A DRAMATIC EVENT.

"Saug Harbor," the new sea coast play, in which LeComte and Fleisher will present the distinguished character actor Henry Horton, late star of "Eben Holden" at the Masonic Opera House on Monday, May 13th, is a splendid story of the triumph of character over circumstances and the hearer's sympathy is at once enlisted in Capt. Dan and his associates. Miss Louise Hardenburg, a talented young actress will appear as Helen Langdon, the heroine of the play. The characters are bold, picturesque and convincing and the group of small town personages that make up the Fisher Folk add much to the humor of the tale. A mammoth and complete scenic production does justice to the romance of the fascinating subject. There is not a more quaint or wholesome type of American today than these hardy Fisher Folk of Gloucester.

Why Spring Brings Weakness

Winter Weakens the System and Allows Disease Germs to Enter.

Great epidemics, such as fevers, infection skin diseases and pestilence break out in the spring.

Winter shuts out fresh air from many houses, and only a few get even a little sunshine. The blood naturally grows thin, colorless and diseased--we tire easily, sleep poorly and have headaches. In this condition we are easy prey to sickness and fill the hospitals and graveyards.

You must create resistance and strength. The blood must be purified, must be given power to expel the seeds of spring fever.

Ferrozene is the only remedy: It calls back vitality and energy, fills the body with vitality, makes every fibre sing with new found life and health.

That gnawing tiredness leave a you--Ferrozene drives it away. Sleepless nights are turned into periods of rest, and you pick up fast. Day by day your appetite improves--this means more food is transformed in nutriment that will build and energize weak organs. The inclination to worry passes away because Ferrozene imparts nerve-tone and bodily strength that prevents depression.

Think it over--Ferrozene is a wonderful tonic, fact it is more because it establishes health that lasts. Thousands use it in the spring and thereby cleanse and restore the entire system to a perfect condition. You'll feel the uplifting power of Ferrozene in a week--it's bound to help you if you only give it a chance. Sold by all dealers, 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50; by mail of the name FERROZENE.
