a flood of speed and display of first class racing material as has been seen at the early meetings in 1926. It is now an ordinary thing for a two or three year old trotter to beat 2:10 either against the wait or in races on either mile or half-mile tracks while the perfect racing manners of the youngsters that in a few years the aged to do some finished play to head 'em off.

leading stallions Peter the Great has had eleven winners, Ortolan Axworthy and The Northern Man ten each, and The Harvester nine. So far Guy Axworthy has but seven winners. They are, however, rated among the best in the fastest company as has been shown by the doings of Guy Ozark, Guy McKinney, Guy Richard, The Editor and Trux. Peter Scott has also had seven winners, Dillon Axworthy six, his two best being Minia Dillon and Thompson Dillon, while Walter Direct's card shows five, his most successful performer being Golden Direct.

Both Walter Garrison and Vic Fleming have shown this year that it is not necessary to have thirty or forty horses to make a place for themselves at the top of the list of winning drivers. Garrison started off with five. After winning the eastern sweepstakes with Cub Ortolan he dropped into the Western New York Short Ship Circuit. In that loop he won three or four races a week before going to Itasca where he gathered in three more. Up to the close of that meeting Garrison had won seven races with Cub Ortolan, six with Berry the Great, four each with Cegantio Boy, and Peter Leonard, and one with Rainsboro. This placed his score up to date at twenty-two.

Vic Fleming is in second place with nineteen. Of that number seven were won by the little Canadian mare Myrtle Belle, and ten for Calumet Farm for which he raced Lucille Page, John Gallagher, The Editor and Trux. Vic Fleming is on his way to the front rank of American drivers. This year's returns show that the old guard is passing.

On his trip through Bay State Circuit Harry Brussic won thirteen races. He made a sweep with Tip Direct, and one with Marmaduke, with Plain Mary, one with Charlie. His score places him third in the list and one in advance of Sep Fain who is now in fifth place with ten winners, his most successful mounts being Rena Asoff, Peter Grant and Kate Hal, with which he cut the Norbridge record to 2:06 1/4 and 2:05 1/4.

Will Dickerson is on his way for another big season with the Arden Homestead Stable. Up to the close of the Moroe meeting he had won three races with Guy Ozark in the fastest company, three with Anna Bradford's Girl, two with Peter Maltby and one with Astyra. In his race at Toledo Guy Ozark made a new world's record for four year old geldings while Peter Maltby also made another world's record for three year colts over a half-mile track when he won at Monroe.

Of the other drivers who have been busy on the firing line Tyson, Edman, Lusse and Utton have each had eight winners. Morrison and Joe Johnson have gathered in seven and Ben White six, his leader, being Sumatra and Ruth M. Chen-
