RELIGIOUS SERVICES

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH
At the morning service the theme was "The Authority of Jesus" and was based on Matthew's Gospel, the fifth chapter, verses thirty-three to thirty-eight. The following was the division of the theme, "The Place of Christ in Christianity," "The Authority of Jesus for Men of Today," "The Enforcement of Jesus' Authority," and "Personal Acceptance of His Authority."
The subject of the evening sermon was "The Trumpet Call," divided as follows: "Reveille," "Fall In," "Last Post." As each point of the theme was introduced Bugler Whiston Smith sounded the appropriate call from the organ chamber. A special appeal was made at the conclusion for repentance and consecration, for "now is the day of salvation, now is the accepted time." Whether at the last call one is a cringing coward, or a victorious conqueror depends upon the way in which one has followed the Reveille and Fall In. We know not whether for us the coming year will be one of respite and prolonged hope, or whether right now our own death knell is sounding, therefore, the most insistent trumpet call is repent, repent, repent.
At all services the Christmas music was repeated.

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH
Yesterday was general Communion Sunday for the members of the Junior Holy Family at the nine o'clock Mass, and the members received Holy Communion in a body. Mass was also celebrated at 7:30 and High Mass at 10:30 was celebrated by Rev. J. A. Cloran, C.S.S.R., The Rector. Rev. Father Fleming, C.S.S.R., preached at all the Masses in the morning.
In the evening at 7 o'clock, services consisted of the Rosary, Vespers and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH
The Rev. A. C. Vincent, at the morning service of the Baptist Church spoke on "A New Year's Prayer," based on the words of 3 John 2, "Beloved I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health even as thy soul prospereth." This tender understanding letter addressed to an all-time favorite, the apostle John, offers a New Year standard that is just as deeply wise today as nearly nineteen hundred years ago when the pen of the beloved disciple John traced the words.
Gaius was one who knew the meaning service of the indwelling truth, one who walked the pathway of truth, one who did all in a spirit of faith, and to him as to us came the thought of the poverty of all things if unrelated to the prosperity of the soul.
The morning service, "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks," was sung by the choir with Mr. Dingwall taking the baritone solo and Mr. Quisley the tenor.
The evening sermon continued the series on the "Ten Commandments," dealing on this occasion with the tenth, "Thou shalt not covet." Miss Pearl Burns, contralto, was the soloist at this service, singing very effectively, "O Rest in the Lord." It was intimated that between Charlottetown and Borden. It is believed that the work done at this time will be of great benefit due to the spending power of the many visitors who will come here in response to the national urge to "see Canada first." To attract motorists a prior requisite is the assurance of a dustless highway.

NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE OF PREMIER

"In common with other potato growing areas, our farmers have been unable to dispose of this year's crop, and if it were not for the ready cash received from the sale of fox pelts very little money would be in circulation. Approaching 80,000 pelts are now offering and prices are slightly better than last year.
"The wisdom of diversified farming is daily becoming more apparent and the importance of dairy and beef cattle, together with poultry and hog raising, is not being lost sight of.
"Great as have been the problems facing this young Dominion during recent years, I am confident that our steadfastness of purpose and the manner in which our credits and undertakings have withstood the stress of unprecedented conditions, is an achievement which will be a source of pride and admiration to future generations.
"In wishing the people of this Province a very Happy and Prosperous New Year, I do so, firm in the belief that notwithstanding the many difficulties with which we have had to contend, we are, without doubt, the most favoured Province in Canada."

