Gracefully shouldered coats, belted close to the waist, gentle at the hem. . . . The fitted and flared coat enters Spring '48 with every inch of its fabric used for a definite purpose. . . . to accomplish the full, rounded silhouette with a minimum of bulk. One smooth molded line from collar to midriff, graceful to the hem.

There's high fashion in the graceful, slenderizing lines of sweeping-flaring dresses. The feminine flattery is enhanced by neck-line vanity, bodice, length, sleeves. Beautifully interpreted in spring shades and flowery prints, fashioned with fine detailing.

Bonnets haven't been this pretty since the turn of the century and they've never been so much a part of the gentle spirit of the season. Notice the tilt.

Shorties as well as three-quarter length capes are flaring into Spring, cut wide to whirl away. These are the fashions that will send you soaring with eye-catching chic through the fast approaching soft days of spring. You'll find just your very type, in your own colors, at Smallman's.

This spring will be the season of moderation. And as always, it is your suit that indicates your approach to Fashion. This year, look for new softness . . . in a full skirt (if you can wear it)—if not, find your softness in a jacket . . . at the shoulder, at the hipline, in the back . . . for this Spring you will concentrate on individuality, developing your own style.

So distinctively fashioned, so graciously feminine, so neatly tailored—suit dresses fitted with a tiny waist line belt, bowed at the neck with soft shoulder lines that blend into sleeves and bodice with ease. Each and every lady will set her own fashion, with feminine lines — with pride.

Kensington Team Winners Of First Game

The first game of the finals in the North Shore League was played on the night of March 11, between Kensington and New Annan and resulted in Kensington winning by a score of 3 to 4. New Annan went into a three-goal lead in the first half of the first period, but Kensington shot two goals before the period ended. New Annan 3, Kensington 2. Shortly before the period ended McInnis, the New Annan goalie, received a bad gash in the lip that required several stitches. He returned to the game but had to retire when struck by a stick in the same place—causing some of the stitches to give way. New Annan were forced to take MacEntee off their "Punch Line" and put him in the nets where he performed very well for his inexperience. The second period saw the Kensington team go into a two-goal lead on goals by Champion, Glyndon and Craig. New Annan team were erratic in their shooting some of the time and Baker in Kensington nets was unbeatable in all close-in drives. The third period saw Kensington add three more goals to one New Annan as the New Annan team played a strong offensive game and the fast breaking Kensington team raced in on MacEntee who never had a chance on all goals scored.

Final score: Kensington 8, New Annan 4.

Bedeque

—Miss Mildred Callbeck and Mrs. Brewer Waugh, Central Bedeque, were recent visitors to Charlottetown.

Miss Doris Oakes, teacher of Bedeque school, spent the week-end at the home of her parents in Westmorland.

Mr. Douglas MacFarlane, Fernwood, was the week-end guest of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Corbett, Alberton.

Mrs. James Henderson, Bedeque, after being indisposed for the past week is quite recovered. Her many friends are pleased to see her around again.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. C. M. Johnston, Central Bedeque, manager, Dunk River butter factory, on being awarded second prize for the neat and clean way in which he kept the factory. Mr. Johnston is ably assisted in his work by his brother, Mr. Orville Johnson, Bedeque.

The chums of little Willard Collett, son of Mr. Harry Collett, are pleased to see him out again, after his recent accident. While playing with other children, he fell on the ice, injuring his shoulder, which required medical attention, and confined him to his home for the past two weeks.

Friends and relatives in Bedeque of Mr. Sterling Gillespie, manager of the Souris butter factory, are pleased to learn that he has been awarded third prize for the highly satisfactory condition of the factory. Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie are well known here.

The funeral of the late Albert Morris, who passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. Robert Holland, Lower Bedeque, on March 7th was held at the Holland home on Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. The deceased was 82 years of age, and unmarried. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Burton Crowe, pastor of the Bedeque United Church. Despite the unfavorable condition of the roads, a large gathering assembled to pay their last respects to the departed. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved relatives.

At the regular March meeting of the South Bedeque Women's Institute held last week, a special collection was taken for the Veids Matthew Fund, Alberton, which amounted to $12.00. As all are aware, this little girl was badly burned and narrowly escaped death, when their home was destroyed by fire, which took the lives of her mother and brother. The members of this Institute are also sponsoring an Institute in England, at this meeting a parcel of food was contributed. This is the second parcel that has been forwarded. The work of this Institute is praiseworthy, and might very well be emulated by many more organizations in the province.

The students of Bedeque school are being cordially congratulated on their success in the "Sports Contest," which was held in the Bedeque rink on Friday evening March 12th. Students from Bedeque and adjacent schools gathered for their annual contest. At the close the judges announced that Bedeque had won the "Cup" this year. This "Cup" was donated by Bedeque to the Athletic School Championship in the year 1934. That year it was won by Bedeque Students. During the intervening years it has been won by other schools in the constituency and now after 14 years it has returned to the community where it originated. Miss Lillian Jack was acclaimed the best "Ice Queen" and Helen Folland and John Affleck came second in the contest for the best costume in the "Honeymoon" race. Lillian Jack and Preston Murray were selected to attend the "Relay Race" in Charlottetown on Friday evening March 19th. The Bedeque teachers, Miss Helen Green and Miss Doris Oakes deserve great credit for the interest they have taken in preparing their pupils for this contest, which resulted in bringing this honor to our school. — Bed.
