THE FAMINE IN SEEDS.

(Boston Transcript.)

Many people will be surprised this spring when they receive their seed catalogues, to note the high prices which they must pay for garden or flower seeds! For there is a veritable seed famine. At no time since the civil war have been so high. Peas, for instance, which usually bring three dollars a bushel in England, are now quoted at $15. Carrot seed, which usually sells for 25 cents a quart, now sells at $2 in England. Of beet seed there was no crop last year. Grass seed sells at three times the usual price. And so it is through the whole list. In fact the scarcity of seeds has been such that many growers are selling their seed stock rather than plant and run the risk of crop failure.

High prices of seeds, however, cannot be charged up to any combination of dealers. The shortage of the crops has been due to a succession of floods and droughts in the last six or seven years. And even where seed raisers have been fortunate enough to escape these, there has been for some unaccountable reason, a failure in the crop. The gardener who grows peas expects to get many times the number of peas he plants. The seed grower, who sows peas broadcast, expects to get some seven times his sowing. Yet last year the seed grower, as a rule, got only three times his crop, and many of the growers of beet seed did not even get their seed back.

This is one of the cases where the consumer can do nothing about it. He cannot seep relief in the courts or appeal to the legislature. Nature makes her owb laws and can amend them at her pleasure. To the suburban dweller who buys his seed at ten cents a packet, the burden will not be heavy. He will simply pay the same price for fewer seeds. To the large grower the difference in price means something, but all he can do, under ptesent conditions, is to grin and bear it.

WASHINGTON, April 4—Huntington Wilson, acting Secretary of State announced today that an emphatic note had been sent to Consul Edwards at Chihuahua directing him to get into communication with General Pacual Orozco and inform him that Powell Roberts, formerly a member of the El Paso police force, who was arrested by the rebels, must be returned to Juarez. Consul Edwards was informed to press his demand on Orozlo and to make it clear that the United States does not recognize the revolution and is not treating with the rebels as belligerents.

AMERICAN TEA.

"American tea by no means an impossible product of the futnre," said Secretary Wilson, of the United States department of agriculture. He expressed himself as being of the opinion that the obstacles in the way of tea growing in that country will be overcome by persistent effort. The work of tea culture carried on at Summerville (S. C.) has continued to give favorable results, and although this season was somewhat discouraging from the standpoint of rainfall, the year has been satisfactory. A machine to prune the plants either in the flat or convex type of cut has done successful work, saving expensive hand labor, and tea-picking apparatus is now receiving attention, and some small samples of machine-picked tea have been obtained. When these two operations are successfully done by machines, the labor problem in the American tea raising industry will have been solved. The people of the United States, although considered a coffee-drinking nation, consume annually upward of one hundred million pounds of tea.

WAS TROUBLED WITH Headache AND Constipation.

After Suffering For Two Years Was Cured By BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

Headache of whatever nature is nearly always symptomatic of other diseased conditions, rather than a disease itself, but in most cases a disordered stomach, constipation, or bad circulation is the chief source of the difficulty. Burdock Blood Bitters removes the cause of the trouble through its cleansing, strengthening and tonic action on the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. Mr. Wm Redmond, Cardigan Bridge, P. E. I., writes:—"I have been troubled with headache and constipation for about two years. After trying every doctor I knew, a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I found myself, after using one bottle, getting much better, and after using three bottles I was completely cured.

"After then I was on a visit, and found my cousin very sick, and the doctor told her there was something wrong with her head. I told her to use Burdock Blood Bitters and she was cured in a short time. I can safely recommend it to all."

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

It pays to buy in this Province.

The friends of George Cudmore of Winsloe Road, who is ill with pneumonia, will deeply regret to learn that his condition Saturday was reported as "very low."

The many friends of Miss May E. Dougan, daughter of Anthony J. and Mrs. Dougan, Charlottetown, who has been taking a three years' course at the Boston City Hospital training school for nurses, Boston, Mass., has completed her course and graduated with honors March 31, 1912. She also graduated from the Providence Lying-in Hospital and after taking a complete course there, has accepted a position as Night Superintendent of nurses in the latter hospital in Providence, R. I. The Guardian heartily congratulates Miss Dougan on her success.

The funeral service of Estella W. Scott was held on March 21st at the home of her mother, Mrs. D. Scott, Cornwall. The Rev. Z. L. Fash, Charlottetown, conducted the service and preached from the text, "Let not your heart be troubled," John 14:1. A large number of friends assembled to show their respect for the deceased, who during her life time had been a general favorite. She was a young woman of excellent parts and had been very successful in her chosen occupation in Boston, Mass. She died very suddenly in Boston and her death was a great shock to her mother and all the family. A sister and brother came home with the body. The mother and two daughters and two sons are left to mourn. The interment was in the North River Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Wm. F. Fraser was held at Clyde River on Friday afternoon, April 5th. A short service was held at the house and then the funeral cortege proceeded to the Baptist Church, a short distance away. The church was crowded with people. There was not even standing room left and a good many were unable to obtain admission. The Rev. Z. L. Fash, M. A., Charlottetown, who conducted the service at the house, preached the funeral sermon from the text, Acts 13:36, David, after he had served his own day and generation by the will of God fell on sleep. The preacher brought a comforting message to those who so sincerely mourned the loss of this dear one. Six of the daughters were present, Mrs. J. D. Jenkins, Mrs. Dingwell Jenkins, Mrs. Charles McLean, Mrs. Wm. Murray who live in this Province, and Mrs. Bessie Allen, Brockton, Mass., and Mrs. Ben Smith, Taunton, Mass. Mrs. Layton McCabe and Mrs. Spurgeon McCabe, the two remaining daughters, were unable to be present. One brother, Daniel Fraser, was at the funeral, but the two remaining, George of California, and John of Denver could not get there. The four sons-in-law, J.D. Jenkins, Dingwell Jenkins, Charles McLean, and Layton McCabe, acted as pall-bearers. The entire service was a most impressive one. The widow is comforted in her great sorrow by the sympathy of the daughters and relatives, and a host of friends who deeply mourn the loss of a good man. The deceased was a most upright man, an honored member of the Baptist Church, and he will be greatly missed.

ROOSEVELT, JR., A BOND CLERK, WON'T DISCUSS HIS WORK.

NEW YORK, April. 4.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., has made his debut in the world of high finance as a bond clerk in the office of Berton, Griscom & Jenkins, at No. 40 Wall street. When a visitor, who acknowledged that he was a reporter, called to see him, word was sent forth that he was "not in."

Later, when he was summoned by telephone, he angrily declared that the effort to discover him was "unfair." When the new bond clerk went to lunch, he was followed by a small army of Wall street messengers, to his evident annoyance. As he was leaving No. 40 Wall street he was accosted by a group of reporters, who attempted to abtain from him a statement of his first day's impressions and experiences. Young Roosevelt, however, modestly declined to discuss himself.

Mr. McQuaid has received a splendid assortment of clothes suitable for spring and summer suits and overcoats and no doubt will receive a large patronage among his numerous friends and acquaintances. It might be mentioned that Mr. McQuaid learned the tailoring with J. T. McKenzie, and the past winter has been spent abroad where he received many important tips connected with the tailoring art.

Honorable Mr. McKinnon, Minister of Agriculture, for Prince Edward Island, was in town yesterday visiting the Horse Show. To a News reporter Mr. McKinnon expressed his delight and satisfaction at the splendid showing of horses at the Fair here. A WEAK, ACHING BACK CAUSED HER MUCH MISERY

Could Not Work and Had No Ambition For Anything.

Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble do not know the suffering and misery which those afflicted undergo.

Weak, lame or aching back comes from the kidneys, and when the kidneys are out of order the whole system becomes deranged.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles.

Mrs. W. R. Hodge, Fielding, Sask., writes:—"A few lines highly recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. For this last year I have been troubled very much with nasty sick headaches, and a weak, aching back which caused me much misery, for I could not work and had no ambition for anything. My kidneys were very badly out of order, and kept me from sleeping at nights, I tried many kinds of pills and medicines but it seemed almost in vain. I began to give up in despair of ever being well and strong again, when a kind neighbor advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, which I did, and am thankful for the relief I obtained from them, for now I am never in trouble with a sore back or sick headaches. I will always say Doan's Kidney Pills for mine, and can highly recommend them to any sufferers."

EARLY SPRING IN CANADIAN WEST.

WINNIPEG, April 4—All over southern Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, farm work is under way. On the Brandon plain, where the most of the No. 1 hard is grown, seeding has been going on for several days. The season is five weeks advanced. Spring weather is general and all the summer birds have made their appearances.

Sickly Children

If a child can be kept well and strong up to the fifteenth year, it will probably have a long and healthy life. Much ill health in grown persons can be traced back to neglected childhood and to the foolish belief that a child can "outgrow" a sickly, run-down, nervous condition without treatment.

How much more sensible it is to give pale, nervous, fretful children a harmless remedy like our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol, which they enjoy taking and which does them so much good. We could tell you of many puny, sickly children here that have been made well, rosy, strong and full of fun as a child should be, by taking Viool. It is a wonderful remedy for all who are broken in health, from grandparents to infants, and we guarantee it absolutely to give satisfaction or you get your money back.

PENSIONS FOR EVERYBODY.

(New York World.)

A bill has been introduced in the State Legislature granting pensions to members of the National Guard and the Naval Militia after a service of twenty-five years. Under the terms of the bill the pensions of enlisted men will be $30 a manth, while officers will receive $60 a month.

The bill has several commendable features. In the first place, it shows an intention to make the State keep pace with the general government in the pension procession. That is patriotic. In the second place, it tends to advance the coming of a time when the pension system will be made so comprehensive that everybody will have an income provided by either the State or by the Nation. That is the square deal.

Every able bodied male citizen is subject to military duty whenever the State chooses to impose it. Any number of them could be called out at any time to advance on Canada or Mexico or take ship for China or to defend any portion of our own continent, against Japan, Germany, Russia and the rest of the world. Why, then, should they not on arriving at the age of military exemption be grantedpensions ?

And why not also an age of exemption and of pensioning for taxpayers? A government that is truly paternal should pay no favorites.

P. B. Croken, of Emerald, left Saturday morning for Wainwright, Sask.

T. W. Morris, wife and child, have returned to Charlottetown from a visit to the Southerm States.

Mrs. Fred G. Kelly, of Brighton Road left Charlottetown Saturday morning to join her husband in Calgary.

Mrs. Nicholson, of Montreal, is visiting her father William McLean, Charlottetown, who still continues very ill.

The funeral of the late Francis Monaghan, Charlottetown, who died Saturday will be held tomorrow morning at 8.45 o'clock from his late residence, Grafton St., to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to R. C. Cemetery for interment.

Yesterday, Easter Sunday, was marked by the usual special services, appropriate sermons, and joyous Eastertide music in each of the Charlottetown churches. In many Easter lilies and other flowers formed part of the church decorations and the music was particularly appealing. The day was a beautiful one.

Saturday was Tag Day for the P. E. Island Hospital and visitors to and citizens of Charlottetown were afforded an opportunity to show their appreciations of the good work of the institution when about thirty young ladies and little lassies armed with tags and coin receptacles held up almost everyone in sight for the entire day. Bright and fine was the day and equally bright and eager were the charitable workers, as a result of whose untiring efforts something like $300 was realized.

RAISING DAIRY COWS.

It probably costs on an average from $18 to $25 to raise a calf until it is two years old. The cost, of course, will depend largely upon the price of feeds as well as upon their selection, but successful dairymen contend that they can raise calves at a lower cost than the maximum figures given above up to the age specified.

While the matter of cost is an important consideration, still the man who has set out to build up a business dairy herd is not likely to succeed well unless he produces his own cows. This is a fundamental factor in successful dairying and it is certain to be more true in the future than it has been in the past, and the progressive man can afford to expend twice the amount stated above to raise calves from his best cows to an age when he can test their individual merits.

A very important element, however, in the production of one's own cows, is whether he has proper foundation stock. The calves from cows that do not make a reasonable profit upon the feed given them are not likely to prove successful, and under such circumstances the only wise course would be for the dairyman to go out and purchase one or more high-grade or thoroughbred cows of merit with which to start. Then, too, a good sire should be available, for without the qualities that can be transmitted by such an animal one will not attain the success he should.

But neither of these conditions are impossible, and since it is the only business way one should provide himself with such animals and then conserve their merits in their offspring that the future herd may not only be equal to but an improvement upon the present herd. This can only be done by saving the best heifer calves from the best cows of the herd.—A. H.
