ENO'S PLEASANT TASTE

Ch'Town Royalty And Vicinity

The home of Mrs. K. Moore, Mt. Edward Road, was recently the scene of a happy event, when a pre-nuptial shower, arranged by the members of Parkdale Women's Institute was held in honor of their retiring secretary, Miss Annie Hudson. The bride-to-be was taken completely by surprise, when she found herself being conducted to the daintily trimmed seat of honor by Mrs. C. Swan to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. B. Myers. An address of appreciation and good wishes was read by Mrs. Harold Newson and a beautiful three compartment silver pie plate was presented on behalf of the Institute by Mrs. Swan. Two heaping baskets of individual gifts were carried in by Mrs. P. Gay and Mrs. K. Moore. Mrs. Swan also assisted in opening the parcels while the accompanying verses were read by Mrs. Ralph Gay. Miss Hudson in a few well chosen words thanked all present for their kindness to her. Following a hearty sing-song in which all joined, a dainty luncheon of cream and cake, was served by the committee in charge, viz. Mrs. C. Swan, Miss McVance, Mrs. Percy Gay, Mrs. Ralph Gay, Mrs. B. Myers and Mrs. K. Moore. A pleasant evening was brought to a close by bouncing the bride-to-be and singing the National Anthem.

Mrs. William Tilson arrived unexpectedly in Charlottetown from New Bedford, Mass., on Wednesday last to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Annie Hudson, St. Avards, which took place on Thursday evening Mrs. Tilson and her sister, Mrs. Russell Abbott, Miss Vivian Abbott, and Master George Abbott are now at the Hudson estate on Stanhope Lane.

Miss Beth Robinson, teacher in Stanhope school, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Robinson, St. Avards. Mr. Clifford Vessey, of Regina, is visiting his father, Mr. Eddie Vessey, Dunstaffnage and other relatives. Mr. Vessey has two sons doing military duty. — P.
