Newfoundland Canada Steamships Ltd.

Fast Passenger, Mail and Freight Service

S. S. "BELLE ISLE" owned and operated by Newfoundland Canada Steamships, Limited, sailing in summer months between Montreal, Prince Edward Island to St. John's, Newfoundland, via Bras d'Or Lakes, North Sydney and St. Pierre. In winter months sailing from Halifax, N. S., carrying passengers, mail and freight under long term contract with the Administration of St. Pierre and Miquelon.

No summer cruise could be more delightful than the route planned. Leaving Montreal she will touch at Quebec on the voyage down the river, next calling at Charlottetown. From Charlottetown she will enter the Bras d'Or Lakes through St. Peter's Canal, and make the 90 mile sail in daylight through this marvellous inland sea. Touching at North Sydney, the cruise continues to St. Pierre and then to St. John's, Nfld. This cruise offers an unusual variety of river, gulf, inland water and ocean travel.

The S. S. "BELLE ISLE" is a new ship and an oil-burner with a speed of 14 knots. Accommodation is provided for 65 first class and 20 second class passengers. Cabins are furnished with beds instead of bunks and each cabin has a distinctive furnishing and color scheme. There are two spacious suites consisting of double bedroom, sitting room and bath each. The first class dining saloon will seat the entire first class passenger list at one sitting. The first class lounge is surrounded by a glassed-in promenade deck, which will provide ample lounge accommodation. On the top deck is the music room with the major portion of this deck arranged for sport and dancing.

The Company also operates the following Passenger and Freight services:—

- 1. Fortnightly Service from Halifax, N. S., to Trinity and Conception Bay Ports on the East Coast of Newfoundland via Charlottetown, P. E. I., North Sydney, N. S., St. Pierre, Miqu., and St. John's, Nfld.
- 2. Fortnightly Service from St. John's, Nfld., to Trinity and Conception Bay Ports on the East Coast of Newfoundland via Charlottetown, P. E. I., North Sydney, N. S., St. Pierre, Miqu., and St. John's, Nfld.
- 3. Fortnightly Service from Sarnia, Port Colborne, Hamilton, Toronto, Kingston, Ont., Buffalo, N. Y., via Montreal to St. Pierre, Miqu., and St. John's, Nfld.
- 4. Fortnightly Service from Leith, Scotland; Antwerp, Belgium; Swansea, Wales; Manchester, England; Glasgow, Scotland; to Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, Chicago and other Canadian and U. S. Great Lake Ports.

—GIRL GUIDES' INVESTITURE—Last October, 1st Company Montague of Girl Guides was organized under the leadership of Captain Mrs. Alex. R. Gibson and Lieutenant, Mrs. Herbert Poole and since then this organization has steadily increased in strength until now they have twenty-eight on the roll. Keen interest has been taken by the girls in their work and their weekly meetings show the splendid progress they have made. During the first three months, twenty of our girls passed their Tenderfoot test, a remarkable record indeed. Besides this four girls have gone on to qualify for Patrol Leaders and they have set a pace hard to beat. As it is a rule that no girl can be properly invested as a Guide without a tunic, ten girls made ready for the investiture, which took place in the League room of the community school last Friday afternoon. The ceremony of the Investiture was in charge of the Captain, Mrs. Gibson, who was assisted by Lieut. Mrs. Poole. The ceremony was carried through in a quiet, dignified manner and was most impressive. The girls were all on tip-toe, looking very smart in their uniforms of blue and everything went off without a hitch. The Boy Scouts were invited to attend and two or three members took part in the Breaking of the Flag. Those present were the Mayor, Mr. Lester Mellish, who spoke in highest terms of the work being done for the girls, and members of the Advisory Committee, Mrs. A. C. McKay, Mrs. Maynard McDonald, Mrs. (Dr.) Preston McIntyre and Mrs. John Beer. The mothers of the girls invested were also invited and were present. The girls are to be congratulated on their efficiency and appearance.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MALCOLM A. MCLEOD

On Wednesday, January 13th, Mrs. Malcolm A. McLeod, a very highly esteemed resident of Granville, passed peacefully away in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown at the age of 48 years.

The deceased had been in a poor condition of health for upwards of two years. The greater part of the last eight months was spent in the hospital in Charlottetown. Until about two months before the coming of the end, quite good hopes were entertained for her recovery, but for some weeks it was becoming more and more evident that a return to health was impossible. Although all that medical skill and kind friends could do was done, she grew gradually weaker until on the above mentioned date her gentle spirit winged its heavenward flight.

My dear—
you have no idea how shocked
I was...!

"YOU know I spent the week-end with Helen. Someone really ought to speak to her. She's such a nice girl, and she's perfectly fastidious about everything else. But she wears her underthings a second day—and everybody perspires a little. Why does she run the risk of offending?"

Personal daintiness! The subject of whispered comment, veiled hints. Lose it and you lose all chance of social acceptance.

Fresh lingerie each day is absolutely essential to daintiness. All day long underthings absorb perspiration. A daily change is even more important than a daily bath, and it's so easy to wear fresh lingerie every day. For Lux removes every trace of perspiration, yet protects colours and fabrics. And it takes four minutes or less. Wash underthings and stockings in Lux diamonds, after each wearing.

