Double-sided Red Seal Records

Do you know that "His Master's Voice"—Victor Red Seal records are now double-sided?

Now you can secure two Caruso selections for practically the price of one, two McCormack selections for practically the price of one; two selections of any of the other incomparable Red Seal Victor artists for practically the price of one.

As an example:

507 "A DREAM"—sung by CARUSO formerly $1.50
 $1.75 "FOR YOU ALONE"—sung by CARUSO formerly $1.50
 $3.00

Now both may be obtained on one record No. 507—for $1.75.

Only "His Master's Voice"—Victor can offer you such a privilege—for all the great names in music are "His Master's Voice"—Victor names.

Ask any "His Master's Voice" dealer for a complete free catalogue.

ADDRESSES STUDENTS—Mr. G. M. Robertson, Manager of Anglo American Telegraph Co., St. John, N. B. addressed the students of the Union Commercial College on Thursday afternoon. His subject was "The Telegraph". The address contained a great deal of valuable information and was much appreciated. Mr. Robertson was accompanied by Mr. James Murley, Manager for Charlottetown. At the close of the address the thanks of teachers and students was conveyed to the speaker by Prin. Moran.

MADE PROFITABLE SALE—The Maple Leaf Farmers Institute of Summersville and Alberry Plains disposed of their surplus sheep and lambs to the well known and popular buyer, Mr. H. Jenkins of Hazelbrook, the price paid being very satisfactory. This Institute has always been noted for its co-operative marketing of a high grade of lambs and poultry and it fully upheld its reputation this season, as the lambs were the best lot purchased by Mr. Jenkins during the season.

MURRAY HARBOR NOTES—Shipping is about all through at Murray Harbor for this year, the last schooner leaving port being in charge of Captain George Dunn and Chief engineer, Lester Beck and owned by Mr. Alexandra McDonald of Murray Harbor. As this is the maiden voyage for this ship we all wish them a safe voyage.

Miss Agnes Bell has returned home from Summersville. Mrs. Henry Sharam has returned home from French River where she was visiting her sister, Mrs. Gabel. Miss Edna Gabel of French River is at present visiting Gladstone being the guest of Miss Hazel Sharam. Captain Percy White arrived in port also Captain James Herring with a cargo of coal. Mr. Thomas Gosney of Goosey Cove met with a bad loss on last Saturday morning when his barn was burnt with all of its contents consisting of horse, cow, all of his fishing rope, traps and nets, also a quantity of cured fish. Had it not been for the assistance of his neighbors who fought the flames his dwelling house might also have been burnt. The cause of the fire is unknown. Mr. James H. Sharam has returned home from Nova Scotia where he held a good position, but it is understood he intends to return to Nova Scotia shortly. His friends all feel sorry to have Mr. Sharam leave. Mr. Percy Jordan since resigning from the merchantile business has started in the fox industry and has already bought three foxes of high quality. He has Mr. Robert Bell of Murray Harbor employed as foreman of the building of the ranch and it is understood that he is going to have the assistance of Mr. Bell as keeper. Mr. Jordan also intends going into the raising of high class poultry. Mr. James McLeod has moved into his new residence on Main street. Captain Alfred Chapman has about completed the building of his new fox ranch. The many friends of Mrs. W. H. Hughes are glad to hear that she is recovering from her recent illness. Misses Lulu and Hettie Beck, both of Murray Harbor are visiting friends in Montague. The schooner Leo, Captain Horace Hyde, sailed for Sydney, N. S. with a full load of produce. Mr. Preston Prowse intends moving into his new residence on Main street shortly. Mr. James McKay has arrived home from Western Canada and reports times very full in the west.

PERSONALS
 Miss Hilda MacNeven, Canon Cove, and Miss Julia MacDonald, Nine Mile Creek, are visiting in Hunter River the guests of Mrs. Russell Campbell.
 Miss Julia MacDonald and Hilda MacNeven, have returned to their homes after spending a pleasant week visiting friends in Hunter River, while there they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Campbell.
 Mr. Arthur Warburton, who for many years resided in Spain but is now a resident of Quebec, arrived home a day or two ago on a short visit to his father, Dr. Jas. Warburton.

The drawing for the Chevrolet Touring Car for the benefit of the K. O. C. Charity Fund will be held at the Prince Edward at 9 o'clock tonight.
