A New Departure in Home Dyeing

MAJIC SOAP FLAKES

THE invention of Majic Dye Soap Flakes marks the final achievement of a satisfactory home dye.

All objections have been overcome—no rubbing or scrubbing, no staining of hands or utensils, no long, tedious boiling—very little labor. Dip your garment or material into the thick, sparkling Majic ends, rinse and remove it, cleaned and renewed—just the color you wanted and expected. Majic Dye Soap Flakes cannot harm any washable material.

—GRAND RIVER FERRY. The attendance of the powers that be is again called to the fact that the Grand River ferry, which according to a recent issue of the local paper is in operation, is not operating. For a couple of days it made a few painful trips conveying our esteemed young farmer, Mr. Jervase McNeil it halted in mid-stream and refused to proceed. By toiling ceaselessly from 4 p. m. till 10.30 p. m. Mr. McNeil succeeded in getting the ferry across to the Grand River wharf and from there she has since refused to move.—N.

—A FIRE AT KENSINGTON. A slight fire occurred at the Bank of Nova Scotia building, Kensington yesterday morning. No serious damage resulted, but the business will be suspended for a brief period, until the offices are set in order. The fire was effectively controlled by the fire brigade, with its new chemical engine.

—Miller's Worm Powders were devised to promptly relieve children who suffer from the ravages of worms. It is a simple preparation warranted to destroy stomachic and intestinal worms without shock or injury to the most sensitive system. They act thoroughly and painlessly, and though in some cases they may cause vomiting, that is an indication of their powerful action and not of any nauseating property.

WESTERN PERSONALS

—Mrs. Dr. Price, of Boston, Mass., is visiting in Summerside, the guest of Miss Eva McNeill.

—Relief From Asthma. Who can describe the complete relief from suffering which follows the use of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Who can express the feeling of joy that comes when its soft and gentle influence relieves the tightened, choking air tubes! It has made asthmatic affliction a thing of the past for thousands. It never fails. Good druggists everywhere have sold it for years.
