Leafs Register 15th Victory Of Season; Maroons Blank Bruins

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—After losing a three-goal lead amassed in the first period, Toronto Maple Leafs had to go into overtime to score their 15th victory of the National Hockey League season tonight, turning back the New York Americans by a score of 4-3.

BOLL

The Americans, whose losing streak was extended through its sixth game, thrilled a crowd of 12,000 with a stirring comeback that tied the score in the third frame.

The league leaders had the better playing power, however, and Pep Kelly, one of the junior wingmen, sank his own rebound for the winning goal after less than three minutes of overtime play. Harold Cotton made the opening for Kelly, passing to him from a corner.

Buzz Boll scored twice for Toronto in the first frame and Joe Primeau once. Little Rabbit McVeigh started the New York comeback, Carr carried it on and Eddie Burke shot the tying goal after a four-man passing play. Four of the seven goals were made with players in the penalty box.

MAROONS BLANK BRUINS

MONTREAL, Dec. 27—A first period goal by Hooley Smith gave Montreal Maroons a 1-0 shutout victory over Boston Bruins here tonight. A crowd of 8,000 turned out to watch the Montrealers defeat Bruins for the second time in three days, as Maroons had previously defeated the hub team 5-3 in Boston on Christmas night.

Nels Stewart was sent to the penalty box near the end of the first period for carrying a high stick. He was scarcely settled under a blanket in the penalty box before the Maroons had scored on his weakened side.

The Maroons swept up the ice on a power play, five strong. In the wild mix-up that followed Wentworth slammed the puck at the goal from near the blue line. Jimmy Ward and Baldy Northcott both got their stick to it in the scramble that followed before Hooley Smith flipped the rubber safely into the back of the net from the edge of the goal crease.

Bob Gracie, Maroon recruit from New Haven, fitted in well on the third line with Gus Marker and Herb Cain on the wings. Maroons were without Sammy McManus ex-Moncton amateur star brought up from the minors. McManus was suffering from an injured ankle and was not in uniform.

EAGLES TAKE REVENGE

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 27.—(A.P.)—Revenge was sweet for St. Louis Eagles tonight as they defeated Detroit Red Wings 5-2 in a National Hockey League game. Two weeks ago the Red Wings handed the Eagles the season's worst drubbing, 11-2.

VOSS

The victory was the rejuvenated Eagles' fourth against 13 defeats.

The "first string" forward line of Sid Howe, Carl Voss and Glen Brydson brought the Eagles their much-desired win tonight, although it was the veteran Nick Wasnie who counted the first goal. Howe, Voss and Brydson went to work with a vengeance in the second stanza, each helping himself to a goal. Brydson opened with his counter. Voss followed and Howe blasted through the third of the period. As a parting gesture, Finnigan scored the final Eagles' goal 27 seconds before the end of the game.

For Detroit Johnny Sorrell, forward, counted twice, his shots coming within 47 seconds of each other in the third period.

Goaler Bill Beveridge turned in an inspired performance with 41 stops, 20 more than Smith had for the evening.

LINEUPS

Detroit: Goal, Smith; defence, Young, Goodfellow; centre, Weiland; wings, Lewis, Aurie; subs Graham, Wiseman, Anderson, Sorrell, Kilrea, Buswell, Duguid, Boyd.

Pens New Tale Of Nova Scotia

TORONTO, Dec. 27—(C. P.)—In one of the season's new books, written by Clara Dennis, daughter of Senator W. H. Dennis, and entitled "Down in Nova Scotia: My Own, My Native Land" the author digs out of her mine many an interesting and little-known fact. To quote an instance:

"Annapolis, which "simply oozes history,' and where once lived Rosa Fortune, a colored lady who 'was the first policewoman of Canada and the first baggage-transfer officer of the Dominion'....Digby, with its 'Digby chicken, herring, salted whole,' and its gravestone over one '16 years, 11 months, 11 days, 37 minutes and a few seconds old'....Surette's Island, with the grave of the last of the 'deportes de 1775,' who died at 110, her husband living only to 96.....

CARL HUBBELL RANKED NO. 1 PITCHER

Southpaw of N.Y. Giants Shares Spotlight With "Dizzy" Dean.

(By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, Dec. 27—Although Dizzy Dean's feat of pitching the Cardinals into the National League pennant and the world championship almost single handed made him the baseball man of the season in 1934, Carl Owen Hubbell, the great southpaw of New York Giants, again was ranked No. 1 when the circuit's official pitching records were made public today.

Hubbel didn't approach Dizzy's record of 30 victories nor his total of 195 strikeouts, but the averages of earned runs per nine inning games were 2.30 for Carl and 2.65 for Dean, who was second. Curt Davis, the Phillies' brilliant freshman right-hander, was the only other one of the first section of hurlers who allowed fewer than three earned runs per game. His average was 2.96.