FINANCE MINISTER
Interest Charges Reduced
To offset the increased amount of debt incurred during the period of economic stress, a very effective relief has been obtained in the savings made through the refunding of debt at lower interest rates. Since 1930, over $1,100,000,000 of such debt has been refunded, with a resultant annual saving in interest charges of over $1,615,877. The average rate of interest on Dominion debt, both external as well as internal, is now 4.28 per cent, as compared with slightly over five per cent when the present administration took office. Every opportunity available will be used to achieve further savings of this nature, not only in connection with our direct debt but also the debt of the Canadian National Railways guaranteed by the Dominion. Just a few days ago we were able to reduce the amount of $30,500,000 of Dominion debt, with interest charges from four per cent to slightly over three per cent.
Not being unmindful of the difficult position in which many of our people still find themselves, it can be said that for many the year which is now closing has brought better conditions and fresh hope and encouragement for the future. Constructive forces are at work which, competent observers believe will give an increase in the upward trend of economic activity. Low interest rates, stable or advanced prices for commodities, renewed public confidence, increased pay rolls, and the resumption of profits in trade and industry are some of the influences which may be expected to give further impetus to business activity. I believe, therefore, we are justified in approaching the New Year with a considerable degree of optimism.
Looking back over the year now about to close we have much to be thankful for.
Our national credit has never stood higher—if so high. Our banking and financial institutions have without a single exception maintained their integrity and their strength, and therefore, their capacity to serve our people is increasing employment.
An increased volume of trade which places us in the proud position of the fifth largest trading nation in the world. An expanding trade within the British Empire with resultant benefits not only to ourselves but to the Mother Country and our sister Dominions, as well. Without attempting to enter into the realm of prophecy it may be safely said that there are permanent many indications that we may look forward both to the permanence of Empire's trade and to its continued expansion. And it may well be that the beneficial results apparent from the increased flow of trade within the Empire may serve as a pattern and example to all other nations of the world, and assist in bringing about an expansion in world trade within which no single nation can enjoy the fullest measure of well-being.
May I, in conclusion, express the hope that you may enjoy abundant health and an increased measure of happiness and prosperity during the new year.

TOURIST AND MOTOR TRAFFIC
The Prince Edward Island Tourist Association reports that, according to their information, although there was a considerable increase in the number of automobiles coming to the Province, the hotels report no increase in the number of tourists. This apparent discrepancy is explained by the fact that an increasing number of tourists rent bungalows. There are also a number of farm houses that accommodate tourists during the tourist season this year. The following is a list of bungalows given below:
Tormentine to Borden:

June	1933	1934
July	503	593
August	1247	1339
September	1287	1000
October	728	1000
Totals	3646	4416

It may be seen from the above figures that the increase in automobiles amounted to 770. This represents possibly 2,000 more individual tourists.
The poultry industry in Prince Edward Island maintained about the same level of production as in previous years, states Mr. L. McDonald, manager of the P. E. I. Co-operative Egg and Poultry Association. The number of eggs handled showed a small decrease, probably about 10%, but on the other hand the price was higher so that the income derived by the farmers from this branch of the industry was slightly in excess of that of 1933.
The egg production for the year 1934 including exports and home consumption was, according to the available data at the time of writing, probably three and one quarter million dozen. The dressed poultry amounted to approximately six hundred and fifty thousand pounds. The egg and poultry association marketed about 75% of their handling of poultry in the "milked" class. This was a considerable increase over last year, owing possibly to the more favorable weather conditions prevailing in the fall of 1934. That the price of potatoes, according to the poultry farmers, is longer thereby causing farmers to pay more attention to poultry, may also have had something to do with the improved quality. This would almost lead to the conclusion that farmers are not "cashing in" on the poultry industry to the extent that they might.
There continues to be a large potential market for poultry products in the British Isles which this Province is at present unable to take advantage of as no firm of group of firms handles sufficient volume to meet the requirements of the British importer.
As in 1933 the demand for poultry products from Prince Edward Island in 1934 was greatly in excess of supply.

MORE FISH MEAL USED BY FARMERS
(By The Canadian Press)
HALIFAX, Dec. 30—The Maritime-produced fish meal today is playing an important role in the light by Nova Scotian farmers to reduce cost feed importations, declared Dr. S. A. Beatty of the Halifax Fisheries Experimental Station.
"In 1934," Dr. Beatty said, "the Maritime provinces were importing $4,500,000 worth of feed annually and the slump coming shortly after pushed prices of farm products so low that the financial ability of the farmer to import protein feeds to keep his stock was sorely taxed."
"Today finds success crowning our efforts and Nova Scotian farmers are turning more and more to this product which contains all the proteins and salts essential to proper stock growth," the experimental station official said. He estimated that more than 1,000 tons of this product will be used on Nova Scotian farms during the coming year.

EMPTIED DRAIN FOR SILVER
(Canadian Press)
LONDON, Dec. 29—Spectators by the hundreds watched three workmen recovering money appearing in a sewer 20 feet below the surface of Northdown Road. An errand boy had dropped silver in a bag on the grating of the drain. The bag burst and the money went down. It was recovered when the drain was emptied by suction.

