Shirley Temple
At Prince Edward

Romancing stars, dancing stars, comedy stars, singing stars—there are stars all around the screen's Number One star, Shirley Temple, in her best-of-all musical hit, "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," 20th Century-Fox picture which opened yesterday at the Prince Edward Theatre.

Randolph Scott and Gloria Stuart are gloriously in love; Jack Haley and Slim Summerville make merry; tap-dancing Bill Robinson dances with Shirley at tap speed; and other top talent includes Phyllis Brooks, Helen Westley, The Raymond Scott Quintet, Alan Dinehart and J. Edward Bromberg.

You'd never know the old farm! Kate Douglas Wiggin's story suggested the merry modern screen play by Karl Tunberg and Don Edinger. A streamlined Radio Center moves in down by the old mill stream, and it's a happiness hook-up for everyone.

Six new rhythm songs stud the happy musical score. Songs which will add to the humming refrain of hit-lovers everywhere are "An Old Straw Hat," by Gordon and Reuel; "Alone With You," "Happy Endings," "Crackles," "Main Flakes" by Pollack and Mitchel; "Come and Get Your Happiness" by Polkross and Yellen; and "Toy Trumpet," with music by Raymond Scott and lyrics by Pollack and Mitchell.

In addition Shirley sings a medley of all songs famous of the past, a reprise which has been requested by many of her fans.

"George O'Brien"
At The Capitol

Plenty of action of the high-speed variety usually associated with George O'Brien's film vehicles, is offered in the out-door star's latest picture, "Painted Desert," which opens today at the Capitol Theatre. With its picturesque outdoor scenes, many of them actually filmed on the Painted Desert itself, and its taut drama, the picture ranks high among the season's action offerings.

Dealing with a long struggle for the ownership of a million-dollar mine in the Arizona desert, a romantic and exciting story, the story is woven into the plot. Originally discovered by an old prospector, the mine is transferred to a crooked promoter and then to O'Brien, a young rancher, who plans the first to learn that the property is really valuable.

O'Brien goes into partnership with the daughter of the prospector, who believes that she is the rightful owner of the mine. Both of them who plan to buy the property at any cost. When financial pressure and intimidation of the promoter essays ambushing and murder, a spectacular stampede of mule-teams hauling ore to the railroad, and a desperate effort to blow up the mine, make for the thrilling conclusion of the film.

Both of these priests have a wide experience in retreats and missions throughout Canada, and the United States, and it is expected that this retreat will be a memorable one.

BOY STILL MISSING—Joseph Allan MacDonald, 13-year-old Charlottetown boy who disappeared Tuesday was still missing last night. Royal Canadian Mounted Police are making a thorough search through the woods near his home but have found no trace of the boy. A careful check by police throughout Prince Edward Island has proved to no avail. MacDonald known to his friends as "Joey," was described as four feet, seven inches in height, brown hair, pale complexion, with a high forehead. When last seen on Tuesday he was wearing a brown jacket, blue pullover sweater and light shirt, brown leather shoes with rubber soles. He was last seen on Tuesday night washed out the trail which police dogs from Moncton, N. B., attempted to follow yesterday.
