

Hutchinson Stops Yanks Cold With Masterful 2-Hitter

The Back Stretch

Memorial track at Pictou and Charlie Horton's former good pacer mare, Jean Henley, turned the tables on a good field winning with 2-1-1, best time 2:10 2-5, made by Scotty Budington in the first heat. Free Trade was 2-3-4, Money Maker 5-4-2, Prince Marine that had won his two previous races, was 4-5-8. In the No. 2 Classified Sister Henley (O'Brien) was 1-1, Chicago Frances 2-2-2, four other starters. The No. 3 classified was won by Mac Flingo, driven by Joe O'Brien, with C. Harry Budington (Weir) 5-2-2, Dixie Bell 2-3-3, best time 2:15 4-5.

The popular Covehead Race Track had the largest attendance last Wednesday afternoon since its opening, and proprietor Charles Willis wore a beaming smile all through the day despite the heat. It was a great holiday crowd and the horses and heremen rode to the occasion by putting on a racing display that caught their fancy and resulted in frequent bursts of applause. Finishes were close in the majority of races, and on three occasions the Photo Finish was called upon to furnish evidence to the judges.

The 2:22 Trot Victoria Driving Club Stakes was a lovely race with the honest little Eva Worby (Colins) winning all three heats, Marion L. (T. Semple) second the first heat outpaced by a nose. Buddy Moko (Brookings) was 2-2-2, Billy Kalmuck (Kelly) 4-3-2, best time 2:12 1-5—a new record for Eva Worby. The 2:21 Trot and Pace was the surprise race of the afternoon. Winnie Scott was the expected winner and she went a wonderful first heat but Eleanor G. with C. O'Brien up, outscored her just at the wire in 2:10 1-5—a new record for Eleanor G. Prince Budington had a wonderful first heat but Eleanor G. with C. O'Brien up, outscored her just at the wire in 2:10 1-5—a new record for Eleanor G. Prince Budington had a wonderful first heat but Eleanor G. with C. O'Brien up, outscored her just at the wire in 2:10 1-5—a new record for Eleanor G.

This mare's history is interesting. Last year a three-year-old she started in several events at Roosevelt Raceway. They were mostly less than a mile and her performances could not be considered as brilliant but she did win a heat in 2:19 1-4. At the Harrisburg sale a party recommended her to Commander Buntin and although he missed out on her she was later bought by a new owner and bought. Starting at Summerside she made a rather bad showing and most horsemen put her down as a failure. Then Will H. Neill appeared for advice, recommended a grab being placed on her front shoes, also the tightening of her standing martingale. This proved the winning combination and now admirers are legion and predictions are made that before the season is ended she will place to a record of 2:08 or better. Miss K. of Highland Scot 1:59 1-2 and Rose Scot 1:56 3-4. Her dam is also well bred.

The Free-For-All created great interest because of the reappearance of the five pacers that had made matters so lively at Montague. It again turned out to be a hot race. Anti-Aircraft 2:03 and Kavola 2:06 3-4. Kavola (Barnett) won the first heat with True Hal (Hennessy) in second place. Royal-A-Law (O'Brien) third, Anti-Aircraft (Kelly) going very rough, fourth and Alcevo (Wisnet) fifth. In the second heat Anti-Aircraft went away rough but recovered and was very fast. True Hal (Hennessy) won, Kavola (Barnett) second, Anti-Aircraft looked out of it at the half in the third heat but he again put on one of his terrific bursts and finished a winner. Best time 2:10 2-5 by Kavola. The No. 2 Classified was as expected, won by Ann Clegg, daughter of Abner T. Clegg, with owner George Calbeck sitting comfortably the first and second heats, the latter being in 2:15, a new record for Ann Clegg. Just Plicka won the third heat in 2:15—a new record for Plicka.

Owing to the large number of horse owners that wanted to race with Charles Willis at Covehead, he is putting on another card this afternoon with four classified events with 36 starters. The committee has placed them admirably and the finishes will be good. There are a lot of future stars among the contestants and as we look them over we are more than ever convinced that this Province deserves the name of The Kentucky of Canada. We are certainly miles ahead of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia in the breeding and developing of race prospects.

