After the ceremony and a sumptuous supper the company were entertained with music, games, etc., and a very pleasant evening was spent, the program being enlivened by a large and orderly company of choristers who made night hideously pleasant by their varied program. X-mas service at St. John's church Ellerslie, was largely attended notwithstanding the inclement weather. The church decoration, always good, were this season better than usual and reflected great credit on the good taste of the Misses English and Williams and members of the congregation who so kindly assisted in the good work.

Bear in mind the New Year's concert in Market Hall. The following are some of the talent: Miss Elna Sinclair, Miss Jessie Sharp, Miss Freda Compton, St. Paul's Quartette, Dr. McLellan, A. E. Arsenault, Joseph McDonald and W. J. Whitney, Miss Wanda Wyatt and Miss Zeta Durant. New Year's Market Hall. 12-28d11

In accordance with the custom long established by me, I am putting on a grand concert in Market Hall on New Year's night. This year the annual concert is far to surpass any previously given as I am securing the assistance of all the best talent of Summerside, St. Eleanor's and vicinity. Tickets will be at popular prices 25 and 35c. Plan of hall will be announced later. W. J. Whitney, 12-28d11

The delay in announcing Prof. Whitney's New Year's concert is owing to the fact that the Market Hall had been previously engaged for an entertainment. This latter having been cancelled very recently, Prof. Whitney engaged the hall and made his arrangements. The public may rest assured notwithstanding the short time at his disposal, the concert will be a first class one in every particular and that neither time nor pains will be spared to sustain his reputation for successful entertainments. 12-28d11