BUILDING CONSTRUCTION DURING YEAR

Building construction in Charlottetown in 1934 was confined principally to residences. Despite this business was good, generally as there was considerable repair work and other general jobbing. A large number of old wooden roofs were replaced with asphalt shingles. The following is a short summary of the work done by some of the Charlottetown contractors:

MacDougall and MacAulay
Mrs. G. H. Toombs: Re-modelling building corner of Queen and Water Streets.
Miss Ruth Vinnicombe: Converting residence into apartments, Fitzroy Street.
Mr. W. R. Aitken: New bungalow and garage, West Street.
Mrs. J. A. Messey: New bungalow, Langley Beach.
Mr. Emerick Holland: New residence, Grafton Street.
Mr. Reuben MacDougall: New residence, West Street.
Mr. T. W. L. Prowse: Fire-job, remodelling, Grafton Street.
Polyclinic: New additions and changes, Prince Street.
Bank of Nova Scotia: Office changes.
City of Montreal: Office changes.
Business has been generally good in re-covering old roofs with asphalt shingles. General jobbing has shown a big improvement over last year.
Wall Eros.
New residence for Mr. Thomas Beer, Malpeque Road. Considerable general repair work.
E. H. Foster
New residence for Mr. J. B. Garnham, North River Road.
New residence for Mr. F. S. Chandler.
Repair work such as covering old roofs with asphalt shingles and other general repair work was good.
W. J. Hennessey
New two story brick building (80 ft x 30 ft) Queen Street for Mr. Frank Currie.
A. T. McKinnon
Converted residence into apartment for Aben MacLean, Fitzroy Street.
New power house at the Railway Wharf.
Remodelling summer residence at Lewis Point for Mr. William Brehaut.
New addition to A. E. Foster's Drug Store.
New foundation under caretaker's house at West Kent School.
Repairs to West Kent School.
Interior work in the Public Library.

JAPAN ON GUARD AS NEW YEAR OPENS

(By Glen Babb)
(Associated Press Foreign Staff)
TOKYO, Dec. 30—Japan—having rejected the Washington Naval Treaty to the limbo of outgrown international engagements—faces the new year on guard.
Premier Katsuko Okada's new year's statement to the nation today expressed the sentiment of patriotism of his fellow citizens.
"It is natural," he said, "that the advancement of a nation is always attended by various difficult problems. Hence the new year ushers Japan into what may be termed an emergency period."
For three years the admirals and generals who have dictated the imperial policy have been preaching about the "crisis of 1936-36."
General stiffening of Japan's attitude toward the world has developed an intensification of patriotism ready at a high pitch, a new self-confidence, an expanding ambition. In this frame of mind the Japanese people face their neighbors.
Dangerously hanging over 1935 will be the oil controversies, in which Japan is sternly and thus far unyieldingly faced other nations. The western powers have protested that the plans for a Manchukuo oil monopoly will oust British and United States companies from the Manchurian markets in contravention of treaties and Japanese and Manchukuo pledges of the open door. In Japan proper, the new petroleum industry law bears unfairly on the foreign companies.
Japanese leaders expected 1935 to witness a further strengthening of the bonds between Manchukuo and the Mikado's empire.
A reorganization of Japanese administrative organs in Manchuria threatening the army's control in nearly all fields is about to be put into operation. In the far north, northeast and northwest, new strategic railways are being pushed to the Russian borders by the Japanese South Manchuria railway.
SUCIDES NUMBER 400 (A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
WARSAW, Dec. 30—Passengers arriving on trains from Moscow and Leningrad today said suicides there in the last two weeks during the investigation of the assassination of Sergei Kiroff had totalled more than 400.
Trains which ordinarily arrive nearly empty have been crowded recently with foreign travellers.

PUSIE "ICED" IN GAME

BOSTON, Dec. 30—Hockey folks of beantown tonight were still talking about last night's hectic Canadian-American hockey league match, won by the local Cubs from Providence Reds 3-2.
More than 7,000 were present for the introduction of the league's new offside rule but what really caught their eye was one of the grandest free-for-all in local hockey history.
Monsieur Gene Pusie, erstwhile boxer, "rassler" and presently defenceman of the Cubs, precipitated the battle following a stiff check handed him by George Nichols, captain of the league's M. Pusie was floored or rather "iced" by the bodycheck.
On regaining his feet he sailed into Nichols with both fists. They were finally separated but Pusie, while being led away, broke from his teammates and officials and again pummeled the Providence player. This was the signal for the outbreak of half a dozen other personal jousts between Cubmen and Reds.
Order was not restored until several hundred spectators had clambered over the boards, necessitating an SOS call for a large detail of policemen who finally got things straightened out.
The fans appeared to appreciate the new offside rule which practically eliminates one of the blue lines and enable a player to pass from the defending zone to a teammate in the centre zone. Whistle blowing by the officials was greatly reduced.