Our Montreal correspondent sends us the result of recent race meets in that Province. The most interesting was the Quebec Derby, won by...

DETROIT, July 18—(AP)—New York Yankees' bid for their 20th straight victory—an American League record—collapsed in the twilight of Briggs Stadium today as Freddie Hutchinson, Detroit Tiger righthander, pitched a near perfect two hitter to blank the league leaders 8-0. The second place Tigers rattled out 18 hits, their biggest production this season, off Randy Gumpert and Karl Dress. Hutchinson, who faced only 28 men—more than the minimum—was making his first start in a month because of an ailing shoulder but had everything he needed today, and then some. He struck out seven men and walked none as the Yanks hit only five balls out of the infield in their futile twilight bid for the record. Hutchinson himself, with two new aces and a single, got more hits than he gave the Yanks, as the Tigers put together their widest hitting day of the season. Joe DiMaggio's sharp single to left in the second inning, when he was promptly erased in a double play, was New York's only hit until George (Snuffy) Striswies beat out a bunt to the right of the mound leading off the seventh. The setback stopped the Yankees' winning streak at 19 games, which equaled the American League record established by Chicago White Sox "hitless wonders" in 1906, and left the Yanks 10 1-2 games ahead of Detroit.

Richelieu Park night racing programs are going along merrily starting at 8:30 Saturday evening. Tremendous crowds are in attendance and the popularity of harness racing has increased very much through the installation of the lights. The Pari-Mutuels are tinging merrily and one payoff was $70.10, but of course that is a mere bagatelle compared to the $547 of Miss Knox at Montague. We had the pleasure of a conversation with our good friend Bill Stewart, New Glasgow, yesterday afternoon and Bill says that he is not out of the horse business by any means as his good brood mares Alice Grattan 2:06 1-2, and Belle of Brooklyn 2:12 have produced very promising youngsters, one of them a two-year-old by Abner T. Clegg that looks like the makings of a high class pacer. The other has not determined its gait but looks the part of a real one. We hope Bill's expectations will materialize to the fullest.

Junior Kinsmen Win 5-4 From R. C. A. F.

The Junior Kinsmen took a close game from the R. C. A. F. team at Summerside last night, defeating the air squad 5 to 4. Gordie MacKay, Kinsmen shortstop, won the box as he knocked out put up by Kelly's Bakery for the first home run of the season, by driving a fly into deep left field over the head of Mickus who had trouble locating the apple in the long grass. MacKay got his homer with a mate on base and the two runs which scored were necessary to win the ball game. Garth Gay pitched gilt edged ball for the Kinsmen, having allowed only three hits when he was relieved by Stewart after a walk, a wild pitch, and a single had got him into trouble in the final frame. Only two batters faced Stewart, the second one walking to get nipped off second base for the final out of the contest. Tanton Landry, Kinsmen third sacker, played brilliantly at bat and fielded, getting two singles and starting a well executed double play in the fifth. Clair White made four putouts in left field.

500 Greet "Rocky"

NEW YORK, July 18—(AP)—Rocky Graziano, middleweight boxing champion as a result of his technical knockout of Tiny Zale in Chicago Wednesday night, came back today to the neighborhood where he was born and was greeted by more than 500 admirers. The new champion, whose title is recognized everywhere but in New York State where he was barred by the State Athletic Commission after a hearing on charges that he failed to report a bribe offer, rode in an open automobile to the arena.

NOBODY HIT IT

The Indians' Don Black kisses the ball that all bats missed after pitching the first no-hitter of the season in the American League. His 3-0 triumph against the Athletics in Cleveland marked the climax of his comeback after being fired from the Indians last year.

