Does not Color the Hair

Ayer's Hair Vigor is composed of Sulphur, Glycerin, Quinin, Sodium Chlorid, Capsicum, Sage, Alcohol, Water, Perfume.

Show this to your doctor. Ask him if there is a single injurious ingredient. Ask him if he thinks Ayer's Hair Vigor, as made from this formula, is the best preparation you could use for falling hair, or for dandruff. Let him decide. He knows.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

Hockey match tonight.

F. M. Stewart, city, was registered at the Queen House on Wednesday.

A batch of news items has been received from Augustine Cove which awaits the sender's name in confidence.

Dr. Coffin, city, has taken rooms at the Barclay House, Jacquet River, N. B., and intends locating there permanently.

All readers when writing to advertisers in this or any other issue of this paper, are requested to mention The Guardian.

Everyone should remember Major Bartlett's splendidly illustrated lecture on Edingburgh in Grace Church Monday evening, 21st inst.

The Rev. H. R. Bell will preach as follows the first Sunday: New Glasgow, 11 a. m.; Bradalbane, 2.30 p. m. and 7.30 p. m. Everybody welcome.

The case against Samuel Morrison in connection with the recent Cameron robbery came up again yesterday and resulted in the dismissal of the prisoner. Frank Mahar's case was also continued and will be further proceeded with this morning. Mahar was admitted to bail last evening.

The attention of Canada Life policyholders is called to the ad. of the company in this issue asking policyholders to call at the Charlottetown office for their dividend certificates, which this year are increased from 30 per cent. to 40 per cent. over the results of 1905. This should be very gratifying to all concerned.

On Sunday afternoon February 6th, the W. M. A. S. of Hazelbrook Baptist Church held their second quarterly public meeting, presided over by the pastor Rev H. S. Erb. The program consisted largely of appropriate music, readings, and recitations. A generous offering was received. It is hoped by these meetings to increase the interest, prayers, and gifts of the people to the important work of missions.

All that are loyal to their country are asked to enlist in the good cause of fighting the "White Plague." Several hundred dollars are needed towards the up-keep of the Dispensary in Charlottetown. This institution is not only maintained to treat and instruct those stricken with consumption, but also to help the poor, suffering from any illness. What more worthy object! Last year the financial assistance came from a very limited number. This year it is confidently expected that all, that possibly can, will make a contribution. $1.00 pays the membership fee to the Anti-Tuberculosis Association, but donations of any amount, large or small, will be gratefully received and acknowledged in the press.

The Guardian regrets to record the death of Everard B. Evans, which took place at his home, 1817 11th Avenue East, Vancouver, B. C., on January 31st, after an illness of several months, through which he manifested cheerfulness and submission to the Divine will and never murmured. His faith rested on the Divine promises and death to him was an eternal gain. The deceased was only twenty-three years of age and the eldest son of William John and Mrs. Evans. His death has left a vacancy in the family circle which time can never fill. But the thought is cheering that beyond the river on the bright shores of immortality his spirit is now beckoning to the sorrowing ones left behind to prepare to meet him in the glorious home above, where sickness is unknown and death cannot enter, and where the family circle will again be complete never more to be sundered by the touch of the withering blast. Besides the sorrowing parents, two brothers, Ellsworth and Leighton, of Vancouver, and two sisters, Mrs. William Nelson of Victoria, B. C., and Mrs. George Workman, of Gainesville, Texas, are left to mourn, also a large circle of friends and relatives, to whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

::"British Aimond Pink," an "ideal" preparation for chapped hands and roughened skin. As a face lotion and "after shave," it ranks with the very best. Prepared and sold at 25 cents a bottle by A. W. Reddin, Phm. B., Central Drugstore.

Miss Edith Henry, Marshfield, has returned from a visit to the city.

The tide will be high this afternoon at 5.24 and tomorrow afternoon at 6.31.

Miss Dennis, Marshfield, was the guest of Mrs Richard Squarebriggs, city, last week.

George McCormack, Butte, Montana, formerly of Grand River, is now in San Francisco, Calif.

Something of interest appears in the ad of A. Duchemin & Co, in this issue and should be read by all.

S. M. Brown, formerly of Charlottetown, is doing a successful business in San Diego, Calif, says the Oakland Maple Leaf.

Rev. John Gillis will conduct services as follows next Sabbath: Bradalbane, 11 a. m.; Rose Valley, at 3 p. m.; Hartsville, at 7 p. m.

The Guardian has received from Thos McCready & Son, Ltd, St. John, through their representative, P. E. Fownes, now in this City, a useful calendar.

The Abbies and Vics play their best game tonight. The winner will then play the Crystals for the trophy so both teams want to win. Come and see who the winners will be. Game starts at 8.15 sharp.

The Minto arrived in Georgetown yesterday morning from Pictou at ten o'clock bringing over twenty-seven passengers, fifty bags of mail, one car of flour, and one car of way freight. The Earl Grey crossed from this port to Pictou arriving there at ten fifty.

The stipendiary magistrate immediately sent an officer up to a local bookstore to procure a bible conformable to his views as to what the good book should contain. When the officer returned he handed the book to the witness who opened it, apparently examined it and then took the oath in the ordinary way. His eyesight must surely have been deficient and defective as it was found at the conclusion of the case that the book brought by the officer was a Presbyterian book of praise.

Twentieth Century Division, S.O.T. at York met Monday night with unusual interest, quite a number from Pleasant Grove being present. Mr. Henry Howard the Worthy Patriarch in the chair. After the usual business a good program was rendered as follows:—Recitation by Miss Julia Chappelle, Harmonica music by Mr. Brown, Recitation by Miss Madge Crockett, solo "Onward" by Herbert Dennis, reading by Miss Myers, speech by George Crockett solo Golden Arrow by Miss Dennis, recitation by R. Crockett, harmonica music by Master Crockett, classical music by Miss Ruby West. All the selections were well rendered and 20th Century would be pleased to have any neighboring division visit them.

The annual entertainment in aid of the Charlottetown City Hospital will take place as usual on Easter Monday in the Opera House. It will be under the direction of Prof Watkis, the latest accquisition to the ranks of capable musicians, and one whose fame has preceeded him as a real musician, learned and trained in the art of producing entertainments which never fail to please. A long list of the finest local talent is being held ready for the entertainment on Easter Monday, and a rarely grand evening is in store for all who wish to help along a good cause and give at the same time a full measure of entertainment to themselves. Further particulars will appear soon, and readers kept posted as to the attractions in the Opera House on Easter Monday.
