Laughton, Barnes Seen In Initial Film On Aussies

—The first film to show modern Australia, where so many American boys are now stationed, is now playing at the Capitol Theatre. This is M-G-M's "The Man From Down Under", starring Charles Laughton with Binnie Barnes, Richard Carlson and Donna Reed in stellar supporting roles.

As Jocko Wilson, a happy-go-lucky, good-for-nothing Aussie, Laughton scores in his most fe-BuiK 3auFhd g'---- E T T T H licitous role to date. He leaves Belgium for Australia and home at the end of World War I, taking with him two young refugees whom he believes to be brother and sister and leaving behind him, literally waiting at the church, Aggie Dawlins, a Cockney entertainer, played by Binnie Barnes.

Years pass and the boy, Nipper (Richard Carlson) has grown up to be a champion boxer and the girl, Mary (Donna Reed), is a fine young lady. Jocko comes on hard times and then Aggie, now a wealthy widow, reappears. Jocko soon loses his inn to her in vain efforts to recoup his fortune. Just as affairs reach a head war breaks out and Jocko tries to enlist. When he is turned down because of an old wound, he enlists in the land army and stays away until a threatened Jap invasion brings him home to Nipper, Mary and his still-loving Aggie.

Closing Exercises Of St. Mary's Academy Held Last Evening

The closing exercises of St. Mary's Convent, Summerside, were held last evening in St. Paul's Church with a good attendance of the people of the parish and the parents of the pupils. The certificates and prizes were presented by Rt. Rev. G. J. MacLellan, V.G., who addressed the pupils. He congratulated them on reaching the end of a most successful year and stressed the necessity of every child continuing its education and warned the parents not to allow their children to leave school before their education had been completed merely to earn a few extra dollars. Learn that in life it is necessary to be industrious and that you must be of service to others.

To the younger pupils he said "have the ambition to get all the education you can. You cannot succeed without it. Although this is a machine age you must have education, nevertheless, to succeed in it." To those who had taken up christian doctrine also, he said, you have made the sacrifice of getting an education in spiritual matters. The christian and secular education go hand in hand. In closing he thanked the sisters for the time and sacrifice they had made and for the care they had taken of the children placed under their charge and congratulated all those who had successfully passed their tests.

An act of consecration to the Blessed Mother was read by Miss Barbara Silliphant and the prizes were carried on a tray from the table to Rev. G.J. MacLellan for presentation by Miss Helen Dalton and Miss Ann Profit.

The exercises closed with the Benediction of the Blessed Sacraments.—S

Summerside Woman Is Seriously Injured

Mrs. John Harkness, King St., Summerside, met with a serious and painful accident yesterday morning and as a result is a patient in the Prince County Hospital suffering from a broken spine and other internal injuries. She had gone to the C.N.R. depot to bid farewell to a friend and was getting off the car when the train started. Losing her balance she fell violently to the station platform sustaining the injuries above mentioned.

In spite of her serious injury she walked to her home on King Street and it is the opinion of medical men that she was able to do so only because of the nervous shock she had sustained. The extent of her injuries was revealed by X-ray examination and she has been placed in a plaster cast in which she will probably have to remain for about six months. —S.
