MUCH sorrow and sympathy is felt because of the death of John Lang, of Tryon, who departed this life at ten o'clock on Wednesday night. Deceased was in his 76th year. His son, John, who had been summoned home from Boston, arrived just a little while before the end, in time to exchange a few words with his father, who was quite rational up to the time he expired. Death was the result of Bright's disease. There are left to mourn three sons—William in Los Angeles, California; John in Boston; Frank, the manager of the Tryon Creamery Co., in Tryon; and four daughters—Jessie, Mary and Lottie of Boston; and Hannah, who is lying dangerously ill at home. Mary and Lottie arrived home some weeks ago, and are still there. The death of Mr. Lang, full of years and honor, will be heard with regret by a large circle of acquaintances, and his loss will be keenly felt.