Sensational Comeback

Waite Hoyt, whose comeback with the Pirates was one of the season's sensations, made a 2.95 mark but he hurled fewer than 10 complete games and wasn't classified with the main group. Hubbell's average was far behind his 1933 figure of 1.66, which was the best in many years, but it was about even with the other league leading marks of the past few seasons.

The year also saw a no-hit, no-run game, the first since Hubbell's in 1929. As might be expected, it was one of the Deans, Paul (the not so Daffy one) who did it, setting the Dodgers down hitless and runless on Sept. 21.

Hubbell's Record

Hubbell led the league in completed games with 25 to Dean's 24. He gave fewer hits, fewer runs, both earned and unearned, came within shouting distance of Dean's league-leading shutout and strikeout marks and showed the best control of any of the first group flingers. In his long season Hub faced 1,255 batsmen and walked only 37 of them, hit two with pitched balls and was charged with two wild pitches. The next best figure for any pitcher who hurled more than 250 innings was 51 walks out of Fred Fitzsimmons of the Giants.

There were plenty of laurels left for Dizzy. His 195 whippings gave him the lead for the third consecutive year and he pitched seven shutout games. Hubbell and Paul Dean each recorded five blankings to tie for second place while Hubbell fanned 118 rivals.

HASTINGS, England, Dec. 27—The first round of the international masters tournament at the annual Christmas chess congress of the Hastings and St. Leonards Chess Club was begun here today with 10 experts competing. Two games were finished, Sir George Thomas being the only victor. Jose R. Capablanca, former world champion, drew against Dr. Max Euwe of Amsterdam.

Capablanca had the black side of a queen's gambit declined, and, failing to make any headway against the Netherlands expert, agreed to a draw after 28 moves.

Monarchs Win From Berlin Club

BERLIN, Dec. 27—(C. P. Cable)—The touring Winnipeg Monarchs, Manitoba Senior Hockey Champions, trounced the Berlin Skating Club team for the second straight time here tonight, adding a 7-0 triumph to the 9-2 win they marked up last night.

Albert Lemay, Norm Yellowlees and Romeo Rivers led the Canadian attack, each scoring two goals. The other was tallied by Cam Shewan, burly defenceman.

Along The Sidelines

(By Pat Power)

MONTREAL SENIOR GROUP officials are certainly riled by the beatings the touring Canadiens are absorbing on their Maritime tour. One of the coaches stated "It is unfair to the group to be represented by such a team as Canadiens have taken to the Maritimes," and while we can and will appreciate their viewpoint, what about the local moguls and fans. They have more of a right to be riled. Teams are contracted for in good faith and taken down here at considerable expense with the understanding that their strongest lineup will be available, and then what happens. They step on the ice and one finds most of the regulars missing, and just when it is too late to do anything about it. It is a bad state of affairs and one that is causing small crowds to attend these exhibition fixtures, and something should be done about it in future. Probably a cut where it would hurt most, namely, in the guarantee, would help matters considerably.

• • •

A GAME THAT should provide plenty of action and rivalry is slated for the Forum tonight when the senior and intermediate Abbies clash. Members of both squads have been shuffled around so as to present two evenly matched outfits and a close struggle is indicated.

• • •

BESIDES ACTING as a stiff workout for the seniors, the younger players should profit greatly by playing with their more polished hockey brothers and the experience should help them greatly in their coming league tilts.

• • •

MEMBERS OF the Chicago Black Hawks and the Maple Leafs and over 13,000 professional hockey fans paid tribute to a former comrade, a popular opponent and a great star of the game, before the commencement of last Saturday night's game between the two teams at the Gardens. They honored the memory of Charlie Gardner, captain and goal tender of last year's Stanley Cup winners, who twice won the Georges Vezina trophy, by standing for two minutes while a picture of the smiling Gardner, stooping in front of his goal, was flashed on a screen dropped in front of the north goal of the Gardens.

• • •

AFTER THE officials had completed their examination of the nets and all was ready for the game to commence, the spectators were asked to stand and the lights were shut off. Only the big clock in the centre was lit and there was absolute silence as the red hand rounded the dial. At the thirty second mark the picture of Gardner was flashed on the screen and Sergeant Fred Patterson of the 48th Highlanders' Bugle Band sounded Last Post from the north end of the rink. At the 1.15 mark this ended and then, from the south end, Corporal Freddie Coe blew a muted Reveille. This lasted 30 seconds, and then there was a 15-second silence, ended by the lights being turned on. Then came God Save the King, the referee's whistle and the game was on its way.

IT WAS A FITTING tribute to a great player and a fine gentleman who was endeared to friend and foe and whose sudden and untimely death last Spring cut off a brilliant career and caused professional hockey a great loss.

MT'L. PEEVED AT SHOWING OF CANADIENS

Criticize Dr. J. A. Clement For Taking Makeshift Team To Maritimes.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MONTREAL, Dec. 27—The Star today publishes the following:

Senior group teams and officials are riled by the action of Dr. J. A. Clement, of Canadiens, in taking a makeshift team to the Maritimes to meet clubs of the powerful "Big Four" League. Beaten at Moncton 5-2 on Christmas night, the pick-up team moved over to Charlottetown last night and absorbed a 12-2 lacing from the Abegweits, one of the strongest teams in Canada this year.

One Senior Group coach said today: "It is unfair to the Senior Group to be represented by such a nondescript team as Canadiens have taken to the Maritimes. They are indirectly representing the league on the trip and are certainly far from a team of senior group calibre." The same coach continued: "I take my team away for a series of exhibitions every season. Unless the regular squad can make the trip, the team stays at home."

After arranging the Maritime tour for his team, Dr. Clement found that few of the players were interested. Most of them wanted to remain at home for Christmas and New Year's. As a result, only one regular went along. He is Rene Boudreau, right winger, who was glad of an opportunity to visit his home at Moncton. The back-bone of the team, Archambault, Arcand, Jimmy Wilson, Pete Martin and Archie Burnie had no desire to make the jaunt.

The team carrying the Canadien colors down east is not up to the standard of certain teams in the Junior Amateur Hockey Association here, so it is no wonder they were made to look foolish by the Abbies, Bourque, Malenfant and Carignan belong to the Canadien junior team. Shore, Poirier, J. P. Ranger and Fernand Ranger are just breaking into senior company. Pete Jotkus and Laframboise were recruited from Lafontaine for the trip.

SECUNDERABAD, India, Dec. 27 (C. P.—The Hyderabad Women's Conference recently passed a resolution demanding the investigation of the "grave prevalence of the traffic in women and children in the State."

It was further recommended that action be taken to promote legislation for the effective suppression of brothels and procuration: and that early steps be taken to investigate cases of young girls living a life of semi-slavery in the houses of the rich.

Webster Is Bought By Windsor Club

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

WINDSOR, Ont., Dec. 27.—Purchase of Aubrey Webster and Don Smillie by Windsor Bulldogs of the International Hockey League was announced here today by Manager John Chick.

Webster, last year a member of Moncton Hawks, Allan Cup winners, had been here on loan from Montreal Maroons but because of the break in relations between the Windsor and Montreal Clubs, it was necessary for Windsor to buy him outright or lose him.

Vancouver To Have Amateur Hockey

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

VANCOUVER, Dec. 27—Vancouver will have senior amateur hockey early in the New Year with Vancouver Cubs, Associated Quakers and Westminster Maroons in a three-team league, Allan Fellowes, Vice President of the British Columbia Amateur Hockey Association announced today.

With formation of the new circuit, the big four commercial league will pass out of the hockey picture.

Levinsky-Baer Fight Stirs Fight Fans

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Chicago fans were slightly befuddled today as they awaited the four-round bout between Max Baer, world's heavyweight champion, and King Levinsky at the Chicago Stadium tomorrow night.

Some figured Baer, who can lose his championship in the event the ex-fish peddler from Chicago's ghetto knocks him out, was merely itching for a fight; some believed he was a victim of a neat bit of strategy by the Levinsky camp and others insisted the match was an old fashioned build up for a regulation heavyweight championship match here next June.

The champion and challenger will fight with six-ounce gloves, two ounces less than the regulation variety used. If the fight goes the maximum four rounds no decision will be rendered although one will be taken in a poll of sports writers at the ringside. However, if either is knocked out, a full count will be made.

Should Baer suffer a knockout at the fists of the wild-swinging but artless kingfish, his championship would be lost as the match is advertised as a real one, not an exhibition.

COMMENDS CANADA FOR HER HARMONY

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Dec. 27—Canada will in the future occupy a prominent place in Empire and international affairs, declared Prof. F Clarke of McGill University, during an address before the Canadian Club. Prof. Clarke is leaving after five years' residence here.

Prof. Clarke said he believed Canada's geographical position, her economic strength and her happy relations with the Mother Country and the Commonwealth of Nations generally gave her an important place in world affairs and problems.

In respect to Quebec the professor touched largely on the harmony which has been established between the two races in the province. He suggested Quebec's solution of a two-race problem might have a world-wide significance in time to come.

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Dec. 27 — Two goals in the last period gave Saint John Beavers a 2-1 victory in an exhibition match with Toronto British Consols, of the Toronto and York Mercantile hockey league.

Opening a tour of the Maritimes, Toronto used a style of play the Beavers were unable to fathom until the third period.

Ken Grivel, visiting wingman, began the scoring on a pass from Norm Mann, Toronto retained this lead until the 11.40 mark of the third period when "Ike" Houston, assisted by Walter Monson, shot the equalizer.
