NOSTRILS Cleared of DISCHARGE

"I found that Catarrh-o-zone soothed my whole respiratory system. You save hours of downright misery by using Catarrh-o-zone when you first begin to shiver or sneeze. For a dependable means of breaking up a stubborn cold, I hold up both hands for Catarrh-o-zone; it is so simple to use, so prompt in action. Under the soothing influence of Catarrh-o-zone, the phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, plugged nostrils are cleared quickly. Catarrh-o-zone took all soreness out of my throat, dried up the running matter in the nose and made my head feel clear. Catarrh-o-zone and pain over the eyes went also. Yes, I do urge all sufferers to use Catarrh-o-zone. You should get the same results as the writer of this letter. The sooner you use Catarrh-o-zone, the sooner you'll be on the road to better health. All druggists sell Catarrh-o-zone, in 25 and 50c sizes.

DON'T LET US FORGET the HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN

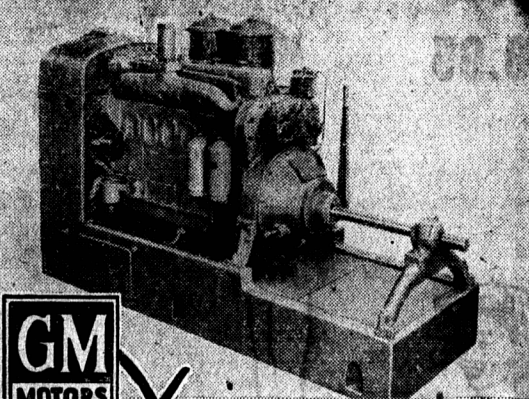

In planning for the future we must be sure and give careful consideration to the urgent need for more hospital accommodation.

$300,000 is a deal of money, but it is hard to think of money being invested in a better way. Each and every subscription will help to make the objective. When budgeting for the future, Give Generously to the Hospital Campaign.

GM Diesels

FINEST ENGINES AFLOAT OR ASHORE

All through the War, General Motors Diesels were working side by side with our fighting men, powering landing craft, tanks, tractor bulldozers and all kinds of hard-working machinery. And now in the peace GM Marine Diesels are carrying on side by side with these boys in fishing and work boats of sea—as GM Industrials are doing on construction, lumbering and mining jobs ashore.

General Motors 2 cycle Marine and Industrial Diesel Engines pack extra horsepower into SMALL space and LIGHT weight. Therefore they cost less to buy and less to operate. And with Thompson's superior diesel facilities and experience you get satisfaction in the installation and servicing of your purchase. Write for Diesel Engine Bulletin and Price List—mentioning this paper, please.

The Second Mrs. Draper

"What is Great Circle sailing, Jim?" He bent a glistering brow over it to cover panic. "There's Flame Sailing, Traverse Sailing... and... and... slow and shuky... Parallel and Great Circle. Real tea, the old tritester called that way. In that kind of sailing you steer—as we are, tonight—to follow of departure and arrival." He was stonover now, although it was still the Great Circle through the points a rote and his eyes wavered frantically about the chart. "Ships should always sail in Great Circles. She smiled with great effort. He passed his hands over his face, staring under the lantern at the chart. "Yes. They make—they make angles, you see, with every meridian they cross." "It must be a challenge to try and follow, Killy said, watching him. He had got to remember. "It is. The course changes all the time. Blind sailing, blind luck—and then in a whisper. "I'm terribly sorry I was so beastly to you." "All planes," he went on slowly, "pass through the earth's center. They cut great circles out of it as they pass. Here's our point of sight and the various lines they cut in the plane of projection are straight lines. "I'll show you our proper latitude. He turned the transparent disc until at last the wiles fell exactly on the point of their departure. He took a reading. He stood there staring at the result for a long time. In a split second he knew to a fractional accuracy just how to find the Monteau Light. All it wanted now was seamanship. Jim sighed like a child turning around he saw that Killy was asleep. He stood with him suspended, looking down at her. Shut away from him in sleep, her name and her identity were gone. She was a woman with whom he had been at bitter war, and now she was asleep. His eyes unfolded her, sleeping; the pale beautiful face so secret in its rest, yet the purity and intense womanliness revealed in the light of the truth for him. And what was the truth? That

DOROTHY DIX SAYS:

I say it is half and half and that when women whistle and flirt, if the men would ignore them, they wouldn't be quite so bad. But instead of men running away from flirtatious women, they run after them. M. C. Which one of us is right? ANSWER: Well, it is certainly obvious that it takes two to carry on a flirtation and that if men wouldn't listen when the women whistle, the women wouldn't whistle and that if all the men were Josephs, there wouldn't be any Mrs. Potphers. So there you are. Which one starts? Most of us pray: Lead us not into temptation, and then we go out and look for it until we find it. If we are determined to keep in the straight and narrow way, nobody is going to interfere with our doing so.
