Mr. and Mrs. Donald McAdam, Charlottetown, spent the New Year holidays with relatives and friends here.

The Misses Helen and Lois Cox spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cox.

Miss Lois Eldershaw, student at P.W.C., has returned to her studies after spending a long holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eldershaw.

Considerable canning has been done at the Bennett canning plant at Morell River Bridge where a large amount of vegetables were put up.

Miss Hope Dineen of the post office staff, Charlottetown, spent the New Year holidays with her mother in Morell East.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie McInnis and baby, Charlottetown, spent the holiday at their old home in Morell.

Mr. James MacDonald entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Friday, where he will undergo a serious operation.

There is so much snow around some of the back yards here that tunnels have to be dug to get out.

Miss Catherine Coffin, nurse in training at the Charlottetown Hospital, spent the New Year holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Coffin, at Morell.

Mr. Alex Birt who arrived from Halifax to spend the holiday with his wife and family here, left on Friday morning on return traveling by plane from the city.

Mr. Anselm Lapierre leaves this week for the lumber camps in Antigonish, N.S., as head cook for the winter months. Mr. Lapierre is a well known cook, one of the best.

A slight fire in the kitchen ceiling near the fire in the home of Mr. John T. O'Brien on New Year's Day was put out before any damage was done.

A good old friend Gerry McAdam, who is undergoing treatment at the Little Flower Church for the holiday season. He will return shortly to the big city for further treatment, and hopes to be in good health by next summer.

Miss G. Henneberry, nurse in training at the Charlottetown Hospital is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henneberry, at the present time in this vicinity.

Many people walking to Mass at the Little Flower Church Morell on New Year's Day were high in their praise of the operator of the snow plough who made such a fine job of ploughing the road from the main highway up the new road to the church. As practically every one in the village has to walk it was a blessing to find this road ploughed out wide and clean like a floor.

A young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hawbolt was rushed to the P.E.I. Hospital last week for a serious operation. A call was put through to H. H. Cox for a plough to open the road and soon after the plough passed here a car left with the young girl for the city. Mr. H. S. MacEwen used his car for the trip.

In the last Bristol News it was stated the snow plough stationed at Morell remained idle at Christmas while others were at work but Mr. Gordon Hooper says that the plough was undergoing repairs in the city at the time and not at Morell, so the information was incorrect. This item was handed in by a Morell resident and accepted in good faith and any reflection on Mr. Hooper is regretted.

What might have been a tragedy at Bristol at Christmas was averted by two young ladies, Mrs. P. R. Sinnott and Miss Mabel O'Brien, sisters, who went to visit Mrs. Annie Curran an aged lady living here alone. They were taking her some goodies and hot tea but found her door barred. Waiting for some time they were finally admitted and found Mrs. Curran in a terrible state as she had been ill in bed for three days without food or water and the weather was so cold that pails of water in the kitchen were frozen to the bottom. The two good women went right to work and got a hot fire on and at the same time fed the woman some nourishing food. Sending home for clean, warm clothes they washed and dressed Mrs. Curran and sent for Father McKenna, who in turn made arrangements with Hon. H. H. Cox to have her removed to the infirmary in Charlottetown. In short order the truck from Dingwell and Rositer's store arrived and along with friends the unfortunate woman who was feeling much improved was taken to a place where she will receive good care and treatment.

SNOW FLAKES

Gently, and softly, the flakes float down. White, and fleecy and gay. Covering the homely house-tops. Where the chimneys' black smoke sways.

Wrapping the flimsy novels In a mantle of shimmering snow. Trimming the edges of gutters. With a lacy icicle's glow.

Covering unsightly side-walks, Uneven, and old, and bleak. Hiding their grimy blackness. Caused by our marching feet.

Over all the dark places of horror, God's matchless snow flakes now whirled. With infinite wisdom and caution He dresses the wounds of the world.

To Relieve Bad Cough Quickly, Mix This at Home

Here's an old home mixture your mother probably used, and, for real results, it is still a most dependable medicine for distressing coughs. Try it once, and you'll swear by it. It's no trouble at all. Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments until dissolved. No cooking is needed. (Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.) Any-one can do it. Now put 1 1/2 ounces of Pinex into a 16 oz. bottle, and fill up with syrup. This gives you 16 ounces of really Pinex in Fast Relief. Easily Mixed. Saves Money.
