THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Branch Offices in Summerside and Alberton.

Captain George Murphy, Darnley, is preparing his ice boat to make daily trips and carry passengers from Bass Cove to Spear Point.

Word has been received in Summerside of the marriage at Prosperity, Miss., on the 21st ult., of Norman Schurman, son of Isaac W. Schurman, formerly of North Bideque, and now of Terrill, Texas. The bride is Miss Keen of Missouri.

A grand musical and literary entertainment will be given in the Market Hall on Friday evening, February 1st, under the auspices of the Summerside Presbyterian choir. An interesting program has been prepared and a rare treat is in store for all who attend.

In the Alberton Presbyterian Church on Friday evening, the 23rd inst., the Fanny Mission Band will give a missionary entertainment. Included in the interesting program is a cantata entitled "The Day Star" which will be presented by the band with the assistance of the choir. Make no other date for Friday as the performance of the younger ones is sure to please you, and your attendance will encourage them in their missionary work. Silver collection for missions will be taken.

The adjourned annual meeting of the Summerside Presbyterian church held last night, was a large and most satisfactory one. The financial statement showed a total revenue for the year of $9003 and expenditure $7201, leaving a deficit of $1802. There was expended for repairs to the church $1700 in addition to ordinary expenditure. Contributions to missions amounted to $616. The following board of managers was appointed for the ensuing year: Thos. E. Ramsey, G. P. Walker, D. M. Waugh, J. A. McMurdo, Creel McArthur, D. K. Currie.

At Alberton and in the Presbyterian church Jan. 19th, at 7:30 o'clock the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island met for the induction of Rev. Geo. Millar and was constituted by the Interim Moderator Mr. W. A. McKay, with whom were present: Messrs. R. G. Strathie, T. F. Fullerton, A. D. Stirling, ministers; Hon. B. Rogers, elder; A. D. Stirling was appointed clerk (pro tem). The choir having been duly served, Rev. R. G. Strathie conducted divine service preaching an appropriate and impressive sermon, taking as his subject Christ's Interest in Man. Mr. McKay then narrated the steps that led up to the induction. Mr. Millar came forward and answered the usual questions, and after prayer by the Moderator, was solemnly inducted into the pastoral charge of the congregation. Mr. Fullerton then addressed the minister, and Rev. A. D. Stirling the people, on their respective duties. At the close of the service the congregation which was unusually large considering the severe weather came forward and welcomed their new pastor among the members of the church. The congregation is to be congratulated that after so short a vacancy they have secured a man widely known because of his ability, his earnest services, and his deep spiritual life. Rev. A. D. Stirling resigned the moderatorship of Marshall Id., and Rev. Geo. E. Ross was appointed in his place. The Presbytery closed with the benediction. A. D. Stirling, clerk pro tem.
