THE DEATH OF MRS. REV. D. M. McLEOD

The sad news of the death of Mrs. (Rev.) D. M. McLeod, (nee Elizabeth Irving,) daughter of D. P. and Mrs. Irving, Vernon River, which was received by her father last Friday, came as a great shock to her many relatives in this city and Province. The late Mrs. McLeod was married about a year ago to Rev. Mr. McLeod, who is a native of Springton, P. E. I., and about two weeks ago a son was born. Mrs. McLeod was reported to be doing nicely and the news of her death is a terrible shock to her parents and other relatives here. She was a highly educated lady having taken a B. A. degree and taught later as principal of a school at St. Andrew's, P. Q., and later was on the staff of the Alberta College, Edmonton. She was a young lady of lovable character and her premature death will be a heavy blow to her relatives and deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband, and infant son, a father and mother and the following brothers and sisters: James C. Irving, in Cherry Valley, N. T.; T. T. Irving, resident engineer of the G. T. P., at Detroit, Mich.; Rev. George Irving of Claremont, Cal.; Alexander Irving, in Lethbridge, Alta.; John Irving in Calgary; Gordon Irving in McGill University; Mrs. F. B. McRae, Miss Pansy Irving and Miss Ethel Irving at home, and Mrs. E. T. Higgs, in Charlottetown. The remains accompanied by her husband and her brothers, arrived in Charlottetown last night and the funeral will take place from the family residence, Vernon River Bridge at 2 p. m. today.

-The latest news, first of all. -The Morning Daily Guardian can be obtained at Lafferty's Tonsorial Parlors, Summerside. 12 16rd. -Mrs. W. H. Waugh, Calgary, arrived last evening on a visit to her parents, S. M. and Mrs. Hicks, Summerside. -Mrs. George McLean, and Miss A. McLean, trained nurse of Boston, have left on return having spent several months at their former home in Searletown. -Jos. Perry, late in the employ of R. T. Holman, Summerside, has resigned his position with that firm to accept a position as traveller for P. Garneau & Co., Quebec, and left yesterday morning to resume his new duties. -There were about 300 barrels of oysters, mostly all going by express, among the shipments of the Empress yesterday morning. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather Saturday, yesterday's shipment was about the average of the past few years first day's oyster shipments. -On Friday evening Mrs. George McSweeney, Moncton, gave a large dance in honor of the coming out of her daughter, Miss Dorothy McSweeney. Mrs. McSweeney received her guests in a gown of white lace over satin. Mrs. Brennan of Summerside, who received with her sister, Mrs. McSweeney, was gowned in black Spanish lace. Miss McSweeney wore a handsome gown of white satin with overdress of white chiffon. The house was artistically decorated for the event with quantities of cut flowers and shaded lights. In the dining room, which was used for dancing, the color scheme was pink and white, the chandeliers being entwined with pink satin ribbons and ropes of simalax. In the drawing room the color scheme was crimson and gold. About midnight supper was served and dancing kept up until an early hour. Among the out-of-town guests were J. J. and Mrs. Wyatt and Mrs. and Miss Brennan, Summerside.

-The dredge Montague which has been dredging for the past two weeks at Holman's wharf finished that work on Saturday and yesterday was shifted to the railway wharf where she will even the approach to the Empresses' berth. -G. A. Shelton, Tignish, writing to the Montreal Star, refers to a recent article in that paper in which the treatment of the sick in Assyria was commented on. He claimed certain statements contained in that article were false and were given by a party who did not understand the matters of which she wrote. -During the gale on Sunday last a small schooner, practically loaded with fish bound for Miramichi from Cape Tormentine was driven on the outer edge of the Miscouche Shoals where she remained until high tide yesterday morning when she floated off and came into Summerside harbor having suffered little or no damage.

-The members of the newly formed Salvage Corps and also of the Hook and Ladder Co., are requested to meet in the Firemen's room this evening for the purpose of selecting equipments for the different companies. -Stipendiary McQuarrie was engaged yesterday in hearing the appeal of the town assessment which numbered only 4, the assessment being reduced by about $9,000, which speaks well for the work of the assessors. -The dredge Montague which has been dredging for the past two weeks at Holman's wharf finished that work on Saturday and yesterday was shifted to the railway wharf where she will even the approach to the Empresses' berth. -G. "IT SEEMED LIKE THROWING MONEY AWAY Until I Tried Gin Pills."

Mr. P. Fitzgerald was completely disheartened. He had suffered so long with his kidneys, and spent so much money on doctors without relief, that he had made up his mind he could not be cured. Then, he chanced to read about the wonderful cures by Gin Pills, the great Kidney Remedy, and sent for a sample. The pills did him so much good that he immediately bought two full size boxes. And these two boxes of Gin Pills made him feel like another man. But let Mr. Fitzgerald tell his own story of a really remarkable cure.

Economy in Coal Consumption

It's not the amount of coal you buy it's the coal you burn that tells the tale

The difference between Inverness Screened Coal and the common kinds is just a matter of dollars and cents. INVERNESS SCREENED COAL contains no slate or mineral substances, it burns to very fine ashes—will not adhere to pots and stove pipes and is uniformly good for cooking, baking or heating purposes. Don't forget the name—INVERNESS SCREENED COAL. dtstf.

Prowse Bros. Ltd. Been house cleaning eh? And found unexpected places to carpet. WE hear this remark every day at this season—and we fully understand just why it seems to be such a task to undertake the carpeting of a new room—or even fill in all spaces which seem to wear in spite of one. But there is no reason why the busy house wife should look on either the buying of a carpet— or the choosing of a rug with displeasure—especially when our Carpet Department—the BEST ONE EAST OF MONTREAL is at her disposal—for we make a specialty of low prices—ones which render the carpeting of a room an easy task. Then for all other needfuls which at this time of year are required to brighten up an old room—or finish a new one—read the list that follows—and see if there is not something in it JUST FOR YOU.

Isn't there something here you want? BATH MATS For the properly appointed Bath Room, American Goods in blue and white, and red and white $2.25. ABOUT 50 YARDS of that splendid Brussels carpet left, at $1.00 per yard. This is a corking value, being marked down from $1.50 to that price. Different patterns, come and see them. Linoleums AND OILCLOTHS These goods have advanced in price to p. c.—but we have just received a lot of each—bought before the advance and as we want to give you the benefit of this—we are selling at the old price.
