

CENTRAL GUARDIAN

This column is reserved for news of local interest, but advertising of a newsy nature may be inserted at five cents a word strictly payable in advance.

JIMMIE'S TAXI. Phone 525. CRASWELL for Photographs. HOWARD McINNIS' Fitted Footwear at 175 Queen Street. PHONE SAUNDERS 1806 for group and wedding pictures on location. CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE. CEMENT FOR VETERANS. Veterans requiring Cement, contact Canadian Legion before June 15th.

'ANNE OF GREEN GABLES' in Cavendish Hall, Wednesday, June 11th, by Trinity Y. P. U. Directed by Mrs. Ruby Houle, C. D. A. Admission 50 cents.

JUST IN TIME for the June wedding, beautiful 3-piece silver tea sets, special $15.00, tax included. G. H. Taylor, Jewellers for four generations.

NOTICE. Our Mill will close at 12:30 each Saturday during the months of June, July and August. Wm. Condon & Sons, CharloTTetown.

ENGAGEMENT. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Munroe, Montague, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Velma Lorraine to Ralph MacKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett MacKay, Morell. Wedding to take place June 25th, 1947.

CITY POLICE COURT. At the City Police Court yesterday a man was fined $20 and costs or 30 days for operating a motor vehicle to the common danger. A drunk and disorderly was fined $20 and costs or 20 days, while a second was released after serving eight days in jail. A summary ejection case was adjourned until the 12th.

W. M. S. MEETING. The afternoon auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society of Trinity United Church, CharloTTetown, was held in the Social Hall, on Thursday, June 5th, with the Pres. Mrs. R. E. Mutch presiding and 41 members present. The meeting opened with prayer by the President followed with the singing of hymn 41, 'O For A Thousand Tongues to Sing.' The theme for the day was 'The Church is coming back in Asia.' The Scripture reading from Nehemiah, was read by Mrs. W. W. Mutch followed with prayer by Mrs. L. W. Saunders and the Lord's Prayer in unison. The devotional period was brought to a close by singing Hymn 377, 'Lord of light whose name outshineth.' Mrs. Mutch cordially welcomed the Associate Members and expressed her regret that more were unable to attend. The Secretary, Mrs. Bustin read the minutes of the May meeting which were approved. The Treasurer, Mrs. Bennett gave the financial report which was adopted. The Community Friendship Christian Stewardship and Temperance secretaries gave their reports respectively. The collection was taken and dedicated by singing the doxology. Following the theme for the day, a short interesting sketch entitled 'We Rise and Build Churches in Asia' was depicted by Mrs. J. A. MacNair, Mrs. J. Y. MacFadyen, Mrs. Bustin, Mrs. R. H. Rogers and Mrs. J. G. Bennett, representing the secretaries of the different churches in China, Korea and Japan bringing the latest reports of the work being done in these fields. The theme for 1947-48 is 'A Bible for all the world.' Mrs. Mutch extended a cordial invitation to the Society to meet at her home for the July meeting after which all joined in the Mizpah Benediction.

GOLF CLUB Weekly Dance, Thursday night. Tickets on sale main entrance. Price 75 cents each.

MEMORIAL CharloTTetown Trinity Octet, Tryon Baptist Church, Sunday, June 15th, 7:30; sponsored by Albany Baptist Church.

ORGAN RECITAL in Trinity United Church, Sunday evening, 8:30, by Mr. Kenneth Meek, Mus. Bac., L. Mus., of the Faculty of Music, McGill University.

ENGAGEMENT. Mrs. Ethel Mellick of CharloTTetown, wishes to announce the engagement of her daughter Janie Georgina to Neil Lester, only son of Mrs. Margaret MacDonald of Bangor. Marriage to take place in the near future.

ENGAGEMENT. Mr. and Mrs. George Watts of York, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter Lorna Jean to Thompson Irvine, son of Mr. and Mrs. William James Knox of Montague. Marriage to take place June 26th.

STUDIES INTERRUPTED. Owing to the moving of the Y.M.C.A. building yesterday, the pupils of Prince Street School had to be dismissed as the School was too cold. However studies were resumed in the afternoon.

DISAPPOINTED PLAYERS. The Glasgow Road Players were booked to give a variety entertainment at Afton Hall on Friday night, but were disappointed to find that due to the advertisement announcing their engagement not appearing in the Guardian as scheduled, there was no gathering. The fault did not lie with the promoters but was due to the fact that the copy of the advertisement went astray.

FUNERAL AT CLYDE RIVER. The funeral of the late John A. Murray of Clyde River was held from his late residence Sunday afternoon. Services at the home and grave were conducted by Rev. Athol Robert, assisted by Rev. J. R. Skinner. Mrs. Robert Matheson sang very feelingly 'The Old Rugged Cross.' The pallbearers were: Fulford Darrach, Addison Livingstone, James Livingstone, Everett Murray, Frank Gillespie, Harold Scott. Interment was in the Baptist Church Cemetery at Clyde River.

Dear me, what a cold and rainy day this one has been; 'This is enough to discourage a farmer' said, as this morning he watched streamlets, from the down-pour of rain, course pond-ward. Then too 'and we should have done it last evening' but the pasturing cattle were rounded up and returned again to their stables, and tonight as James talked over the prevailing winds and weather with Mr. C. neighboring from the house on the hill, I overheard him say he 'would be d----- if we'll let them out again--until it comes warmer' so disappointing recent days have been for stock on pasture. These goings and comings to the field across the creek--beside the road are exciting occasions. The whole family--must suppose an escort, except of course Jeanie who has a legitimate excuse indoors. But at the time, there are compensations provided for me. 'Never mind looking at the water, Ellen, nor at a bi--- old crane. Head that jersey heifer back in here!' And the rain-drops were patterning the pond so prettily and the great bird was standing so still in a depth of it and beneath the new green of the alders.

'I can easily see' James is apt to say to Jock in my hearing 'where the two of you get your slow-moving ways' which is not at all applicable to them. And not entirely to any farm woman. If Lord Nelson before his fatal engagement 'had already given an ear and an eye in the service of control the VD rates rests very largely on the fact that in the past, while medical facilities aimed at their control have been developed, sufficient consideration has not been given to the social factors involved. Dr. Gordon Bates of Toronto said in an address here during the recent meeting of the Canadian Public Health Association. Dr. Bates is General Director of the Health League of Canada.

Little progress had been made and VD clinics were still crowded despite the fact that means of cure were effective and public education concerning the diseases was widespread. 'With the advent of rapid cure by penicillin, the infected patient cured of gonorrhoea in a day or two, in the absence of social and moral controls, is prone to promptly go out and get infected again,' Dr. Bates said. 'In my own clinic in Toronto General Hospital, a recent survey of 150 new cases of gonorrhoea revealed 59 were repeat--individuals who had recently been cured. In some cases there had been

as many as six infections during the last year.' Dr. Bates suggested that social surveys, using a carefully planned social case sheet, should be a means adopted for getting information concerning the problems, other than medical, involved. 'Some health officers will express the opinion that their duty is purely medical, and that the social, moral and economic approach is none of their business,' he said. 'I suggest that the very fact that venereal disease rates are not decreasing immediately throws on the health officers a responsibility in all these different fields. Aside from everything else the physician and the health officer certainly have responsibilities as citizens, which should come first, as far more important than any restrictions which their own professional position seems to impose upon them. 'It is perfectly obvious that mere education as to facts of venereal disease and the provision of treatment facilities will not control a problem which is social in origin.'

control the VD rates rests very largely on the fact that in the past, while medical facilities aimed at their control have been developed, sufficient consideration has not been given to the social factors involved. Dr. Gordon Bates of Toronto said in an address here during the recent meeting of the Canadian Public Health Association. Dr. Bates is General Director of the Health League of Canada.

Little progress had been made and VD clinics were still crowded despite the fact that means of cure were effective and public education concerning the diseases was widespread. 'With the advent of rapid cure by penicillin, the infected patient cured of gonorrhoea in a day or two, in the absence of social and moral controls, is prone to promptly go out and get infected again,' Dr. Bates said. 'In my own clinic in Toronto General Hospital, a recent survey of 150 new cases of gonorrhoea revealed 59 were repeat--individuals who had recently been cured. In some cases there had been

as many as six infections during the last year.' Dr. Bates suggested that social surveys, using a carefully planned social case sheet, should be a means adopted for getting information concerning the problems, other than medical, involved. 'Some health officers will express the opinion that their duty is purely medical, and that the social, moral and economic approach is none of their business,' he said. 'I suggest that the very fact that venereal disease rates are not decreasing immediately throws on the health officers a responsibility in all these different fields. Aside from everything else the physician and the health officer certainly have responsibilities as citizens, which should come first, as far more important than any restrictions which their own professional position seems to impose upon them. 'It is perfectly obvious that mere education as to facts of venereal disease and the provision of treatment facilities will not control a problem which is social in origin.'

control the VD rates rests very largely on the fact that in the past, while medical facilities aimed at their control have been developed, sufficient consideration has not been given to the social factors involved. Dr. Gordon Bates of Toronto said in an address here during the recent meeting of the Canadian Public Health Association. Dr. Bates is General Director of the Health League of Canada.

Little progress had been made and VD clinics were still crowded despite the fact that means of cure were effective and public education concerning the diseases was widespread. 'With the advent of rapid cure by penicillin, the infected patient cured of gonorrhoea in a day or two, in the absence of social and moral controls, is prone to promptly go out and get infected again,' Dr. Bates said. 'In my own clinic in Toronto General Hospital, a recent survey of 150 new cases of gonorrhoea revealed 59 were repeat--individuals who had recently been cured. In some cases there had been

as many as six infections during the last year.' Dr. Bates suggested that social surveys, using a carefully planned social case sheet, should be a means adopted for getting information concerning the problems, other than medical, involved. 'Some health officers will express the opinion that their duty is purely medical, and that the social, moral and economic approach is none of their business,' he said. 'I suggest that the very fact that venereal disease rates are not decreasing immediately throws on the health officers a responsibility in all these different fields. Aside from everything else the physician and the health officer certainly have responsibilities as citizens, which should come first, as far more important than any restrictions which their own professional position seems to impose upon them. 'It is perfectly obvious that mere education as to facts of venereal disease and the provision of treatment facilities will not control a problem which is social in origin.'

control the VD rates rests very largely on the fact that in the past, while medical facilities aimed at their control have been developed, sufficient consideration has not been given to the social factors involved. Dr. Gordon Bates of Toronto said in an address here during the recent meeting of the Canadian Public Health Association. Dr. Bates is General Director of the Health League of Canada.

Little progress had been made and VD clinics were still crowded despite the fact that means of cure were effective and public education concerning the diseases was widespread. 'With the advent of rapid cure by penicillin, the infected patient cured of gonorrhoea in a day or two, in the absence of social and moral controls, is prone to promptly go out and get infected again,' Dr. Bates said. 'In my own clinic in Toronto General Hospital, a recent survey of 150 new cases of gonorrhoea revealed 59 were repeat--individuals who had recently been cured. In some cases there had been 'Cocoa by the Baker's Chocolate People? That's for me!' EVEN the young crowd know the goodness of dishes made with Baker's Chocolate--expect true chocolatey flavor and tempting brown color from Baker's Cocoa, too. And cocoa as Baker's make it more than fulfils the promise of its famous name! Prepared as directed on the package, Baker's gives outstanding flavor... smoother texture... all-round better results. Up to 90 servings from the thrifty 1-lb. package. BAKER'S CHOCOLATE GIRL SAYS: Help your children to enjoy milk! Serve creamy, delicious Baker's Cocoa at meals, between meals, at bedtime. Add a dash of cinnamon sometimes, as an extra flavor-touch. There are cocoa-making instructions on the label. BAKER'S COCOA. A Product of General Foods.

The man you've been waiting to meet is coming to... THE FASHION SHOPPE 141 Great George St. CharloTTetown 3 DAYS ONLY Thurs. -- Fri. & Sat. -- June 12-13 & 14 SALE OF PERLMAN FURS

VALUES GALORE STYLES GALORE LOWER PRICES OUTSTANDING FUR COATS AT OUTSTANDING PRICES MUSKRATS RACCOONS PERSIAN LAMBS BROADTAILS SEALS NOVELTY FURS BUY NOW FOR NEXT YEAR A SMALL DEPOSIT RESERVES YOUR SELECTION THE FASHION SHOPPE 141 Gt. Geo. St. CharloTTetown

NEW-TYPE PACKAGE FOR FROZEN FOODS HAMILTON, Ont., June 9 -- (CP) -- A new type of fibre and metal package for frozen foods is making its appearance in Canada this summer, promising consumers considerably easier handling of these popular food products. The new container entirely eliminates the inner sealed bag and the outer wrap on conventional cartons and is a complete package by itself. It may be easily opened by lifting either one of its metal ends with an ordinary hook-type opener. The container offers the consumer numerous advantages. Among these are sturdiness and compactness, the ease with which contents may be removed, easy refrigeration for storage, freedom from leakage while defrosting, which is particularly important for fruits packed in syrups or liquids, improved preservation of contents, and easy disposal. The container is semi-rigid in construction and resembles the conventional frozen food carton in shape. The container body is of paraffin-impregnated fibre and the ends of light-weight metal. NORTH AMERICAN LIFE L. S. STEVENSON Branch Manager 140 RICHMOND ST. All Profits for Policyholders

Ellen's Diary By an Island Farmer's Wife (Continued from Page 2) Dear me, what a cold and rainy day this one has been; 'This is enough to discourage a farmer' said, as this morning he watched streamlets, from the down-pour of rain, course pond-ward. Then too 'and we should have done it last evening' but the pasturing cattle were rounded up and returned again to their stables, and tonight as James talked over the prevailing winds and weather with Mr. C. neighboring from the house on the hill, I overheard him say he 'would be d----- if we'll let them out again--until it comes warmer' so disappointing recent days have been for stock on pasture. These goings and comings to the field across the creek--beside the road are exciting occasions. The whole family--must suppose an escort, except of course Jeanie who has a legitimate excuse indoors. But at the time, there are compensations provided for me. 'Never mind looking at the water, Ellen, nor at a bi--- old crane. Head that jersey heifer back in here!' And the rain-drops were patterning the pond so prettily and the great bird was standing so still in a depth of it and beneath the new green of the alders. 'I can easily see' James is apt to say to Jock in my hearing 'where the two of you get your slow-moving ways' which is not at all applicable to them. And not entirely to any farm woman. If Lord Nelson before his fatal engagement 'had already given an ear and an eye in the service of

DOROTHY DIX SAYS-- (Continued from Page 2) DEAR MISS DIX: I am a 19-year-old girl and have met a very handsome man of 21. He has been married for not quite a year, but he tells me it was a mistake and that he is separated from his wife. Lately he has been coming to my home to see me and I think he has fallen in love with me, but I have told him it is wrong. He says that just because he made a mistake once that I shouldn't hold it against him. I like to be with him and maybe I am falling in love with him. And I wonder what all of this will lead to should I continue to see him. GIRL WHO NEEDS ADVICE ANSWER: Whether the young man made a mistake in marrying or not doesn't do away with the fact that he is still married, and that you have no business accepting his attentions while he still has a wife. No girl can run around with a married man and keep her good name. So my earnest advice to you is to tell this lad not to come around again until he gets a divorce and is free to go steady with a girl without compromising her. Believe me, this boy bodes you no good. DEAR MISS DIX: Has a husband a right to expect his wife to go with him wherever he goes? My husband was born in this country, but was reared in South America and he is anxious to return there where, he says, he will have a much better opportunity of succeeding than he does here. We have a child 18 months old. My parents have a nice home and they are very much opposed to my leaving the United States. They are willing for us to live with them if we will only stay here. What shall I do? ANSWER: It is a hard decision for a girl to make, to know whether to stay in her own country with her own people, or to follow her husband where fortune calls. The Biblical command is for the wife to forsake father and mother and go where her husband goes. So perhaps you will be wise if you go with your husband and, at least, give the plan a try out. It may be that he will find that South America is not so alluring as he has remembered it and that he will be glad to return to the good old U. S. A.

VD MEDICAL SYMPTOM OF SOCIAL PROBLEMS QUEBEC, P. Q.--The venereal diseases are the medical symptoms of a social problem, and failure to 'gather our cattle in again to-day a degree above the whispering stage. Perhaps James is discussing more personal matters with Mr. C. Perhaps he feels called on to offer him what he terms 'sound advice' now that June time, which spells romance has returned to cast its spell. The silence has aroused my curiosity. Until tomorrow -- Diary -- Good-night.

God GOLD? Check it with MINARD'S 'KING OF PAIN' LINIMENT. Just inhale the soothing, healing fumes, for quick relief. It's fast acting! Get a bottle today. 35c

EARL'S DAUGHTER FASHION DESIGNER LONDON, June 9 --(CP) --Visitors to the mannequin parade in the textile section of the British Industries Fair did not know that some of the models were by Lady Patricia M. Donald, only daughter of the Earl of Chesterfield. Lady Patricia started modelling in Australia, where she lived for some years, and resumed the work on her return to Britain.

Schwartz COFFEE Stimulating! 'Give me a cup of coffee' is a man's usual request of the waiter when feeling tired and out of sorts. For there's always quick comfort for body and spirit in this friendly beverage. And especially so if the brew is Schwartz Thermo-Roasted--that rich and mellow blend of Canada's Oldest Coffee House, W. H. Schwartz & Sons, Limited. Try a pound of Schwartz today for a new taste thrill in coffee. But say Schwartz and be Sure!

PRESIDENT TRUMAN, WIFE AND DAUGHTER WILL PAY THREE-DAY VISIT TO CANADA

President Truman, Mrs. Truman and their daughter, Margaret, seen here, plan three-day visit to Ottawa, June 10, 11, 12.

Joint session of the House of Commons and Senate will hear an address by the President on June 11 and a parliamentary luncheon will be held same day. The President is seen being kissed during Poppy Fund drive.

Ottawa plans big welcome for the presidential party when it arrives by train. This is a recent portrait of Mrs. Truman.

Viscount Alexander will be host to President Truman. In House of Commons, Jeanne Francois Foullet jokingly suggested the President be invited to bring the U. S. into the empire as a dominion.