Cardinals Halted By Dodgers; Giants Move Up To Second

(Canadian Press)

Ralph Branca, 21-year-old Brooklyn righthander, pitched seven perfect innings last night before giving up a hit to Enos Slaughter, leading off the eighth for St. Louis, and went on to blank the Cardinals 7-0. Ed Stanky, with two doubles and a triple, and Jackie Robinson, with a home run and single led the Dodger attack in the National League contest. Slaughter, with a single, and Whitey Kurovski, with a base on balls, were the only Redbirds to reach base as Branca won his 15th game of the season. Scoring the winning run in the eighth inning without making a hit, Pittsburgh Pirates defeated Boston Braves 2-1 before 19,628 Boston fans who saw a near free-for-all in the fifth inning when Pirate third sacker Frankie Gustine, forced to drop to avoid being struck by a pitch, charged Boston hurler Bill Voiselle. Willard Marshall hit three successive home runs and Johnny Mize and Bobby Thomson hit one apiece to lead New York Giants to an 8-3 victory over Cincinnati Reds. The victory enabled the Giants to wrest second place away from Boston Braves who lost to Pittsburgh. Chicago Cubs unlimbered their

Eastern Squad In Clean Sweep

VICTORIA, July 18—(CP)—The powerful eastern squad made a clean sweep of the East-West tennis matches today boosting their lead over the West in the trials leading to Davis Cup selection, to 18-3. Montreal's Brendan Macken exhibited his near perfect style to a small gallery, drubbing lanky Don Hodges of Regina in straight sets, 6-0, 6-1, 6-3. Playing under a hot sun on the grass court of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club, Brendan's 21-year-old brother Jim allowed Vancouver's Art Jeffrey his first set of the series when he whipped the University of British Columbia denistry student 6-1, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4. In whipping Hodges, no. 4 man of the West's squad, Macken, the East's third player, moved a step closer towards a berth on Canada's Davis Cup team which meets an Australian squad at Monreal Aug. 7. Heavy artillery for four extra base hits and as many runs in the fourth inning. Then went on to whip Philadelphia Phillies 7-5.

ing as to how the skunks stood up to the $3.00 barrage last spring (April) needn't wonder any longer. Many are under the erroneous impression that Jimmie Skunk is dumb. Nothing could be further from the truth. When it comes to a question of survival he knows all the answers.

A week or 10 days ago two residents on the Mount Edward Road were doing some repair work to a couple of small buildings. They found 8 young skunks under one and 7 under the other. Neither of the men even dreamed there were any skunks in the district let alone under their very noses. A few nights ago a mother skunk led her family of 7 little ones across the road at Cherry Valley and just the other evening a farmer at West Royalty surprised an old skunk and a whole company young rats and mice who were in his lane who immediately took cover in the culvert at his gate. He filled in both ends with dirt and rocks and went back to his early next morning with his shotgun. He arrived too late. The striped culvert didn't like being locked up in such close quarters and sometimes during the night had managed to dig out. It's my guess that the old one had a pretty good idea of what was in store for them if they failed to break jail before daybreak. Maybe it's just as well. If a battle had developed, no difference which side won, the results would have had a very bad effect on the treat. And wholesome atmosphere of West Royalty.

Locke In Lead In Canadian Golf Tourney

SCARBORO GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB, Toronto, July 18—(CP)—Boony Locke of South Africa took over the lead in the Canadian open golf championship this evening with a 67 on the 67 on today's third round for a 54-hole total of 201, one stroke better than Ed Oliver of Wilmington, Del., and Nick Wisnack, Detroit amateur.

Locke went four under par for each hole to finish.

Bobby Gray, the Host Club pro, also shot a 67 and moved into the next spot one stroke behind Locke and Oliver.

Ellsworth Vines, last of the threesome, came in with a five-under-par 66 to put his 54-hole total at 206.

When Locke jumped into the lead—a late finisher just before 5 P.M.—there was no chance of him being overhauled by the players still on the course.

Gayton Haefner, Charlotte, N.C., added a 71 to his 136 for a total of 207, with G. Perry of Newport News, Va., one stroke behind him with 208. Johnny Palmer, Badin, N.C., the first day's leader, came through with a 70 for a 209 total while Skip Alexander of Lexington, N.C., shot a 71 for 210.

International competition still the members of the team have to be very, very good to put up any kind of a struggle with the world's best players.

Baudouin who hails from Halifax is one of the best tennis players ever developed in the Maritimes. Seeing these men play tennis can be compared to seeing the Toronto Maple Leafs and Canadiens play hockey. If you have played and understand the game it is all the better, of course, but even if you haven't and don't, you can't help being thrilled at the dazzling skills these two gentlemen will no doubt put on.
