

ENO KEEPS YOU COOL

If this hot weather leaves you limp and exhausted, it's a sure sign of an overheated body. The natural thing to do is to take an effective alkalizing corrective like Eno's "Fruit Salt", which gently removes sluggish wastes which overheat the body, neutralizes excess acid and cools you through and through.

Eno contains no sugar, nothing harsh or harmful and forms no habit. During the hot weather drink Eno morning, noon and night, or whenever you feel the need for a refreshing alkalizing drink. Its pleasant "Fruit Salt" tang drives thirst away instantly; right away you feel clean and cool deep down inside.

Eno is the original alkalizing corrective and for years and years Eno in water has been the favourite refreshment among white residents in the sizzling tropics. It's a natural way to keep cool!

Central Royalty School Closing

The annual school closing of Central Royalty school was held June 29th, with a large attendance of parents and visitors. The pupils were examined in the various subjects by their teacher, Miss Mary MacLennan and by their prompt answers showed the wonderful progress they had made in their work under the capable management of their teacher.

Prizes were donated by the Women's Institute of the District and were presented by the President to the successful pupils in each grade. Grading certificates were also presented to the pupils by the teacher which consist of the following:

Grade IX—Allison MacRae.
Grade VIII Joyce Lank.
Grade VII—Hilda Lank.
Grade VI—Keith Lank.
Grade V—Gladys Ward and Dorothy Andrew (equal)
Grade III—Franklin Roper.
Grade II—Anna MacRae.

Those making perfect attendance were—Molly Lewis, Jack Sroence, Department—Georgie Ward. A small gift of appreciation was given to Miss MacLennan by the pupils in appreciation of good fellowship. On Thursday the parents and pupils and teacher had a very enjoyable picnic at Rocky Point. Miss MacLennan entering into the spirit of the day with her usual good sportsmanship.

Double Wedding

St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus was the scene of a very pretty double wedding on Wednesday, June 15th, at eight o'clock a. m. when two of Donagh's energetic young men led to the altar two of Mr. Alban's fair young ladies viz. Miss Ruby Lillian Trowsdale and Miss Doris Wood adopted daughter of Mr. Wesley Wood.

One of the contracting parties Mr. Eugene Trainor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Trainor, Donagh led to the altar Miss Lillian Ruby Trowsdale, who was given away by her mother, Mrs. Frederick Trowsdale, and who looked very exquisite in a blue crepe-de-chene with white and silver accessories and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern.

Mr. Gordon Bellman who resided with Mr. Francis Trainor for the past eight years was united in marriage to Miss Doris Wood, who looked very pretty in a pink crepe-de-chene dress with white accessories and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern.

The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. D. F. Croken. As the bridal party entered the church, Mrs. J. J. McCarthy who presided at the organ during the ceremony played the Wedding March and Mr. J. J. McCarthy sang appropriate hymns during the Nuptial Mass.

After the ceremony the happy couples who were unattended accompanied to the home of Mr. Frederick Trowsdale together with a few immediate friends, where a sumptuous breakfast was served to a number of friends and neighbours. After which the bridal parties left on a motor trip through the Island visiting many places of interest, returning to the home of Mr. Eugene Trainor where upwards of one hundred guests were in waiting to offer felicitations and to partake of a magnificent supper put on in Mrs. Trainor's best style. During the evening speeches were made referring to the contracting parties by Mr. J. J. Duffy, Post Office Department, Charlottetown and Mr. Lawrence Heron and Mr. J. J. McCarthy.

Dancing and singing were indulged in and excellent music was a feature of the evening furnished by local talent among whom were Mr. Anreas Curley, Charlottetown, and Mr. Martin Power, Miramichi.

The "wee sma' hours" came all too soon when the guests returned to their homes after wishing the young couples many happy years of wedded life. Previous to their wedding the brides were tendered a miscellaneous shower in their homes by their many well wishers. They received many useful and costly presents, including many substantial cheques.

Mr. Eugene Trainor is one of Donagh's prosperous young farmers and Mr. Gordon Bellman is now holding a position at Mr. E. Corfin's ranch, Mount Edward Road, and will reside in Charlottetown. (Patriot Please Copy)

TIME TO BE HAPPY

COLWYN BAY, Wales—(CP)—Disagreeing that school days were the happiest in life, Lord Trent, addressing Rydal School boys, thought "it would be a poor lookout if they couldn't find happiness in the next 50 or 60 years."

AUSTRALIA'S READING MELBOURNE—(CP)—Sorab B. Dayburjor, president of one of the largest libraries in Bombay, said here the average Australian isn't fond of reading "I found hardly 25 people in the Melbourne Public Library," he said.

CAPE TOWN—(CP)—Nearly 50 per cent of children examined by medical inspectors of schools in the Cape during the first quarter of 1938 were found to be defective in some way or other.
