Girl Guides Annual Report

At the annual Girl Guides meeting the Provincial Camp Adviser's report for 1944 was given by Miss Jessie Fullerton.

Two camper's licences have been granted and three camper's certificates. We have now nine licence holders in the Province.

As usual the 1946 camps were successful but one camp only—a very large one—was self supporting and with all due regard for the excellent job of Quartermastering done, I am convinced that this camp was its own salvation.

Mr. Bagnall and I visited Mrs. Pickard's camp at Holland Cove. It was an excellent camp.

Gallup Poll Of Canada

POLL IN THREE NATIONS SHOWS DROPPING IN SOVIET FRIENDSHIPS

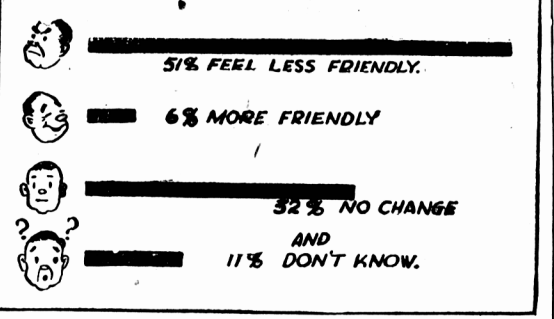

Attitude In Canada Less Sharp Than In U. S. A. But More Than In Britain

By Canadian Institute of Public Opinion

TORONTO, Nov. 15 — Inevitable result of distrust at the international level is the fact that, at "the-man-on-the-street" level, Canadian-Soviet relations have worsened in the past year.

Just over half the people of Canada who, throughout the latter years of the war, constantly expressed their confidence on the ability of Russia and the West to co-operate, today would admit that they feel less friendly towards the Soviet Union than they did a year ago.

The attitude of the adult population in Canada, United States, and Great Britain, is accurately reflected in the carefully devised sample interviewed by Gallup Poll reporters on the question:

"Do You Feel More Friendly, or Less Friendly, Towards Russia Than A Year Ago?"

It was possible to ask this question of every voter in these three countries, and tabulate the vast number of ballots, the results would be within a few percentage points of the following comparative figures:

Table comparing Canada, U.S.A., and Britain responses to the question about feeling more or less friendly towards Russia.

The British poll was taken in the late summer, the United States survey in early September, and the Canadian poll in the latter part of September.

In all three countries, veterans of World War II were more inclined to think that their feelings were less friendly than were the civilian population's.

In Canada, those voters who would support the C. C. F. party were the only single group in the population isolated by the Poll, which showed the largest percentage in the "same" category.

One does not have to look far for the cause of this change in attitude towards the Soviet. Last spring, the Institute asked Canadian's an open question: "From what you have seen or read of Russia's policies towards other countries, what do you think her main object is?"

Over half the population interviewed replied in terms unfavorable to Russia, while the other half were divided equally between those who replied in friendly terms, or neutral terms.

and lightning which was about to descend, the Chief Guide spoke very briefly to the Campers, telling them about campers in other parts of the world.

First Class Badge to one of the Guides. I wish everyone might have seen the wonderful bird posters and clever star charts and heard the variety of songs with descants and part-singing as well as nonsense songs, and have partaken of the very special menu which had been prepared by honor of the Chief's visit.

In closing I wish to thank all who in any way helped to make camps a success. Especially I should like to thank Col. Reid and Major MacLeod of Charlottetown for their valuable assistance in transportation, and Mr. McFarlane for again allowing us free use of the camp site at Fernwood.

Mr. Lloyd Reid acted as chairman and after a few complimentary remarks, called on Mrs. Reid to read an address, while a beautiful electric reading lamp was presented by Mrs. Branch Steele.

Mr. Steele thought taken by surprise, in his usual style, made an appeal for himself and sister, a suitable reply, thanking all present for their act of kindness to show them, and invited all to visit them in their new home.

All joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows". Lunch was served by the ladies present, and all enjoyed the dance which followed. All the early hours of the morning, God Save The King ended a pleasant evening.

Following is the address: Gaspereaux, P.E.I. Nov. 7, 1944. To Wm. F. and Mary J. Steele—Dear Friends: A few weeks ago we learned with regret of your decision to move from our midst, and we cannot let this occasion pass without expressing the loss we all feel at your departure, and also voicing the hope that you may enjoy good health and be happy in your new home.

As lifelong residents of this community, you both have always exhibited a true spirit of neighborly help and charity to all those of us who have, at one time or another, been in trouble or need. Many of us here remember with the deepest gratitude, your assistance so freely given, in time of sickness and bereavement, and how the load of care and sorrow was lightened by your kind actions, often at considerable hardship to yourselves.

And so, we are gathered here tonight in this home of yours whose doors were always open with a warm welcome to friendly acquaintance and wayfaring stranger alike, to say au revoir and to wish you the choicest blessings that Providence may design to shower down upon you.

As a token of our highest esteem and goodwill we ask you to accept this small gift, and hope it may serve to remind you of the many happy days spent amongst us, as we can assure you, your memory will always remain in our heart.

Your friends and neighbors of Gaspereaux and vicinity.

... should answer these questions: How MANY 'earning years' are you looking forward to? Right now you take pleasure and pride in that job of yours! But later in life, retirement is going to seem pretty attractive too. Years slip by quickly. You should, accordingly, save through Mutual Life of Canada insurance which will provide for your retirement and protect your dependents...

Does it matter WHICH life insurance company you choose? Yes! Life insurance companies are much alike as to policies and rates, but actual long-term results vary widely. We invite you to compare The Mutual Life of Canada.
