MUSTARD BATH

Three or four heaping tablespoons of dry mustard dissolved in a full tub of warm water is an effective steam bath, inducing perspiration without the discomfort of hot water.

He leaves to cherish his memory two nieces and a nephew, namely, Mrs. Harry A. MacDougall, Mrs. F. Lloyd Carleton, both residing in Charlottetown, and a nephew, G. Earle MacDougall, now residing in Shrewsbury, U.S.A. Mr. MacLeod was a member of the Church of Scotland and was visited in the hospital many times by his minister, the Rev. F. Fitzmann who also conducted the services in the church, prayer being offered by Mr. Hixson. The hymns sung were all favorites of the deceased, namely "Unto the Hills," "Twenty Third Psalm," "The Hour of My Departure" is Come."

After the remains were viewed by all his old friends and neighbors burial took place in the family plot at Murray River, the pall bearers being Leonard Hooper, John Hooper, Albert McKay, Alex. Dunne, Alex. MacDonald, David Glover and Fordson Keenan. The day Thou gavest Lord, is ended, The darkness falls at Thy behest, To thee our morning hymns ascended, Thy praise shall sanctify our rest.

Who is Camilla's mother? Nobody in Prague knows for she was found in the British occupied zone of Germany. Now they call her "The Sweet heart of Prague." United Nations support feeds her in a Czechoslovakia orphanage but she cannot go outside for she has no clothes. Canadian Appeal for Children is one way of helping Camilla, and the millions of children suffering in war devastated countries throughout the world.

OYSTER BED BRIDGE W. I.

The February meeting of the Oyster Bed Bridge Women's Institute was held on Thursday evening, February 5th at the home of Mrs. Howard Cross, the president. Mrs. Phillip Matheson, presided. Meeting opened by repeating Creed in unison, followed by roll call which was answered by an article for England's box. There were 9 members present. Minutes of last meeting were read, approved and signed and it was decided to meet on the following Wednesday evening at Mrs. Phillip Matheson's to arrange for Valentine Social.

The Committee's had no report. A letter giving the adopting name of an Institute in England was read by the Secretary. More articles were needed before box could be packed, it was left over until a later date. Six pairs of pajamas were handed out to be sewn for Red Cross. Secretary to write for more knitting, also to send a sympathy card to be read frimly in the district. A bill of 20 cents was paid for crepe paper. Members to make lunches for Valentine Social. The president read program on "Child Welfare," in absence of Mrs. Wallace Higgins. A girls name contest brought this part of meeting to a close.

Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. R.L. MacPherson with Miss Alice MacPherson in charge of program on spring cleaning. Roll call to be answered with a house cleaning hint. A dainty lunch was enjoyed by all and a social hour was spent. Mrs. Russell Smith, Secretary.

WILTSHIRE PERSONALS Mr. Lorne Easter was a recent visitor to the city. Mr. Kenneth MacInnis, section foreman, spent the week-end in Charlottetown. Mr. Lloyd MacLeod, mail driver, made his usual trips in spite of the roads and weather. Mrs. Bertha Gibbs has returned home after spending the week-end with her cousin, Mrs. Julia Semtner, Loyalist. Mr. Herb Clow, sectionman, spent a few days in Rose Valley.

SILVER BIRCHES W. I.

—Mrs. Bennett Crozier entertained the Silver Birches Women's Institute of Read's Corner on Friday evening at the Crozier home. The president, Mrs. Wyman Cairns, was in the chair. Thirteen members and two visitors were present. After the singing of the Institute Ode and the repeating of the Creed in unison, roll call was answered by the reading of an article of a baby's layette. A most appreciative letter was read from Mrs. Mary O'Regan, London, England, the mother of the family adopted by the Institute to whom food and clothing are forwarded monthly, and a letter of thanks from Miss Jean Heckbert, a patient in the Provincial Sanatorium, to whom the Reader's Digest was given.

There were 31 sick calls reported and Mrs. William Matheson was appointed on the sick committee for the next month. A letter was read in regard to the Canadian Appeal for Children and Mrs. Francis MacQuarrie, Mrs. Samuel Beaton, Mrs. Wynne Cairns, Mrs. Harry Heckbert and Miss Frances Heckbert volunteered to canvass the district. It was moved that $10 be given to this Appeal. It was decided to donate a quilt to the Red Cross, the material being contributed and Mrs. Bradford Yeo volunteering to make it. A bill for postage of $2.42 on box of clothing sent to O'Regan family in England was ordered paid. The special collection for the Institute taken during the evening amounted to $17.00. The articles completed and returned to the Red Cross office in Summerside were: 2 child's sweaters, 2 pairs child's pajamas, 1 child nightdress, 1 boy's windbreaker, 4 soakers. Mrs. Frances MacQuarrie read a paper on Health, after which she conducted a questionnaire, followed by a baby's name contest. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Heber MacQuarrie with Mrs. Bennett Crozier in charge of the program. The roll will be answered by a housecleaning hint and Mrs. Hartwell Condon and Mrs. Harry Heckbert will be in charge of refreshments. At the close of the meeting delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Samuel Beaton and Mrs. Frances MacQuarrie.—S.

MARITIME WOMEN'S CLUB

The Maritime Women's Club of Montreal, incorporated, met in Tudor Hall on Monday evening, February 16th, at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Winifred Bambrick, Canada's most celebrated harpist, presented a programme of varied selections. Besides which she told tales of her many visits to European countries when she gave or assisted in giving concerts. Miss Bambrick made her debut at the age of 12 years, instantly winning the acclaim of the critics. She was then engaged by John Phillips Sousa as harp soloist of the band. Four after four followed during which time she became known to countless audiences in the United States and Canada, the British Isles, Switzerland, Belgium, Germany, Holland, France, Mexico, Italy and Cuba. She is staff soloist with the Canadian Broadcasting Company, the National Broadcasting Company, the British Broadcasting Company and Radio Normandy. She is the author of "Continental Review," a book which won the Governor-General's award in 1942.

SCOUT NEWS AND NOTICES

St. Paul's Scout Troop and Guide Company held a very successful joint Parents' Night on Monday evening. Among the guests present representing Provincial and District Guiding were Mrs. J. Gordon MacDonald, Provincial Commissioner; Mrs. J. D. MacGuigan, Divisional Commissioner; and Miss Jean Puncher, Field Secretary. Mr. Sterling Walker acted as District Commissioner for the Boy Scouts Association. During the meeting a demonstration of artificial respiration was conducted by A.A.S.M. Paul Cudmore, who pointed out that artificial respiration may be used in cases of shock and asphyxiation as well as drowning. Kim's Game was played by the Scouts and Guides and Marj Worthy won with 18 out of 20 objects observed. The meeting ended with a Camp fire, during which the Acting District Commissioner of the Boy Scouts Association presented a S. M. John Burrows with his Scout Warrant. The Scouts and Guides were dismissed by Mrs. J. Gordon MacDonald. Following the meeting the guests, Guides, Scouts, and Leaders enjoyed a lunch provided by the ladies of the Group Committee. The meeting was under the direction and guidance of S. M. George Anderson and Captain Gladys Hart.

MT. MELICK W. I.

Mrs. Arden Richards, president of Mt. Melick W. I., was hostess to the members at their regular meeting on February 3rd. The meeting opened with the Ode followed by the Creed. Minutes of previous meeting were read, approved and signed. Fifteen members responded to roll call. The School Committee reported that "Go Dust" had been bought, and bill for same was presented and paid. The Sick Committee reported that two treats of fruit had been sent. Two letters of thanks were received. New Committees were appointed as follows: School — Mrs. Jack MacRae and Mrs. Elliott Robertson. Sick — Miss Margaret MacDonald and Mrs. Albert Bruce. It was decided to buy two shares in Pownall Hall Company. Ways and means of raising funds were discussed and carried. What each member make as much money as she can in whatever way she can before next meeting. Quite a number of gifts were handed in for the food parcel which is being packed for Abbotley Institute, Hants, England. The questionnaire on Child Care was completed. Mrs. Edward Wood was appointed to be in charge of the program for March when the meeting will be at the home of the secretary, Mrs. Edmond Robertson. Mrs. Jack MacRae and Mrs. Lanch Committee. Collection amounted to $1.25. Work recently completed for the Red Cross includes 4 boys' pullover sweaters, 4 pairs boy's stockings and 8 girls' undershirts. The National Anthem brought the meeting to a close, after which lunch was served by the hostess and committee, and a special delicious treat of ice-cream and birthday cake was served by the hostess.

NEW GLASGOW AND VICINITY

Mrs. Robert McLeod spent a pleasant visit with her daughter Mrs. David Johnstone and Mr. Johnstone. Miss Ada Graham was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dickleson. Mr. Douglas Smith of St. John spent the week-end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Smith. Messrs Noye and Bagloe of Tynes Valley have discontinued the work on Campbell's mill dam until weather conditions improve. In a recent letter to her mother Mrs. Preston L. Campbell, Mrs. John Deives of Hillside Beach, near Winnipeg, writes that the winter there has been mild and lovely, a wide contrast to that of a year ago when the thermometer registered as low as 52 degrees below. Once again one is reminded that it pays to advertise. In the local news of last week, the loss of little Freddy's pup Perry, was related. Since then the lad's parents have received a letter and a telephone call, saying a strange pup was at their respective homes answering to the name of Perry, but alas! Unfortunately it was not Freddy's Perry. However, here's hoping he may soon be returned home. The first of a series of hockey games between the Girls teams, took place on the local rink Feb. 2nd. The Cavendish All Stars played the New Glasgow Imperial Sisters. The game was capably refereed by Eric Gass and Errol Stevenson. One penalty was handed out. The game throughout offered many thrills to the enthusiastic fans. Lineups: New Glasgow: Goalie, Uldine White. Defence, Mrs. R.L. Dickleson, Roma Dickleson, Irene McCoubrey, Forwards, Jean McLeod, Shirley Campbell, Amy Toombs and Beverley Crockett. Cavendish: Goalie, Jeannie Moore. Defence, Ruth Bulman, Hazel Bulman, Ruth Simpson; Forwards, Cecile Dulong, Marion Doyle, Ada Graham. A meeting of the committee of the hospital project was held on Tuesday afternoon. Although there were a small attendance, with Mr. Lorne Stevenson, the chairman presiding, plans were drawn up to be completed after interviewing other members of committee, to canvass district for donations and to sell shares in the proposed building. Mr. Walter Reid is preparing plans for such a building. This is a worthy object and deserving the full support of all good citizens.
