FUNNIOSITIES

Today's Great Thought:

As ye sew so ye shall rip.

No Wonder She Blushed.

"That's a nice-looking fellow who's just come in," said the young man who was lunching with his best girl at White's. "Is he a friend of yours?"
"Yes, indeed, I know him well," laughed the maiden.
"Shall I ask him to join us?"
"Oh, George!" said the girl, blushing. "This is so sudden."
"Sudden? What do you mean?" he asked in surprise.
"Why—why, that's our young minister."

About Flies.

Citizens who have had during the past few weeks to expend a little fortune on fly paper, or "tanglefoot" as it is technically known, should appreciate the following definitions: "Fly—a familiar summer boarder who mingles with the cream of society, gets stuck on the butter and leaves his specs behind. Fly-screen—An arrangement for keeping flies in the house."

Sartorial Tastes.

"W—'s half-guinea flannel trousers" are advertised in the Belfast Evening Telegraph under the heading of "Brevities." Personally we would rather pay a trifle more and get them the right length.

Extraordinary!

To pass from the subject of men's flannels to women's—well, read it for yourself. A pretty young woman, with a large white hat, pink coat and narrow white skirt, stepped on a trolley car in one of the suburbs of the Sound. Everybody knows what a beautiful combination picture is made by a tight skirt and a high car step. Well, when this young woman boarded the car she disclosed a pair of black silk open work socks held up by a pair of men's black silk garters. A gasp of astonishment came from other women getting on the same car and waiting for others. Some of them made remarks complimentary and a few otherwise. The car was followed by a crowd of men.

The Glad Eye.

According to a recently issued White Paper, Lupunga, one of the most powerful chiefs in the Congo, is "a villainous-looking individual, with only one eye and three hundred or more wives." Evidently his one eye is of the "glad" variety.

Two Heads are Better, etc.

When two players collided in a cricket match at Bathurst, the noise was heard all round the ground as their foreheads met. Not the only people, however, who have been putting their heads together recently to brighten cricket.

Dear at the Price.

Ms: "A penny for your thoughts, Miss Sterling—but I suppose you value them at more than that?"
She: "Oh, no! The fact is, I was thinking of you."

No Fooling Him.

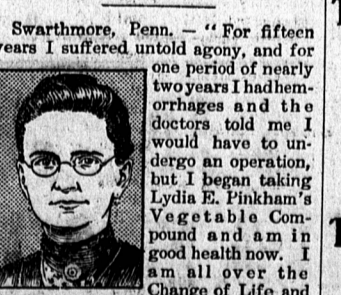

The following sign was posted at the opening of the baseball season in the office of Postmaster Campbell of Chicago:

SPECIAL NOTICE.

"All requests for leave of absence owing to funerals, weddings, lame back, house cleaning, sore throat, headache, indigestion, etc., must be handed in not later than 10 a. m. on the day of the game."

SAVED FROM OPERATIONS

Two Women Tell How They Escaped the Surgeon's Knife by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Swarthmore, Penn. — "For fifteen years I suffered untold agony, and for one period of nearly two years I had hemorrhages and the doctors told me I would have to undergo an operation, but I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am in good health now. I am all over the Change of Life and cannot praise your Vegetable Compound too highly. Every woman should take it at that time. I recommend it to both old and young for female troubles." — Mrs. EMILY SUMMERSGILL, Swarthmore, Pa.

Baltimore, Md. — "My troubles began with the loss of a child, and I had hemorrhages for four months. The doctors said an operation was necessary, but I dreaded it and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The medicine has made me a well woman and I feel strong and do my own work." — Mrs. J. R. PICKING, 1260 Sargent St., Baltimore, Md.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

Of Two Evils.

The little boy in this story from Touche a Tout was evidently a firm believer in the old adage, "Of two evils choose the less." Turning a corner at full speed he collided with the minister.

"Where are you running to my little man?" asked the minister, when he had regained his breath.
"Home," panted the boy. "Ma's going to spank me!"
"What?" gasped the astonished minister. "Are you eager to have your mother spank you that you run home so fast?"
"No," shouted the boy over his shoulder as he resumed his homeward flight, "but if I don't get there before pa, he'll do it!"

FARMERS' PICNIC

The members of the Cornwall Farmers' Institute had a picnic to the Experimental Station yesterday afternoon. About 115 in number, they drove out to the Station about two o'clock. There they were taken in charge by Mr. Clark, who conducted them over the Station, explaining everything in his characteristically thorough manner. After a while the visitors were addressed by Mr. T. A. Benson, the Provincial Poultry Expert. Then they were again taken in hand by Mr. Clark, who took them over the alfalfa and grain plots. This was followed by tea at five o'clock in the afternoon and at six o'clock the party left the Station. Before leaving, however, they showed their appreciation of Mr. Clark's good offices to them by according him a hearty vote of thanks, on the motion of Mr. Pope Crosby, seconded by Mr. Howard.
