Thoughtful Act By Lord Byng

(Special to The Guardian.)

OTTAWA, Dec. 30.—An innovation in the ceremony of swearing in the new Dominion cabinet was the fact that each man took the oath on a separate Bible which was inscribed with his name and the signature Byng of Vimy. The Bibles in question were Orthodox to those to whom they were presented.

Senator Dandurand's New and Difficult Task

(Special to The Guardian.)

OTTAWA, Dec. 30.—Hon. Mr. Dandurand the new leader of the senate will have no light task in asmuch as the Conservatives are in majority of thirty over the government forces in the senate and there may be staged many interesting situations, although it may be said that there is today a far greater spirit of independence among the senators than there was in past days.

Waging War On Lobster Influx From Dominion

AUGUSTA, Dec. 30. —A vigorous campaign against the inroads the Canadian lobsters are making in the Maine trade by being sold at a lower price, and as is claimed, of an inferior quality, is being waged by Horatio D. Crie, director of the Maine Sea and Shore Fisheries Commission. In commenting upon the matter, Mr. Crie asks the fishermen:

"Do you want to continue and prosper in lobster fishing? Do you want your son to be more prosperous than you have been? Do you want to divide your market with the Canadian lobster fisherman? Do you want to sell your high grade product in competition with the inferior Canadian lobsters that generally arrive one-third dead and boiled and put on the market in the United States at a very low price? Do you want to get a good price for your lobsters?

"If so, just look into the future and see if it doesn't appear rather gloomy with Nova Soctia lobsters coming into our market free of duty.

He further suggests in prescribing a remedy.

"Let's begin today to build a foundation forthe future that will make Maine lobsters worth catching. Wouldn't we have appreciated it if our fathers had done this for us a generation ago in order that we might receive a price worthy of our product today?

"If we are to prosper in the lobster business we must observe the law very strictly and work on a high protective tariff on lobsters shipped from Canada into the United States markets.

"The way to get a duty through Congress is for each fisherman to write a letter to the director of Sea and Shore Fisheries urging him to do his best to have such a duty placed on lobsters. A letter from each fisherman will go a long way toward getting that much needed duty."

Personnel of the New MacKenzie King Cabinet

The new Liberal cabinet has finally been settled and duly sworn in. There are some slight changes from the line-up given yesterday but otherwise it remains largely as forecasted. There are some peculiar but significant appointments as will be seen.

Sir Lomer Gouin is Minister of Justice. This appointment is not likely to commend itself to the Western members, particularly the Progressives, who stipulated among the conditions on which they would join forces with Mr. King, that Sir Lomer should not have a seat in the cabinet at all. Sir Lomer holds the most important seat next to that of the Prime Minister as all legislation must pass through his hands, including the tariff laws.

His well known high tariff predelictions are repugnant to the West generally.

The Prime Minister has assumed three portfolios, the premiership which is nominal, Secretary of State for External Affairs and President of the Privy Council, the latter portfolio hitherto being held by another.

The appointment of Senator Bostock as Minister of Public Works, is perhaps the most amazing of all the appointments. Why the biggest spending department of the government should be handed over to a Senator, who is in no way responsible to the people and taken out of the hands of the peoples' elected representatives is a query the solution of which is still in the future. Senator Bostock is interested in fruit ranching and hitherto has had little or no contact with any of the great public undertakings of Canada.

The appointment of Hon. W. S. Fielding the only conscriptionist member in the government is generally conceded to be temporary and erelong will probably make room for another probably Mr. Mitchell, who was Sir Lomer's Finance Minister in Quebec. Meanwhile Mr. Fielding's well-known protectionist principles are a recognized qualification for a cabinet position under present circumstances. It will be remembered that he increased the general tariff by two and one half percent during his former ministry.

The appointment of Mr. W. C. Kennedy of Ontario, as Minister of Railways also awaits a solution. Mr. Kennedy is a well-known gass and oil operator but unknown in public life. What he knows about the intricacies of railway management is yet to be divulged.

The appointment of Mr. La Pointe as Minister of Marine and Fisheries appears to have been an afterthought. He had originally been slated as Minister of Justice, but evidently the "old gang" in Quebec would have none of him. With his partner Mr. Jacques Bureau he dethroned Messrs. Fielding and Gouin at the 1919 Liberal conference and that score had to be wiped out.

The Honorable Jacques Bureau, mentioned above is Minister of Customs and Excise, a position previously given to the Maritime Provinces.

The portfolio of Agriculture, which it had been expected would go to Mr. [illegible] Sinclair of this province was given to Mr. Motherwell of Saskatchewan, whose qualification cannot begin to compare with that of Mr. Sinclair.

The portfolio of Civil Re-establishment and Health, which the Liberals boasted would be abolished, has been retained and given to Dr. Beland.

The Ministry of Militia and Defence and Naval Service combines is given to the Light Comedian of the party Hon. George P. Graham.

Hon. Charles Murphy receives the Postmaster Generalship, probably the most appropriate appointment in the list.

The Ministry of Labor is given to Hon. James Murdock, who is not a member of the House and whose sole claim to favor is that he wrecked a commission of which he was the sole remaining member.

Hon. Charles Stewart, Alberta has been given two and one half portfolios, namely, Minister of the Interior, Minister of Mines and Superintendant General of Indian Affairs.

Hon. A. B. Copp, of New Brunswick, has been given the portfolio of Secretary of State.

In the appointment of Senator Dandurand, without portfolio, the Big Interests have an additional representative in the cabinet. Senator Dandurand is a Director of the Dominion Steel Corporation, of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, or the Sun Life Assurance Company, of the Montreal Cottons Limited, so much denounced by McKenzie King, the Montreal Trust Company etc.

Quebec gets an additional member without portfolio, representing the Big Interests, in the Hon. T. A. Low, who though representing an Ontario constituency belongs to Quebec. He is a lumber merchant and manufacturer, President of the Renfrew Machinery Company, Limited, President of the Renfrew Flour Mills Limited, President of the Renfrew Refrigerator Company Limited, President of the Renfrew Electric Manufacturing Company Limited, President of the Renfrew Manufacturing Company Limited, President of the Opeongo Mica Mines Limited, President British Canadian Export Company Limited, Director Renfrew Power Company Limited.

Hon. D. D. MacKenzie, of Nova Scotia once leader of the Liberal party and who held the candle in the window and the latch string outside the door, is given the portfolio of Solicitor General.

Hon. John E. Sinclair, who rightly, should have been given the portfolio of Agriculture is among the members in the cabinet with portfolio.

It is not always the most worthy in the Liberal ranks, who receive the recognition that he deserves and in this instance the Prime Minister having become the tool of the Big Interests of Quebec had to give the Big Interests of Quebec the say in cabinet appointments.

Following is the line-up of the cabinet as it stood when sworn in:

Prime Minister and Secretary of State for External Affairs and President of the Privy Council.—Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King.

Minister of Finance— Hon W. S. Fielding.

Minister of Railways and Canals —Hon. W. C. Kennedy.

Solicitor General —Hon. D. D. MacKenzie.

Secretary of State—Hon. A B. Copp.

Without Portfolio—Hon. Raoul Dandurand, Hon. John E. Sinclair Hon. T. A. Low.

The representation in the cabinet by provinces is as follows:—

Nova Scotia— Fielding and MacKenzie.

New Brunswick—Copp.

Prince Edward Island— Sinclair.

Loth's System Steers Airplane In Fog

Paris, Dec. 28. —Since the recent test of a flying airplane of Loth's system of airplane directing by means of a ground cable and wireless, great interest in all parts of the world has been manifested in this French patent which soon will be utilized for steering throuth the fog on the Paris to London route.

The inventor recently consented to demonstrate his device in a Nieuport plane piloted by Lance. The flight was made over a winding three-kilometre circuit including eight sharp turns at the Villacoublay Airdrome.

After three-quarters of an hour in the air listening to the diapason which varied in intensity as the airplane aproached or leviated from the soundemitting cable denoting the route, one was convinced of the value of the discovery. When the airplane was well off the route the sound in the receivers ceased entirely. In practice the aviator will wear a receiver on one ear leaving the other free to listen to the engine.

The receiving equipment consists of three frames one horizontal and two vertical—picking up the waves from the magnetic field from a wire charged with an alternating current of 600 per second freuqency.

Proposed Regulations On Submarines

(Special to The Guardian.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Sir Robert Borden this morning declared himself confident that the naval committee of the armament conference would make a declaration upon the submarine question which would be highly satisfactory to the civilized world. The Root resolutin which with amendments is under discussion may be divided into three sections. The first declares it to be unlawful for any submarine to fire upon a merchant vessel without first calling upon said vessel to surrender or to sink such vessel without first landing the crew and passengers in a place of safety. These conditions declares that it being obviously impossible for a submarine to comply with such rules it shall be unlawful for the undersea craft to attack merchant vessels. The third section declares that any submarine commander violating the above rules may be hanged as a pirate by any country having him in custody. An amendment suggested by Mr. Balfour pledges the five great naval powers to refrain from using the submarine as an offensive weapon at least in the event of any war between themselves.

BIG THEFT OF SAFETY RAZORS

NEW YORK, Dec 30—Alleged organized theft of more than $1,000,000 worth of supplies from Army Base at Brooklyn was disclosed by army intelligence officers after the arrest of three civilian employees. For some time the officers said, articles including 3,000,000 safety razor blades had been smuggled out in trucks. The trio were held under $[illegible] bond.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN ST. JOHN.

ST. JOHN, Dec. 28. —At a special luncheon, held today to discuss the question of unemployment, the Rotary Club decided to pay the rent light and heat of a vacant store to be used as an employment office if the Salvation Army would provide the staff, as it had undertaken to do when the opening of such an office was proposed by representatives of the Evangelical Alliance and other bodies. Captain Burrowes, of the Salvation Army, said later the Army would staff the office.

Amicable Solution of Naval Controversy Now in Sight

(Special to The Guardian.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30. —Proposals for the limitation of auxiliary naval craft to a maximum of 10,000 tons displacement was understood to have been virtually agreed upon at the morning session today of the arms conference naval committee. All of the power delegations accepted the proposal except the French, who while holding formal approval in abeyance, said such approval was expected. The session was concerned mainly with discussions of the proposals to make illegal any use of submarines against merchantmen. The British amendment making the new rule, applicable immediately to the five great powers was debated extensively with the result that France, Italy and Japan asked their governments for instructions. No serious objection to the proposal was raised by the confreres and an American delegate predicted the home governments will adhere to the proposal.

Earl of Athlone Possible Irish Governor

(Special to The Examiner.)

LONDON, Dec. 30.—The Earl of Athlone, the Queen's younger brother who would have succeeeded the Duke of Connaught as Governor General of Canada in 1914 but for the outbreak of the war is the latest person mentioned for the Governor-Generalship of the Irish Free State.

French Debt Doubled Since The Armistice

Paris, Dec 29.— France's debt, including exterior obligations, have almost doubled since the armistice despite her gerat fiscal effort, says Senator Cheron in his report on the budget which was distributed today. The total debts were only 171, 688,000,000 francs at the end of 1918 but the total has now reached the enormous sum of 328,000,000,000 francs, largely because Germany failed to pay the sums promised and because of the constant adverse exchange conditions.

Senator Cheron considers the next year's budget to be fairly satisfactory if Germany is made to pay up under the London accord and the Senate approves another 500,000,000 francs reduction in expenses, a measure which has been passed by the Chamber. The Senator insists that the nation must not be asked to subscribe further to internal loans.

Prince Of Wales Opened The Victorian Memorial

The building is in the form of a vast marble palace and is of rare architectual beauty. It required fifteen years to erect it. The building comprises a museum, commemorated to India's glory. It contains portraits of old Emperors of Delhi and of famous men who labored for India during the Victrian era.

The ceremony today was carried out in full swing. The Prince of Wales drove from Government House with an escort of guns and cavalry.
