D. W. FRASER HOME FROM EDMONTON SPEAKS OF MEETING

AMHERST, N. S., Dec. 10. — Although not successful in securing the general reinstatement of athletes in the Maritime Provinces, D. Webster Fraser, president of the M.P.B.A.A.U.C., declared on his return from Edmonton, that he was not discouraged and that there might be a possibility of several men securing cards, when more detailed evidence was presented before the National Registration Committee. Speaking in a frank way, he did not hold out much hope for the many who had taken part in out-and-out professional sport, receiving money for sport services. He estimated that the meeting of the A.A.U.C. in Edmonton had been opposed to granting cards to such men and had taken a strong stand to indicate the line of demarcation between the two cases of athletes. Mr. Fraser added the controversy over the reinstatement question occupied several hours and was one of the chief points of debate taken up at the annual session. While the convention in entirety could not meet the Maritime request for reinstatement, Mr. Fraser was of the opinion that the leaders of the sport in other sections of Canada were sincerely anxious to co-operate and aid in creating a better sport situation in the Maritime provinces. President Fraser expressed his belief that future requests on the part of the Maritime organization would receive sincere consideration. Mr. Fraser expressed his regret over the action of the A.A.U.C. in suspending for five years, Samuel F. Doyle and L. B. McMillan, past president and secretary of the M.P.B.A., as well as William Klover, of Moncton, for many years one of the prominent sportsmen in the east. Mr. Fraser was opposed to the long suspension meted out to these three leading officials. Mr. Fraser at the time informed several of the A.A.U.C. delegates that a mistake was being made in taking such a course of action, when the issue that had originally aroused the ire of the parent body had virtually been forgotten in the Maritime Provinces sport circles. Commenting upon the appointment of Olympic committees and the absence of Maritime representation, Mr. Fraser remarked that the bulk of the Canadian Olympic team would come from Ontario, Quebec and the western provinces. "The committees were all made up of small men in order to expedite and facilitate Olympic issues," said Mr. Fraser, "and every person could not get a position." He remarked that the esteem with which Johnnie Miles was held by the people of Hamilton, Ont., and averred that Hamilton delegates at the A.A.U.C. meeting were very proud of the Nova Scotia boy.

Tryon Tid-Bits

Good morning, friends! A little more like winter, isn't it? Soon we will have it in real earnest, and with it our national sport—hockey; and bye-bye, Tryonsers. What about hockey? Get ready, for soon you will have a chance to practice.

Recent visitors from Tryon on the ummerside included: Messrs. Les McDonald, Sidney Dawson, T. Arthur and Mrs. Dawson, Jas. A. and Mrs. Dawson, W. E. and Mrs. Callbeck, Russell and Mrs. Thomson, D. J. Thomson, J. A. Thomson, J. Ezekiel Thomson, Augustus and Mrs. Waddell, Stet McRae, Max Lefurey, Rex Dawson, Russell Howatt, Guy Holland, Louis Howatt and Jas. W. Morrison.

Messrs. Arthur Green, Sampson Walsh, and A. H. Affleck, Albany, were also recent visitors to the Western metropolis.

Mr. H. M. Chisholm, our general merchant and radio dealer, is confined to his home with a severe cold.

Messrs. Geo. McWilliams and Roy McKenzie recently visited friends in Cape Traverse.

On Tuesday evening friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Albany, gathered at their home and presented them with an address and a beautiful chair. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas are soon to leave Albany and make Tryon their future home, having purchased the property of Mr. Herbert Thomson opposite the Tryon Baptist Church.

Messrs. T. A. and Rex Dawson were in Kensington on Wednesday with a shipment of choice silver foxes for which they realized a good price. They were accompanied by Mr. J. Archie Thomson, and afterwards motored to Summerside where they had business. They stated the roads were in an excellent state for motoring.

Mr. Cecil Warren, Albany, was a visitor to North Tryon on Wednesday.

The chicken supper and bazaar held Thursday afternoon and evening in Tryon Hall by the Ladies' Circle of the United Church was a wonderful success, although the weather was bad, rain falling most of the afternoon and evening. Upwards of $80 was realized.

A good crowd gathered for the auction sale at Mr. Herbert Thomson's, despite the fact that the weather man was dealing out heavy showers of rain. Mr. Hugh Morrison was auctioneer and bidding was brisk, good prices being realized.

Congratulations are pouring in upon Walter and Mrs. Bell, upon the arrival of a bonnie wee daughter, which the stork presented to them on Monday, Dec. 5th.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Francis, Tryon, on Saturday evening, Dec. 3rd, friends of Miss Jean Halliwell gathered and literally showered her with gifts, the occasion being her approaching marriage with Mr. Wilbur Waddell, popular young farmer of Mount Tryon.

Now it is winter, and soon we will be skating, sleighing and, best of all, enjoying hockey. Rumor has it that we are not to have Dad Lyman with this season, and we will surely miss "Dad" and his hot dogs, but never mind, boys, when the bold and dashing "Arows" line up there will be something doing. Hot dog! And, yes, in Albany, the home town of those boys in green (St. Pats) the very air seems charged, and if your radio has not yet picked up the news why—but after all, this is no official, so if it is not correct, well, don't blame me—blame Lizzie. He says the St. Pats are out to sweep the country this season. O, boy! Oh! Ah! Now I am ready to stop and not before time. You will no doubt think so. Au revoir, but not good-bye.

"I suppose she will have to give up her home"

WOULD the neighbours be able to talk like that about your widow? Stop and think! What about the mortgage you are carrying on your home? Bit of a struggle to keep up the interest alone, to say nothing of the payments on the principle, isn't it? How would your widow manage—with the children to look after too? Men are often careless in thinking about these things because there are many ways open to a man for earning money.

But to a woman—unused to business—and hampered with children—there are practically none. A small saving invested yearly in an Imperial Endowment Policy would provide a fund that would clear your home of all mortgage indebtedness and leave something over, if you died prematurely. If you live until the policy matures you can then utilize the funds yourself. Make sure to-day! Send the coupon now—tomorrow you may be uninsurable.

IS THERE A SANTA CLAUS?

This question was raised by a young correspondent of the New York Journal several years ago, and was satisfactorily and finally disposed of by the reply of the Editor.

THE QUESTION:

Dear Mr. Editor.—Is there a Santa Claus, or is it only Daddy and Mum making believe? I want to know 'cause my little brothers say that fellows in their grades tell them there is no Santa, and that fathers and mothers and friends fill our stockings when we go to sleep. Please, Mr. Editor, do tell me if Santa Claus is real or only make-believe.

Your Little Friend VIRGIN

THE ANSWER:

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would the world be if there were no Santa Claus? It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childish faith, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men see.

You may tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest men of that ever lived could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance can push aside the curtain and view the glory beyond.

Is it all real? Ah, Virginia! In all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God, he lives and lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia—may, ten thousand times ten thousand years from now—he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.
