The latest news, first of all.
 W. Forbes, Vernon River, was in Halifax Monday.

Mrs. W. B. Chandler and daughter, Miss Leigh, Moncton, were visitors in this City last week.

Mrs. Miller, 149 Park Street, and daughter, left yesterday on a visit to P. E. Island.—Sydney Record.

The drugstores will close this evening at five o'clock so that the employees can take in the championship sports.

Mrs. Frank McKee and daughter, Doris, City, have returned from St. John, where they have been visiting friends.

E. H. Henry of Kensington is visiting in North Wiltshire and Kingston. He intends leaving for the West in a few days.

Admission tickets to the grounds will be on sale today. This is a good move in view of the rush for entrance to the sports tonight.

Miss Stella Matheson is visiting friends in Montague. She is employed as stenographer in Montreal City. She is a Union Commercial College graduate of 1909.

Mrs. A. E. Vessey, St. Stephen, N. B., has gone to Charlottetown, where Mr. Vessey has entered business, and they intend making their future home.—St. John Telegraph.

Rev. R. W. Waddell and family well known in this Province, have returned to Woodstock, N. B., having summered for a month at The Lodge, St. Stephen, N. B. Mr. Waddell is now in Montreal.

Ivanhoe chocolates are steadily gaining in popularity. Johnson & Johnson of this City for whom they are specially manufactured, have just received another fresh stock which includes nineteen different flavours. All dark coated, which are sold in bulk in any assortment desired.

The steamship "Royal Edward" on her last trip out was only thirty minutes from land to land and from Bristol to Quebec five days and twenty hours. The steamships of the "Royal Line" are the finest and fastest on the St. Lawrence route. Hyndman & Co., Ltd., are the agents.

An event of more than usual interest took place at York on Monday when the Cooke laid the foundation of an addition to his already large pigery. Several of the neighbors assisted and when the corner stone was placed in position a sealed bottle containing the daily papers was deposited without however any ceremony. Mr. Cooke finds it necessary to enlarge his premises to accommodate his Yorkshires and Cheshires Whites and intends making a large display at the coming Exhibition.—Com.

A Kingston correspondent writes:—Haying is completed in Kingston. The young men and fair ladies are looking forward to a pleasant sail on the Harland during the coming week. Among the many visitors in Kingston may be mentioned Miss Della Henderson of Charlottetown and Miss Myrtle Weeks of Fredericton. Miss Myrtle Weeks of Fredericton spent a few days in Kingston, the guest of R. and Mrs. Barrett. Oliver Newson is out again after his recent illness. Miss Lola and Ruby Barrett are visiting at Hazelbrook.

A few weeks ago Robert Cairns, of Leamouth, Alberta, brought his wife to Victoria, in the hope that the sea air might enable her to recover from a long and severe illness. Afterwards Mrs. Cairns' sister, Mrs. McLean, came out to be of what comfort and assistance she could. But all that skill and care could do were in vain. Yesterday morning Mrs. Cairns passed away, and today her bereaved husband and sister leave for home, taking with them the body. The deceased lady was greatly esteemed by all who knew her. She was the niece of Mrs. John McKay, Battery street. Her maiden name was Belle Johnson, and her native place was Mill Valley, Prince Edward Island.—Victoria Colonist, Aug. 5th.

IT'S DRINKING TIME

Don't wait until you are thirsty. Thirst isn't necessary for the enjoyment of our soda. Extra good soda is good any time. There's satisfaction in its deliciousness. Our soda isn't the ordinary soda—it isn't made from ordinary materials. It's the kind of soda that requires the best grade of fountain supplies, abundance of ice, skill and conscience in the making. It's the kind that affords little profit and makes friends.
