INSPECTION OF MEAT AND HOGS

From information and enquiries recd. we fear that an article re inspection appearing in the Patriot of 13th has led to a wrong impression on thepart of the farmers. We wish to say until further ordered dressed in the usual methods that we will not eeceive them with the organs attached — that farmers should not become alarmed and kill hogs that are not ready for market.

MANY LAID OFF BY GRAND TRUNK

Big Reductions Made In The Staff Of The Car Departments

MONTREAL, Jan. 15—The Grand Trunk Railway has made substantial reductions in the staff in the car departments, owing to the diminution in the traffic receipts lately, and a large number of men have been affected by the move.

According to a statement issued by the company to-day, the railway has been obliged to reduce by a considerable number the total of men working in the car departments at Point St. Charles, Ottawa, London, and Fort Gratiot,. Just how many have been or will be in the future laid off is not yet known, but that the total will be pretty big is assured.
