Charles A. McDonald, Georgetown, was in the City yesterday. Miss Katie B. Lacey, Beechmont, Mass., is visiting in Blooming Point. Rev. J. A. McDonald, Grand River West, returned to his home from this city yesterday. Joseph McCabe, Fodhla, and Patrick Brothers, Vernon River, were in the city yesterday. E. A. Walberg, contractor, and W. H. McKenzie, Chief Engineer, went to Souris yesterday. Miss Bessie Hobbs, City, is spending part of her vacation with Miss Lettie Bruce, Red Point.

Mrs. Murdoch Ross and daughter Miss Mamié have returned from a visit to Sydney. The outward cargo by the Northumberland to Picton yesterday included 500 cases of cheese. Among those crossing to Picton from this city yesterday were L. M. Poole, R. W. and Mrs. Johnson. Harry McKie, Amherst, N. S., is spending his holidays with his sister Mrs. Hooper Horne, Restview. Mrs. Bruce McMillan, Brackley Point Road, is spending a few days with Mrs. Hooper Horne, Restview. Dr. Ira Yeo, is fitting up a suit of offices, on Kent Street, next door to MacDonald & MacKinnon, druggists. The meeting of the High Court of Foresters has been postponed from Aug. 11th and 12th to Aug. 18th and 19th. Owing to an unforeseen occurrence the article on H. H. Crossman's meat industry will not appear until Monday. The Rev. Mr. Orman of Sussex is to take the morning and evening services in First Methodist Church tomorrow. Misses Lena and Irene Horne, Queen Street, returned last night from spending a week at the Cliffe Hotel, Stanhope. New hay was offered on the market square yesterday at 30 to 35 cents per cwt and old at 45 to 50. Straw remains at 30 cents. Her many friends will be pleased to know that Miss Annie McDougall New Argyle who has been so seriously ill is steadily improving. In the Methodist census for 1908 by the general conference statisticians the following are the figures for N. B. and P. E. I. 1908, 13,827; 1907, 13,762, making an increase of 65. The engagement is announced of Miss Mary Mullins to James Calder Jr. of this city, the marriage to take place Monday next in St. James church, Rev. T. F. Fullerton, officiating. Miss Susan M. Hale, daughter of the American Consul in this city has arrived by the S. S. Halifax. Miss Hale spent a couple of months visiting in Vermont before this her first trip to this Province. Rev. and Mrs. E. Bell were given a hearty welcome to Little York, by the ladies who were waiting and had prepared tea for them. On the two Sabbaths spent on the Circuit the congregations, and the outlook is very encouraging. Many visitors attended the market yesterday and selling was brisk. Great quantities of fruit including cherries, raspberries, blueberries, gooseberries and black currants were offered for sale making a most picturesque appearance, the baskets being interspersed with the usual supplies of butter, eggs, and the different new vegetables. Lots of free advice is given which is timely and productive of great and lasting good, and in this respect there are few more common words of advice than "Brace up." Man is so clothed that he requires "bracing up" daily as soon as he arises, and unless the "braces" are of exceptionally good quality he is in a state of constant unrest. In this respect, the well known and old established firm of Moore & McLeod make a specialty of an unusually well made, light and attractive brace with a strong, durable elastic web, which have but to be seen and worn to be eagerly sought after. An interesting incident took place at Huntingdon school, Manitoba, recently when an address and presentation in the form of a gold bracelet set with amethysts and pearls was given the teacher, Miss Gordon, who severed her connection with the school, to the regret of both pupils and parents, who are genuinely sorry to part with so efficient a teacher. The following is a copy of the address: Dear Miss Gordon: It is with great regret that we find you are about to leave us. We cannot let you go without expressing our affection and admiration, so will you accept this present to remind you of the time spent at Huntingdon school. At the same time we would like to assure you of the gratitude we feel for your readiness to help us with our studies and especially for the extra time you have spent with those preparing for examination. Wishing you every success and happiness in the future, signed on behalf of the scholars, The above Miss Grace L. Gordon is a native of Brudenell, P.E.I. and who taught in Searletown school for one year.

Mr. Ross has recently returned from Sydney where he was engaged in one of the leading tailoring establishments for over two years. The Guardian was shown yesterday by Mr. McLean the medals of the McDonald Consolidated school given for general proficiency at the recent examination and which have since been engraved. They are magnificently ornated and were especially designed for the McDonald Consolidated Schools with the crest of Sir William McDonald and bearing the motto "Mastery For Service." The gold medal presented by Sir William McDonald was won by Miss Mabel McKenzie, daughter of Ewen McKenzie of Caledonia, while the silver one similar in design to the gold and presented by Dr. Robertson went to Harry Balderston, son of Murdoch Balderston, Cross Roads, who is only thirteen years, of age and an exceptionally bright and clever lad. Similar medals are to be presented for next year's work, offered and an exceptionally bright and clever lad. Similar medals are to be offered for next year's work, which will be the third year the pupils have had such a worthy incentive to good work.

Tea is more susceptible to foreign influences than even butter. This is why it should never be exposed to the air or sold in bulk form. The sealed lead packets of "Salada" Tea preserve the tea in all its native goodness. Insist upon "Salada."

A Saving Chance in Fine New Neckwear and Belts

Some little time ago the neckwear and belt maker that we regard as the best in the Dominion wrote us—offering a series of close cut prices on fine new belts—neckwear etc. We made choice of a wide variety of the goods offered at a great saving—yesterday they came by express—to-day they are ready for you. The assortment is so wide that we find it hard to make adequate description, but we suggest a few ideas:— At Ten Cents Wash belts of pretty embroidered duck, neatly shaped, and of a quality that usually commands 19c. 10c. Handsome belts of higher price—25c cents, 30 cents, 39 cents, 50 cents and in each case the best offered is worth one third more than the price we are able to sell them at. "Quarter Neckwear" At 25 cents we are offering some surprising values in pretty wash neckwear—bows stiff collars etc—styles in most cases worth up to 35 cents each. 25c. Thirty Nine Cent Collars That's what they'll cost but there's worth more—handsome stocks—prettily embroidered, that you'd pay half dollar for gladly. 39c.

Two Snaps in Handsome Leather Belts. Two very special offers in leather belts—lines that we have had ourselves in the very immediate past—one line for example that we would have to sell for at least one dollar in the ordinary way—we have secured at a figure that makes 50 cents satisfactory. Two lines 50c and 59c you choose.
