—MEMORIAL SERVICES—Memorial service at Souris, an event of more than usual interest, took place in the Council Home of the Knights of Columbus at Souris on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 15th, where the members gathered from far and near to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of three distinguished and reverend brothers, the late Rev. J. C. McLean, P.A., V.G., Rev. Edward Walker, D.D., and Rev. J. J. Farrel, D.D. The beautiful memorial service of the Order, impressing on the minds of the members the dignity, scholarship, zeal and devotion to duty so characteristic of these great priests, was at once touching and inspiring. It is a noteworthy coincidence that the names of the Reverend Fathers were the only ones removed from the Council roll by death during the past year and that all were natives of St. George's, a parish that has given so many eminent men to the service of God and humanity. JEWELRY OF GRANDMA'S DAY FASHION'S CHOICE

NEW YORK, Oct. 19—Debutantes this season are bringing their grandmother's jewelry from closets, now that fashion is returning to the days of Queen Victoria.

at the U. S. presidential inauguration ceremony last spring. Big late Victorian cameo brooches are now fastening the high-standing collar or accenting the surplice bosom. Brooches are expected to be the most important jewelry element. They will vie with plumes for prominence on hats, will replace somewhat the Alice-in-wonderland comb in holding back the hair; will state, fasten bows or plaits on dresses, and to a degree will annul the buckle and the clip. The campaign to combat the grasshopper menace, inaugurated by the government, was carried through this year at a cost between 50 and 60 per cent. over the $15,000 expended last year, Manitoba officials
