RANGERS AND LEAFS PLAY DRAW GAME

Maple Leafs Still Unbeaten As Result of 1-1 Game With New York Team.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—(A.P.)—The New York Rangers and Toronto Maple Leafs, Stanley Cup finalists last spring, fought to a 1-1 tie tonight in a fast and furious National Hockey League battle before a crowd of 13,000. The result, first break in Toronto's string of victories, dropped the Rangers to the bottom of the American division but left the Leafs at the top of the Canadian section.

EVEN STRUGGLE

An even struggle from start to finish, the game left room for plenty of arguments, chiefly because of a decision by Referee Eusebe Daigneault on a shot by Harvey Jackson late in the second period. From the press box it appeared to have gone into the net and bounced out but the Referee did not see it that way and when Jackson protested loudly, he was given a ten minute misconduct penalty.

A moment later the Rangers scored their only goal, Bill Cook, sinking the final shot on passes from brother Bun and Frank Boucher. Toronto came back to tie the score with another play that appeared doubtful to the fans but this time the goal was allowed to Andy Blair although it looked as if the puck might have gone in off his skate in a scrimmage in front of the net.

Ladies Will Wear Mexican Hat With Fringe Of Balls

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—Ladies will be wearing Mexican hats next season—with a hint of a sombrero peak and maybe a brim fringe of crocheted balls.

The hat-designing firm of John Frederick stresses the Mexican influence in its advance collection. The Mexican hats are of Panama or cotton crocheted, with bright foulard bands.

The most important is of closely woven straw, with a rather shallow round crown sloping to the back, giving an off-the-face effect. It has a large brim, and is worn perfectly straight on the head.

The little "Gob" hat, its brim turning up all around, also is featured. This is in fabric or straw. With it, the hair is worn in little curls at the back.

Accessories to the hat, such as matching foulard gloves and scarf, will be important next summer. Incidentally, the hats in the advance collections are not extravagant. They are wearable, and on simple, good lines; for, as one designer said, no one is wealthy.

The beach hats are exciting, however. One is a great cloth hat, big as a child's hoop, with a wired brim. It's brilliant red, and has a dangling chin strap, which, when pulled, droops the brim.

Straw As An Absorbent

Straw when used as bedding for live stock will absorb from two to three times its weight in liquid, and finely cut will soak up about three times as much liquid as when cut, says the Dominion Chemist. Further, the absorptive capacity of dry sawdust and fine shavings is from two to four times that of ordinary straw.

BRUINS TAKE BRUISING TILT FROM HAWKS

(Associated Press)
BOSTON, Nov. 21—Back in their old-time bruising form, Boston Bruins out-roughed the aggressive Chicago Blackhawks for a 2-0 victory tonight at Boston Garden.

These burly rivals appeared to be conducting a feud, for they slashed out with reckless abandon from start to finish. It was not until the last minute of play, however, that the action reached the fistic stage, with short but sturdy Joe Lamb and Big Lionel Conacher, one of Canada's finest athletic products, doing the battling.

Conacher Draws Major As Result of Clash With Joe Lamb.

Conacher was forced against the sideboards when he stopped Lamb's rush and the Boston winger elbowed him. Conacher stripped off his gloves and landed a heavy left under Lamb's eye. They were mixing furiously when their mates, combined with the officials to pull them apart. Conacher drew a major penalty but Lamb escaped with a minor.

Although the Hawks waged a determined attack throughout, they did not get a real scoring shot in the 60 minutes of strenuous play. Vic Ripley tallied for the Bruins early in the opener, caging the rebound of a shot that was fired out of a scrimmage following a face-off.

Late in the final another face-off was converted into the second Boston goal. Conacher smothered the rebound on Bob Gracie's closeup shot, drawing a spot face-off in front of the Chicago net. Nels Stewart lined up with Conacher, slashed back to Dit Clapper and the Boston winger hit the bull's eye squarely.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR REPORTED BY GOLF CLUB

Many New Members Added During Year — Mr. L. D. Murray Re-elected President.

(Canadian Press)
MONTREAL, Nov. 21—Canada, United States and Bermuda will provide teams for a triangular golf match in Bermuda in March if plans mature, P. H. Walker, Secretary-Treasurer of the Quebec Golfing Association said here.

"Arrangements are in the early stage as yet," Mr. Walker said, "but I have little doubt the tourney will take place. We are hoping to send down a strong Canadian amateur team to repeat the success of two years ago when we captured the trophy donated by the Belmont Manor Golf Club.

Triangular Golf Match Planned

The annual meeting of Charlottetown Golf Club was held last evening at the Canadian National Hotel. There was a large attendance. The President, Mr. L. D. Murray, was in the chair, and presented his report. The report of the Games Committee was presented by Mr. W. E. Cotton, that of the Secretary by Mr. H. W. Weeks, and of the Treasurer by Mr. W. T. Parker. All indicated that the Club had had a most successful year. The largest number of new members on record had been enrolled.

Following were the officers elected: President, Mr. L. D. Murray (re-elected); Vice-President, Dr. C. H. Beer; Secretary, Mr. H. W. Weeks (re-elected); Treasurer, Mr. W. T. Parker (re-elected); Directors, Messrs. W. E. Cotton, F. B. Conrad, E. D. Nicholson, E. M. Bagnall.

Maritimes Will Benefit Little

HALIFAX, Nov. 21—(C.P.)—Hockey players of Nova Scotia, out of professional company for at least three years, stand to benefit from provision made by the Amateur Athletic Union for their return to Amateur ranks, in the opinion of Halifax sporting officials.

It was pointed out that professional hockey had not been played in this area since 1924-25 and that any players eligible under the new ruling, as interpreted by Fred Marples, Secretary of the Canadian Hockey Association, would be too old for the present generation of amateurs.

Timely Tips On Sport

No Discussion
"There is no discussion in the Maroon camp," he continued, answering newspapermen's questions. "The feeling among the players has never been better. They are just not playing the kind of hockey we expect of them."

Trotter, left winger for whom Maroons are believed to have paid Toronto Maple Leafs $12,500 when buying his contract, is starting his sixth season with the club. Haynes, centre, after two years, seasoning with Windsor is beginning his second season with the club. He finished second in the Canadian section scoring lists last year.

Duguid, a left winger, has been under contract with Maroons for three seasons and Wilcox, defence-man, is starting his fifth campaign in a Maroon uniform. Brydson, right winger, jumped practically from school boy hockey to Maroons four seasons ago.

METEORS AROUSE SCOTS

So numerous were meteors over Scotland on a recent night that many Scots quaked with fear. Attempts to count those which fell were unsuccessful because of the great number and the shortness of intervals between the falls. The phenomenon was especially distinct in Edinburgh and Glasgow. It was due to the invasion of the earth's atmosphere by a shower of meteorites connected with the comet Giacobini.

REFEREE COMMENT AWAITED

President Hanway Awaits Sanction of St. John and Halifax On Referee Question.
(Canadian Press)
AMHERST, N. S., Nov. 21—Awaiting detailed comment from managers of Saint John Beavers and Halifax Wolverines on the merits of the newly-inaugurated one-man refereeing system, J. A. Hanway, President of the Maritime Hockey Association, and the Secretary, R. N. Ross, are endeavoring to arrange a tour of the hockey circuit within the next few days.

Directorate Meet

After the game the full Maroon directorate met the players and after the conference Strachan gave out his announcement. Maroons, he said, expected to have two new men in uniform when they meet New York Rangers here Saturday night.

"We are completely dissatisfied with the showing of these men," President Strachan said. "They apparently won't play good hockey for us, and if any other N. H. L. club or clubs wants to take them, they can have them."

Modeled After N. H. L.

The rule is modeled after National League system which provides a goal shall be credited in the records to the player who legally drives the puck home and when scored with assistance the second man shall be credited with the assist. But no assist will be credited unless the assistance occurs within the defence zone. Scores from a rebound from the tender or net equipment shall give credit to an assist to the player who caused the rebound.
