THE THANKFUL HEART.

Once more the liberal year laughs out O'er richer stores than gems of gold; Once more, with harvest song and shout Is nature's bloodless triumph told. We shut our eyes, the flowers bloom on. We murmur, but the corn-ears all; We choose the shadow, but the sun That casts it shines behind us still. O favors every year made new! O gifts with rain and sunshine sent! The bounty overruns our due, The fulness shames our discontent. —Whittier

THANKSGIVING HOSPITALITY.

There is an emanation from the heart in genuine hospitality which can not be described, but is immediately felt and puts the stranger at once at his ease. —Washington Irving. How blest the man who has a care. For those whose needs are great; Who cheerfully bestows a share To aid them in their strait. Who gives from but his goodly store, To succor those who need it more. Yet not in charity alone, To those in greatest need; True hospitality is shown In thought, and word and deed. A welcome look, a thought of care— True hospitality is there. An open door—an outstretched hand, A joyous smile in greeting, Assures the choicest at command. With pleasure at the meeting, not to be described, but is immediately felt and puts the stranger at once at his ease. —J. M. Divine.

SUGGESTIONS TO SICK WOMEN

How Many Are Restored To Health.

First.—Almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful periods, displacements, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, beating down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness. Second.—The medicine most successful in relieving female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates and strengthens the organism; it overcomes disease.

For forty years it has been making women strong and well, relieving backache, nervousness, ulceration and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularity and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Third.—The great number of unsolicited testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, are proof of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, in the treatment of female ills.

Fourth.—Every ailing woman in the United States is cordially invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential), Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.
