By inadvertence a page was omitted from the report of the prohibition cases recently tried at Murray River. The omitted minutes of evidence are given below:

Jenkins vs Dr. Coffin: Stanford Bell, sworn. To Mr. Jenkins--Got prescriptions 23rd, not day of trot, from Dr. Coffin, Murray Harbor South. Did not ask for anything. Got two prescriptions, one in my own name. Don't know name of other. Got two prescriptions because I wanted to get a bottle. Got another Feb. 4th, one prescription in my own name. Don't know who the other was for--I think for a Mr. McLeod. Got a bottle 24th Feb. Got one prescription in my own name. Dr. Coffin supplied the other name. Asked by the prosecutor if he was able to go for the liquor witness said, I was able to come up to Mr. Ross's. Can't say whether I got another bottle on 27th Feb or not. Can't say whether I got another bottle March 12. Could not say how many times between 24th Feb. and 23rd March. Doctor examined my pulse. I told the doctor I was unwell--had a touch of gripe. He prescribed nothing for me but whiskey. Asked by Mr. Jenkins whether the doctor felt the other fellow's pulse, witness said "No, he was not present." (Laughter).
