Who Am I? Dear Unknow Friends:— My name is Helen Now we are acquainted. I have a friend named Mary. She has asked me to advise her where to buy her furniture. I shall write her a letter every week. It will be published in this paper so you may all read it. Mary won't care. I believe in making home beautiful. THE PASSING OF SIGNS

Even the Wooden Indian as Passed into the Discard. During the middle ages and at an earlier period a green bush was the sign of a wine-room, an alehouse or the saloon of those times, and from that fact arose the saying that "good wine needs no bush." Duly interpreted, the phrase meant that good wine needed no public announcement, that it was its own recommendation. And another thought to be entertained because of that familiar phrase is that even in those "good old days" some bad liquors were dispensed in places where a bush stood at the door, or sometimes above the door. Sometimes the bush was green and sometimes its green age had passed, and the tavern or taproom symbol was but a piece of dry brush. It is said that a dry bush of pine or other evergreens hangs even to this day over the doors of Italian wineshops. Murdoch McDonald, Ross Valley. C. Buxton, Cape Traverse. M. Doucette, St. Eleonors. ASOLDIER FRIEND'S BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE. Mr. Alexander McGuigan of Halifax has received the following letter of sympathy from Private John Somers of 18th Canadian Batt., France. Private John McGuigan was killed on April 22nd. Somewhere in France, April 30, 1917. Dear Mr. McGuigan:— It is with feelings of deepest regret that I hear of the death of your beloved son on the blood stained battlefield of Vimy Ridge, when he gallantly gave up his life for his King and Country and the glorious principles of Liberty and right. Your son by his sterling character, bravery and genial disposition, endeared himself to each one of us and we will ever lovingly cherish his memory. I am fully aware of the irreparable loss you have suffered and I fully recognize how inadequate words of mine are to console the sorrow you are passing through at this moment. I desire to extend to you and other three brave boys who are yearning for their friends, my sincere and heartfelt sympathy. I would direct you in this hour of sorrow to look for consolation to our Heavenly Father above and humbly ask for Grace to say, Thy will O Lord be done. You know your son loved honor more than he feared death and that is why he is lying low today. Greater love hath no man than he lay down his life for his friends. Matted and damp are the curls of gold kissing the snow of that fair young brow. Pale are the lips of delicate mould. Somebody's darling is dying now. Back from the beautiful blue veined brow. Brush ever wandering sliken thread Cross his hands on his bosom now. Somebody's darling is still and dead. Signed 444897. PRIVATE JOHN SOMERS, of 18th Canadian Batt. A Co. 4th Ege 2 Division, France.

30TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION. A very happy event took place at O'Leary on the 18th, when Rev. and Mrs. H. G. McDuck celebrated the 30th Anniversary of their marriage. They were "At Home" afternoon and evening. A number of friends called in the afternoon and a large gathering assembled at the parsonage in the evening. A very pleasant time was spent. Miss Eva Jelly waited on the door and Mrs. H. S. Jelly assisted in receiving. Miss Schurman, music teacher, presided at the piano and rendered very choice selections of music. Mrs. J. P. Noonan played and sang two beautiful selections. Miss Nettie Harris played and Miss Lillian Jelly and Miss Annie MacDonald gave several pieces on the piano and violin. Dr. H. S. Jelly on behalf of the company, in a very kind address, presented Mr. and Mrs. Mellick with a substantial purse of money. Mr. Mellick in a brief speech, thanked the friends for their kindness. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Muttart of Summerside, who came up for the occasion, sang. Mr. Muttart, who is Mr. Mellick's cousin, made a happy speech recalling events in the family history and giving good advice to the young people. Mr. R. H. Jelly, Mr. Watson Silliker, and