- 1 Wash this 4-minute way: One tablespoon of Lux does 1 day's undies... stockings, too! Dissolve Lux in hot water and cool to lukewarm for use. Squeeze suds through fabric, rinse twice.
- 2 Wash after each wearing, for perspiration acids left in silk fade colours and rot threads. Lux removes perspiration acids and odours completely—leaves colours like new.
- 3 Never rub dainty lingerie with cake soap: Rubbing tends to streak and wear out silk.
- 4 Avoid ordinary soaps—cakes, powders, chips. These often contain harmful alkali, which robs silk of its life, weakens threads, fades colour. Lux has no harmful alkali. Anything safe in water alone is safe in Lux.

Your Hands—
they deserve gentle care, too. Use Lux in the dishpan... costs little... keeps hands white and smooth...

Besides a sorrowing husband, Mrs. McLeod leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, one daughter, Miss Olive Bell McLeod. Both Mr. McLeod and his young daughter are feeling their loss very keenly.

The deceased was one of a family of nine members, four brothers and five sisters. The brothers were Roderick McLeod, Granville; Robert McLeod, formerly of Bradalbane, but now of Hunter River; Cuthbert McLeod, Bradalbane, and Peter McLeod, Granville, and the sisters were Mrs. Albert Parker and Mrs. Isaac Thorpe, both of Upper Newport, Hants Co., N. S.; Mrs. Catherine Brehaut, New York; Miss Annie Bell McLeod, Granville and Mrs. Malcolm A. McLeod, (now deceased) Granville. Of these three brothers, Robert McLeod, Cuthbert McLeod and Peter McLeod, and three sisters, Mrs. Albert Parker, Mrs. Isaac Thorpe, both of Upper Newport, Hants Co., N. S., and Mrs. Catherine Brehaut, survive the deceased. The other members of the family passed away quite a number of years ago.

MISS ANNIE MC LAINE

On Wednesday, the twenty-third day of December, Miss Annie McLaine, a very highly esteemed resident of Nine Mile Creek passed peacefully away at the home of her brother Wallace McLaine, at the age of 58 years.

The deceased had been in a poor condition of health for a year or more, so that the coming of the end was not unexpected. Her illness was borne in the spirit of Christian meekness. Her strength gradually waned, until on the above mentioned date her gentle spirit winged its heavenward flight.

Miss McLaine leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving sister, two brothers and three sisters. The brothers are Lauchlin McLaine, Sydney, N. S., and Wallace McLaine, Nine Mile Creek and the sisters are Mrs. Frank Nevers, Dedham, Mass., Mrs. George Corveatt, Cumberland, P. E. I., and Miss Ellen McLaine, formerly of Wesleyan Hills, Mass., but at present at home. Another brother George McLaine passed away some years ago.

Miss McLaine was a lady who was well known by a large circle of relatives and friends and was held in high esteem by all. She will be much missed in the various spheres of life, but this will be especially true of the place she filled in the home, and that more particularly with the younger members of her brother's family to whom she was kind and considerate. When the end drew near she remained calm and unmoved. She passed away in the full assurance of that immortal hope that when for us life's little day is over and the earthly house of His tabernacle has been dissolved, those who have been faithful unto the Lord will have prepared for them a house not made with hands eternal in the heavens. Her passing was one of deep peace.

The funeral, which was to have been held on Saturday, Dec. 26th, was on account of the storm postponed until Monday, Dec. 28th. Even on Monday the roads were so badly blocked that it was impossible for Rev. R. Hensley Stavert to be present. In his absence, the service was conducted by Mr. John McDonald, Elder in the Church of Scotland, Nine Mile Creek. The pall bearers were Messrs. Hugh McPhee, Geo. Gorveatt, Neil McQuarrie, Hector Campbell, Martin McDonald and Norman McDonald. Interment was in the New Dominion Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)

JAMES AMBROSE GALLANT

Died at his home, New Haven, Feb. 29, 1932, James Ambrose Gallant in the 36th year of his age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gallant. His funeral which took place on Wednesday morning the 2nd, was largely attended. A High Mass was sung by Rev. Father Herrel who also officiated at the grave. He leaves to mourn his parents, one brother, John W. Gallant at home and one sister, Mrs. Anthony Clark, in North Wiltshire. The pall bearers were, Lyman Newson, Frank Cahill, Beecher Campbell, Frank McElroy, Lloyd MacKinnon, William Nolan. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace.

BOY GUNMAN, 8 IS ARRESTED

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Mar. 8—An eight-year old "bad man," waving his father's heavy revolver, terrified his schoolmates and teacher here when he sallied forth to "get the kid who squealed on me."

The boy is a pupil at Oliver Hazard Perry School.

He appeared there with the gun jammed in his belt. It contained one cartridge, in firing position. He pointed the gun at his classmates and teacher, eyeing them with a calculating air. The teacher fled. The pupils were ordered to line up against a wall. They lined up, 30 of them, trembling.

Miss Zulu L. Bruce, principal, was notified. She called Patrolman William Hladin and Albert Meister.

The officers disarmed the "desperado."

"Where did you get this gun?" demanded Hladin.

"I just had it, that's all," the boy said.

"What did you have it for?" asked the officer.

"A kid squealed on me, I was going to get him."

"Where did you get it?"

"Is that any of your business?" asked the young terrorist.

Police learned he took the gun from a dresser at home.

He will be given a hearing before Chief Probation Officer Tom L. Lewis next Wednesday. Probation officers, meanwhile, were investigating the case.
