OSCAR WILDE THE AUTHOR. PARIS, March 4.—Oscar Wilde's friends think they have settled the controversy about the authorship of the sensational book entitled "Love Letters of an English Woman," by publishing documents in the French newspapers which seem to prove that it was really his last book.

WHY SO MANY FAIL. The Reason So Many Catarrh Remedies are Unsuccessful. There are few troubles, for which there are so many remedies and so called "cures" as for catarrh and it may be added there are few diseases so difficult to really and permanently cure.

INHALERS, sprays, powders and douches are all applied locally and give temporary relief, often for only a few hours, and it is doubtful if anything like a real cure of catarrh was ever accomplished by the use of local applications.

Catarrh is a constitutional disease, it is in the blood like rheumatism and to cure it requires an internal medicine to act upon the blood, to drive out the catarrh poison from the system entirely and anyone can readily see that a salve or powder or inhaler which simply clears off the mucous membrane of the nose and throat can have no effect on the real cause of catarrh disease.

THE remarkable success of the new catarrh remedy, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is because it drives out of the system through the natural channels, the catarrh poison, the germs of grip bronchitis and consumption and causes the hawking, spitting and gagging because the excessive secretion is no longer supplied when the blood is made healthy from the regular use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

THE remedy is in the form of large 20 grain lozenges, pleasant and palatable composed only of wholesome antiseptics and so safe to use that little children use them with perfect safety and benefit if the little one is suffering from colds, croup or cough from any cause.

STUART'S Catarrh Tablets have been on the market scarcely one year yet they have met with such popularity and success that druggists everywhere in United States and Canada now have them in stock and report a constantly increasing demand for them.
