HEIRS OF ABDUL HAMID WILL FIGHT FOR FORTUNE

CONSTANTINOPLE July 16.—American lawyers may soon begin a legal battle to establish the right of the heirs of the late Sultan Abdul Hamid to oil properties and real estate in the territories now detached from Turkey, estimated to be worth $500,000,000. The heirs of the former Sultan include four princes and four princesses and they are headed by Prince Mohamed Selim Efendi, presumptive successor to the Caliphate. The heirs are seeking satisfaction at Lausanne, and if this endeavor fails they will instruct their American attorneys to begin legal proceedings. They say that the Lausanne Conference seems inclined to give a decision which would class the properties in question as belonging to the Turkish Crown. This they aver is wrong, declaring that according to law the properties should pass in equal succession to Abdul Hamid's sons and daughters, and that they will take every means to secure justice. Although the former government of the Committee of Union and Progress usurped certain of the rights of the heirs and did its best to invalidate succession, it is claimed that it failed in its object. A number of American concession-hunters have been after the heirs to grant them rights in the immense domains of the former sultanate of Turkey, and have competed with British promoters in their financial offers. If Lausanne decides in favor of the heirs they will be able to farm out the properties without delay. Otherwise they will contest and make a legal fight.

Duke of York too Busy to Attend Memorial Unveilings

LONDON, July 16.—Members of the British royal family have announced that they will be obliged to decline future invitations to unveil war memorials. This announcement was made when a reply of the Duke of York to an invitation to unveil a war memorial was made public. The Duke said that he, in common with other members of the royal family, found it impossible to travel over the country, especially for these ceremonies, when he has so many other pressing and important demands on his time. Members of the royal family have already unveiled more than three hundred war memorials which includes many national memorials, to which local ones are but supplementary.

—BUILDING NEW "Y"—The crowd of men engaged in the construction of the Y opposite the depot are making good progress, still a huge quantity of timber and stone will yet be required before the work is completed some delays are caused by high tides, but these are overcome by working over time. The job when finished will surely be a great convenience to the Island Railway.—H

—TWO ACCIDENTS—Two somewhat serious accidents occurred in connection with the immense crowds attending the Orange Tea at Kensington on Wednesday. One man in cranking his auto on the grounds got his arm broken, and on the road a buggy was caught between two autos going in a different direction and was badly smashed up. Most providently the occupants, a lady and gentleman were not seriously injured though both were thrown some distance and had a severe shock.

—CHAUTAQUA OPENS—Chautauqua opened up in Summerside on Saturday afternoon and with it came Junior Chautauqua which under the direction of Sandy McGregor held their annual parade through the streets beginning from the Chautauqua Tent on the Armory Grounds and parading through the principal streets of the town. All the children were decorated with flags and banners and a number of bicycles were also decorated. There were about one hundred children in the parade.
