In Memoriam

MRS. THERESA O'BRIEN

Death has claimed one of the oldest residents of Charlottetown in the person of Mrs. Theresa O'Brien who passed peacefully to her final reward on the morning of December 10th. She had reached the age of 81 and had retained all her faculties until the very end. She was a quiet unassuming woman devoted to her home and church. She will be greatly missed by her family which she reared practically alone, as her husband predeceased her more than fifty years ago. She leaves to mourn nine sons and one daughter, William of Fort Augustus, James, Charles and Francis of Morell, Patrick, Louis and Smith of Boston, Mass., Joseph of Portland, Maine and Lawrence of California, also her daughter Mrs. Wilfred Lark of St. Peter's Bay who was with her mother during her last illness. One sister, Mrs. John Markin, Morell, is the only living member of her large family. To all of these is extended most sincere sympathy. Her funeral on the 12th to St. Lawrence's Church was largely attended. Mass and funeral service was conducted by her pastor Rev. P. McKenna.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Henry and Herbert Trainor, Joseph and James O'Brien, George Phelan and Thomas O'Brien. Many mass cards and messages of sympathy testified to the respect in which she was held by all. May she rest in peace. (Patriot please copy)

Committee in Action' discussion being led by Rev. L. M. Murra. Roll call had 22 members and some visitors present. This was followed by a short business period. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games, after which lunch was served. On Dec 6th the Y. P. U. met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Clow Meeting opened with the devotional service led by Henry Gordon, convener of citizenship. A letter of thanks was read from Ernest Walker, now in England, thanking the Y. P. U. for the box he had received, saying that he got it in good condition. It was moved and seconded to pay E. Edwards $2.00 on the church lights. A very interesting story was then read by the members. After which games were played. (Patriot Please Copy)

LEA-MARTIN — A quiet but interesting event took place at the home of Mr. Dingwell Jenkins of Vernon on Thursday evening, December 12th, when his niece, Leida Jane Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. L. Lyndale, was united in marriage to Clifford Hayden Lea, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Lea, of Vernon River. The ceremony was performed at five o'clock by the Rev. A. S. Weir, Mr. Ralph Lea was groomsmen and Mrs. Gordon Lea ushers of honor. Mrs. W. J. Mutch sang "Oh Promise Me," with great acceptance. A small company of relatives of the bride and groom were present. The bride was becomingly dressed in Air Force blue crepe, and carried Tallman roses. She was the recipient of many beautiful and valuable gifts. After the ceremony a delicious and tastefully appointed supper was served in the dining room. An enjoyable social hour followed and later in the evening the young couple left by motor on a short honeymoon trip. On the Tuesday evening previous to her marriage, Miss Martin was tendered a shower attended by a large number of friends who gathered for the occasion at Vernon Hall. There was presented with numerous useful and pretty household articles and a very jolly time is reported. Mr. and Mrs. Lea are to reside in Vernon River and the entire community extends to the popular bride and groom, heartfelt good wishes for happiness and prosperity.

Miss Vera Drake, who was employed at the Miramix Hotel, Mount Stewart, for some time is remaining home since the death of her father a short time ago.

Smelt fishing has picked up considerably since the opening of the season on November 15th. Some very good catches are reported now and the price very steady and satisfactory.

For the first time in its history midnight Mass will be sung in the Little Flower Church at Morell, on Christmas Eve. It was announced by the pastor Rev. Phalen McKenna, on Sunday.

Car drivers report the paved road from Souris to Mount Stewart, very good but from Mount Stewart to the City very icy and dangerous with many cars ditched along the way.

Drivers also report a coupe car parked on dead man's curve some distance west of Tracadie. This car was reported left there for a week or more on this most dangerous curve and in a place where cars are forbidden to park at any time. Someone in authority should wake-up.

Some of the by-roads in this vicinity are open to motor traffic at present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hooper, Morell, were in the city Saturday on business. Mr. Hooper reports the road the most dangerous he has ever driven on, in his long years of driving.

Friends of Mr. Grover Coffin, C. N. R. Sectionman will be pleased to hear he has returned to work after a lay-off of some three months with an infected hand.

Mrs. William McGrath, has received word that her son, Jonnie B. McGrath, is in Hospital in Newfoundland. It was feared for a time Jonnie had been lost at sea and word that he is safe on shore is welcome news indeed not only to his mother, but scores of friends here. He is in the R. C. N.

Several young men in this district have received notice to report for the next training period starting January 10th.

Mr. Frank Laubolt who was called to the R. C. A. last week was rejected but he will be called for another class very shortly, he is informed.

Owing to the icy condition of the roads at present extra help is being employed at the different blacksmith shops.

Mr. Gerald Barry who has been employed at the airport for quite some time has returned home for the present season.

Mr. Dwight Mosher, who went to the N. S. Lumber woods some time ago arrived home last week along with several others on sick list. They all report the wet season very disagreeable in the woods with their clothing being wet all the time.

Mr. George Drake, has joined the boat building class at Morell to re-place one of the students who left for Halifax.

Mrs. Catherine Alward is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Walsh in Morell Rear at present.

Old friends here will learn with regret of the passing last week at Sinnott Road's grand old lady, Mrs. Frank O'Brien, Mrs. O'Brien, who was nearing the ninety mark on the road of life made her home with her son Frank. Her husband was found by a falling tree in the lumber woods long years ago when only a young man. This grand old lady spent all her life in the Morell district and her funeral was held at the church of St. Lawrence. Services at the church and grave were conducted by her pastor Rev. Phalen McKenna.
