ICE IN GULF—Cape Bear yesterday reported the Gulf full of drift ice. The P. E. I. coast buoys are now all ready to be placed outside as soon as the ice takes its departure.

HEAR DR. PRINGLE TOMORROW.—Help the good work for the soldiers by attending St. James' Church on Wednesday evening. Admission 25 cents, Children 15 cents.

NEEDS TO BE LEVELLED.—The crossings at the drains at the corner of Richmond and Rochford Streets stand badly in need of being repaired. The plank coverings stand quite a distance above the street level and teams going by receive quite an unpleasant jolt.

THE EXHIBITION GRANT.—The Charlottetown Driving Park Association have asked the city for the usual grant towards the P. E. Island Annual Exhibition to be held from Sept. 28th to 29th inst. The request will be considered when the estimates are being made up.

CHURCH REOPENS.—The Winsloe South Church will be reopened on Sunday next after undergoing thorough repairing and painting. Rev. Mr. Fulton of Charlottetown will preach at 3 o'clock and Rev. J. L. Dawson of York will take the evening service at 7.

WELL KNOWN COMMERCIAL MAN DEAD.—The death occurred in Antigonish, N. S., recently of Mr. D. C. McDonald, a well known boot and shoe traveller of the Maritime Provinces. He had been coming to P. E. Island annually for the last twenty-five years and will be missed by the dealers here.

COAL STRIKE ENDED.—The strike of miners in the Acadia Coal Mines has been satisfactorily adjusted and the men have returned to work. A very large amount of the coal used in Prince Edward Island comes from these mines and people here will be pleased to learn that the trouble with the miners is settled.

FIRST CATCH AT GEORGETOWN.—The first catch of herring at Georgetown was made several days ago by Mr. Henry Boutelle who made a haul of several barrels. Mr. Boutelle has the distinction of having made the first spring catches of mackerel at Georgetown during the past twenty years.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very quiet and pretty wedding took place in the First Presbyterian Church, Edmonton, Alta., on April 26, 1916, when Susie Mae, daughter of Mrs. Chas. Mutch, Cherry Valley, P. E. I., became the bride of Mr. Loyde Dawson Peterkin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. McQueen in the presence of a few immediate friends. Mr. Grant, organist of the First Presbyterian Church played the wedding march. The brides gown was ivory nixon over ivory silk and pearl trimmings, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a ring set with pearls and diamonds. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Macdonald Chateau. Mr. and Mrs. Peterkin left later for Saskatoon, Sask., where they will reside. Mr. Peterkin is the son of Wm. Peterkin of Arthur, Ont., and has been in Saskatoon for the past four years, and is with the Canadian Grain Co. of that City.

FOR CHARLOTTETOWN.—The schooner A. J. Connard, sailed from Barbados, West Indies, on April 15th, for Charlottetown, with a cargo of molasses.

WANTED.—Attention is called to the Army Service Corps ad which appears elsewhere calling for seventy-five drivers for horse teams to go overseas.

COLONEL ROSS.—The death occurred suddenly in Halifax on Monday night of Lt-Colonel Ross M. D., who will be kindly remembered by many in this City having visited here some years ago as a member of the Medical Association.

MAPLEWOOD.—The writer of the article on "Maplewood" in the morning Guardian of last Saturday, 6th inst. wishes it to be distinctly understood that every item written had reference to Maplewood, within its limits, not to places of business, one, two, or three miles outside of the district.

ENLISTED IN AMHERST.—The Amherst Guardian reports that Mr. Fred Gay, a former Charlottetown boy, who has been employed for some time as a letter carrier in Amherst has enlisted for overseas service. Mr. Gay enlisted with the 106th Battalion and will join the company now in training at Springhill.

A THRIVING INDUSTRY.—Mr. P. A. Farquharson of the Island Stock Breeding Company, Ltd., French Fort was in the city yesterday. This company was started in July last and theirs was the first farm on P. E. Island to be started as a joint stock company. They have about 325 sheep and up to a day or two ago had between 160 and 170 lambs. Besides sheep the company have quite a large number of swine which are also thriving.

NEW HAVEN INSTITUTE.—The regular monthly meeting of the New Haven Womens Institute was held at the home of the Secretary Mrs. John Deveau on April 27th. The subject for discussion was "Bread and Biscuit Making," and many helpful ideas were exchanged. It was decided at this meeting to buy wool for the purpose of knitting socks for the soldiers. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments and home-made candy were served by the hostess, after which a hearty vote of thanks were tendered her by the members for her hospitality. The next meeting will be held May 24th at the home of Mrs. A. N. Darrach. Subject "Home-made Candy."

PEG O' MY HEART AT SEA.—The Barbados, W. I., Advocate of April 22nd notes the arrival there of the R. M. S. Caraque. The passengers by this ship included the well known W. S. Harkins Theatrical Company under the management of Mr. Salmon, who gave a splendid presentation of the famous play, "Peg O' My Heart." The Advocate says: "It does not often fall to the lot of the ocean traveller to witness such a brilliant performance, and such splendid acting under the extraordinary conditions. One could easily fancy oneself in theatre of our large cities, but for the stars above and the refreshing cool breeze. One and all the characters were splendidly played and the Barbados public is in for a real treat, and should take every opportunity of seeing this versatile company. The whole company reflect credit to Mr. Harkins' judgment; they have won golden opinions from crowded houses in Bermuda and their success is assured right through the West Indies."
