TORONTO, Sept. 27.—After numerous trials extending over two years, the hearing of the Hamilton Grocers' Combine, began yesterday in a special sitting of the criminal assizes.

SUICIDE IN LION'S DEN

LAVAL, France, Sept. 27—For a truly spectacular suicide the self-destruction of a young countryman here this week is almost without parallel.

One night, after having been repulsed by the object of his love, Grollier walked back of the little arena where a small menagerie was kept. He walked straight to a cage in which were three lions, unlocked the door, entered the cage, turned and locked the door.

AWFUL AFFAIR IN TENNESSEE

JELICO, Tenn., Sept. 28—(Special)—One of the bloodiest affairs in the history of eastern Tennessee, occurred near the Tennessee Kentucky line yesterday.

The scene was a little Baptist church within fifty yards of which was "Blind Tiger" which has been operated for months.

DEATH RATHER THAN CANADA.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Mrs. Lee Jones of Plumstead, was asked by her husband to come to Canada to join him.

FAMOUS ENGLISH DETECTIVE QUILTS WORK

LONDON, Sept. 27—Edward Drew, senior chief inspector of the criminal investigation department of Scotland Yard, and one of the famous "Council of Seven," has resigned after more than twenty-six years service.

His work in criminal investigation earned him the reputation of the greatest jewel thief detective of modern times. He has been instrumental in the recovery of tens of thousands of pounds' worth of property and the capture of some of the cleverest criminals in the world.

STEAMER VOLUND SUNK IN THE SOUND

NEWPORT, Sept. 27—Wireless messages received here today reported that in dense fog which surrounded Long Island Sound today, the Fall River Line steamer Commonwealth, while on her regular trip from Fall River to New York, collided with an unknown vessel of Race Point, sinking the latter.

It is reported here that the vessel sank early this morning, was the Norwegian steamer Volund. The Volund carried a crew of 17 men. The entire crew of the other vessel is said to have been taken on board the Commonwealth. The latter was so badly damaged that she will have to be laid up for extensive repairs.

THEY CAN INSPECT PRISON CELLS NOW

TORONTO, Sept. 27—Patrick McHugh and Allen Stapley, two Grand Trunk car inspectors, employed in the yards at Belleville, were sentenced today to two years in the penitentiary on charges of entering and stealing grain and tobacco from sealed cars several days ago.

NAVIGATION ON RIVER HAMPERED

MONTREAL, Sept. 27—Navigation as been turned topsy turvy by reason of the dense cloud of fog and smoke which hangs over the river between Montreal and Quebec. The mail steamer Virginian which should have sailed on Friday morning is still at wharf. The Ottawa and Parisian were not yet got away, while the lake Manitoba and the Hesperian, which have for a week been trying to get up from Quebec are still some where in the river. The Lake Manitoba is now eighteen days out from Liverpool, which in itself is a record.

POWER OF RADIUM IS OVERESTIMATED

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The opinion of chemists respecting the sensational accounts of the transmutation of elements through radium is forcibly expressed by experts in today's Times. They consider that the powers of radium have been vastly overrated and that the changes effected by it in other bodies are the products of unbridled fancy rather than chemical action.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS GOING TO GERMANY

PARIS, Sept. 27—The Cry De Paris again revived the story that the Prince and Princess Helie de Sagan are going to Germany to live. The newspaper says the Princess has agreed to clear the Sagan ancestral estates of debt and rebuild the ancestral chateau in Silesia, and arrangements have been made by which Prince Helie will resume the rank of Duke Sagan and be received at the German Court.

JESUITS TO OPEN COLLEGE IN TOKIO

LONDON, Sept. 27—It is announced from Naples that two Jesuit fathers, the Rev. James A. Rockhill and the Rev. Joseph Dahmann, are on their way to Japan at the request of the pope to make preparations for a higher institute of learning, with courses in philosophy and kindred subjects, which the pope asked the society to undertake in that country.

CHINESE WILL BE DEPORTED

OTTAWA, Sept. 27.—A system of amined and found not to be mer- chants, though they were credited as such. Three Chinese in bond from New York and two from England called attention to the number of Chinese who were arriving from Mexico with certificates from the Chinese Minister in Mexico, or from one of the Governors of a Mexican Province that they were merchants and therefore entitled to free admission to Canada.

DETECTIVES ARRESTED FIVE OF ONE FIRM

NEW YORK, Sept. 27—Detectives from police headquarters appeared in the A. O. Brown Company case today, giving it a sensational turn when they arrested five members of the so-called stock exchange firm as they emerged from the Federal Building, where a hearing into the affairs of the firm has been going on for some days before United States Commissioner Fish sit. A sixth arrest would have been made if sickness had not detained still another member of the firm in a New Jersey hospital beyond the jurisdiction of the New York police.

A CURIOUS FISH AT INDIANTOWN

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—A curiosity in the fish line was taken from the water at Indiantown recently. It was what is known as a bellows fish. The specimen is a most uncommon one. It is three feet long, but weighs about fifty pounds. On either side near the head the fish has wings about six inches in length, and directly under these setting close together it has two claws about two inches in diameter. When inflated the curio would be about sixteen inches through. When first seen it was between the steamer Hampstead and her wharf. A pike pole was pushed into the monster's mouth and his head drawn above the water, but it took three men to land the fish to the wharf, where it put up a fierce fight. It is thought that the fish, getting into fresh water, has become ill and drifted to the wharf.

PLAN TO RAISE MONEY FOR MEMORIAL TOWER

HALIFAX, Sept. 27—Plans for raising the money necessary to construct the Memorial Tower on the Dingle property were discussed at a meeting of the Canadian Club recently. Lieutenant-Governor Fraser occupied the chair and addresses were delivered by several men. All the speakers approved of the plan, and the point chiefly discussed was the best means of interesting the school children in the project. Sir Sandford Fleming made a brief address, but did not make any further announcement on the subject. No resolution was proposed, and no action was taken by the meeting.

STRUCK BY TROLLEY RUNNING AT HIGH SPEED

BERLIN, Sept. 27—Two trains on the Berlin Elevated Railway were in collision early this afternoon. As a result fourteen persons are dead, while many sustained injuries.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS GOING TO GERMANY

PARIS, Sept. 27—The Cry De Paris again revived the story that the Prince and Princess Helie de Sagan are going to Germany to live. The newspaper says the Princess has agreed to clear the Sagan ancestral estates of debt and rebuild the ancestral chateau in Silesia, and arrangements have been made by which Prince Helie will resume the rank of Duke Sagan and be received at the German Court.

STARVING PEOPLE MAKE AN ATTACK

LISBON, September 27—There has been a resumption in the Azore Islands of the serious rioting that broke out about ten days ago, as a result of the danger of the population aroused by the failure of the local authorities to take preventative measures against the bubonic plague. The people of Horta, on the island of Fayal, which is isolated because of the plague, are dying of hunger and when the governor, at the head of a platoon of troops, attempted to prevent the landing of a boat with supplies, the maddened people, frenzied by their hunger and sufferings, attacked the troops with all sorts of weapons. Many persons on both sides were injured. The government finally yielded and there was a scene of wild revelry when the supplies finally reached the excited people. The plague on the island is increasing in intensity and heart-rending tales are told of the misery, privation and death.
