IN MEMORIAM

MRS. LEIGH LOWTHER.

A gloom was cast over North Carleton on Feb 11th, when it became known that Death had entered the home of Leigh Lowther and taken therefrom his dearly loved wife, after only a week's illness. She was a general favourite in the community for her kind and hospitable nature but, as much as she was esteemed by her friends and neighbours it was in the home where her best qualities were displayed for she was a model wife and mother. She was a member of the Methodist Church in Searle town. Besides her aged mother Mrs. Capt. Dunn Summerside and several brothers and sisters there are left to mourn, a grief stricken husband and seven children the youngest not two years old, six boys Hudson, Wilfred, Horace, Jim, Fred and Loyd and one daughter Mabel. Although no funeral services were held a large number followed the remains to Searle town Cemetery on Feb 12th.

Mrs. ALEXANDER HALLORAN.

There passed peacefully away at her home in Brockton Mrs. Alexander Halloran widow of the late Alexander Halloran, at the age of 61 years. Deceased had been in ill health for some time but since the death of her husband which occurred on Dec. 5, 1918 she was confined to her bed, the shock seemed more than she could bear and on the morning of Jan. 31st. she calmly breathed her last. She was a faithful member of the Roman Catholic church and was attended in her last days by Rev. Dr. Campbell of Alberton. Deceased was a woman of excellent character always bearing patiently her trials and suffering she was a faithful wife and a fond and loving mother and although we cannot help grieve for her yet we feel that our loss is her gain. Besides a host of friends she leaves to mourn several brothers, seven daughters Janey at home, Winifred, Lena, Alice and Laura of Boston, Mrs. Albert Flanagan also of Boston and Mrs. Albert Kennedy of Waterford Lot 1 and two sons Herman at home and James of Boston, Mass. The sympathy of the community is extended to all. May she rest in peace (Journal please copy)

EDWARD MCCARTHY.

Marie lost one of its best and most respected citizens in the death of Edward McCarthy, which sad event occurred there on Friday the 7th inst. at the early age of 38 years. Deceased had been in failing health for some time, but was able to attend his business until about a month ago, when he was stricken with heart trouble to which he succumbed. The Parish has lost in Mr. McCarthy one of its most enthusiastic promoters of every movement tending to the progress and prosperity of the community. Honest, upright and charitable he will be sadly missed, and his name will remain forever green in the hearts and minds of his many friends and acquaintances. Besides his widow and four small children, he is survived by three brothers, Frank of Morell, Lemuel of Denver Cal. and Louis manager Roy at Bank Santa Domingo also three sisters Mrs. John Walsh Vernon Elver, Mrs. H. Chudleigh of Alberta, and Mrs. Michael Dunphy of Morell. His funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, and was the largest seen there for some time, the funeral service in church and at the grave being conducted by his pastor Rev. Father Duffy. The pall bearers were Ambrose Phelan, Edwin Walsh, James Byrne, Edward Honnery, Francis Dunphy, and Patrick Murphy.

To the bereaved wife, family and friends the Guardian extends sincere sympathy. May his soul rest in peace.

WESTON NEWBERRY

Mr. Weston Newberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Newberry, of this city died on Tuesday morning, Feb. 16th, inst. in the Naval Hospital, at Halifax. During the last hours of his illness he was cheered by the presence of his mother who went over on the Saturday previous in response to a telegram that no hopes were entertained for his recovery. He enlisted last May in the Navy, and was assigned to duty on one of the many naval boats doing patrol work on the coast at a time when the treacherous submarines of the enemy were lurking in our waters. Prior to his enlistment he was employed on the Carberry and other government boats and was one of a number who volunteered to accompany Capt. Reid on that perilous trip in the "Minto" to Russia, which, through good seamanship, was successful. Weston, as he was better known among his large circle of friends, was active on shore as well as on the water. St. George's, L. O. L. of this city will miss an active and energetic worker, also Victoria Preceptory, of the Royal Black Order of which he was a Red Cross member deeply regrets his death. The sympathy of a large circle of friends, goes out toward his young widow an estimable young lady, formerly Miss Maria McPhail, of Bonshaw, and her little ones, also to the father and mother in this hour of trial and sorrow. A large concourse of friends and citizens paid their tribute of respect to his memory by attending the funeral last Wednesday.

MR. HENRY C. ROBLEE

Mr. Otto R. Crabbe of the Postal Department this city received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of his nephew, Henry C. Roblee, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Roblee of Cleveland, Ohio, and formerly of Summer side. The death which occurred yesterday morning resulted from an attack of Spanish influenza.

The deceased was a young man of exceptional ability. He was a practicing barrister in Cleveland and was selected by the State Committee of Ohio, to deliver the oration for the launching of the last Victory Loan in the United States. A sad feature in connection with the death of this brilliant young man is the fact that he was married less than a month ago, his wife being Miss Winifred S. Latimer. His mother, formerly Miss Annie Crabbe of Summerside, predeceased him by only a few months. There are left to mourn besides his young bride, his father T. H. Roblee, his brother, William, and one sister, Fannie, married in Cleveland. Mr. Roblee, who has been so sorely bereaved will have the heartfelt sympathy of his many Island friends.

DEATH OF DR. DANIEL MACDONALD NOTED PATHOLOGIST

Dr. Daniel Macdonald widely known among physicians of this and other cities died Wednesday of pneumonia at his home, 7 West 108th St. He was associated with Fordham University as professor of pathology and formerly was affiliated with the Women's College and Fordham Hospital in a similar capacity. He had written many articles of pathology for medical purposes.

Dr. Macdonald was born in Rosebury, Prince Edward Island, 56 years ago, a son of the late Mr. Neil Macdonald, J. P. He was educated there and at New York University.

He is survived by his wife (nee Agnes Cronin, New York) his mother brother Gordon and sister Mrs. Arthur Edmonds, residing in P. E. I. Mrs. A. J. Gillis and Mrs. H. Macdonald, Montreal, Neil, Seattle, Capt. J. A. present in England, Alex. and J. Malcolm, in Boston.

Funeral service will be held at eight o'clock at his late home, Rev. Malcolm J. McLeod officiating. Interment will be made privately.

New York Times, Feb. 6th, 1919.

MISS MARGARET HICKEN.

In memoriam of Miss Margaret Hicken. On Friday Feb 7th 1919, the people of Pembroke Road and surrounding districts were unexpectedly saddened and grieved when it became known that the Angel of Death, had visited the home of William Hicken and removed from his earthly sphere his daughter Margaret ELLEN at the age of 48 yrs and 13 days.

Her health has been failing for about a year and she was attended on by Drs McIntyre and Grant of Montague and the late Dr. Stewart of Georgetown and also had treatment at the P. E. Island Hospital, but it was all of no avail.

She leaves to mourn an aged father two sisters Mrs. A. Finley of Cambridge Road and Mrs. R. J. Lewellyn of Surgeon and three brothers James of Pembroke Road, Lemuel at home and George in Gasperaux besides a large circle of friends and relations. The funeral which was largely attended on Saturday the 8th at one p.m. was conducted at the home and the grave by the Revs A. Sutherland of Murray Harbor North and W. J. Downville of Montague. The remains were laid to rest in the Cemetery at Murray Harbor beside her mother who had predeceased her fifteen years ago.

The pall bearers were George McLure Fredrick Steele Sydney Lewellyn, William Steele, Austin Davey and William Dickson.

MRS. ELIZABETH LAWSON.

At Gasperaux on Feb 3rd, 1919, there passed peacefully away at the ripe old age of eighty years, Mrs. Elizabeth Lawson widow of the late Stephen G. Lawson of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. Deceased was formerly Miss Elizabeth Graham of Murray Harbor North. She was twice married first to Mr. John Lewellyn, better known by all here as John Farmer, an occupation in which he was both industrious, and successful. He died about twenty years ago, leaving her and one son Sydney. About eight years ago she disposed of most of the farm and went west, and was married to the Rev. Stephen G. Lawson a well known preacher and editor, years ago on P. E. I. but for reasons best known to himself he resigned and went west, where he farmed and speculated and was very successful. However this union was of short duration, for about four years ago he also died leaving deceased a widow for the second time, and as she was well stricken in years she thought best to come back to her old home, and spend her remaining time. When she arrived here she was heartily welcomed by all, both old and young as she was a friend to every one, and was always ready to give a helping hand to any one who might be in need. She was also possessed of a wonderful memory, and could tell things that happened in her childhood days as if it had been but yesterday, and was therefore the best of company and a grand entertainer to the young folk. She had been in apparent good health till about three months ago when she gradually began to decline. Best physicians were summoned but of no avail, it was plain to be seen that only a short time remained and the venerable friend would be gone. She was nursed by her daughter-in-law Mrs. Sydney Lewellyn who did all in her power to allay her suffering. She was also visited by a large number of relatives and friends who helped to soothe and comfort her in her last hours. She was also visited and prayed with by her pastor, the Rev.

A. Sutherland of the Presbyterian Church of which she had always been a life long attendant, and when God called her home on Monday morning the 3rd, she passed away trusting in Christ as her Redeemer. The funeral took place on the 5th, at one o'clock p.m. from her old home at the Presbyterian Cemetery Murray Harbor North, and was largely attended. The Rev. A. Sutherland officiating. The pall bearers were Charles Graham, William Dickerson, William Steele, Alexandra McKenzie, Benjamin Henderson, and Austin Davey. She leaves to mourn one son Sydney at home and two sisters Mrs. William White of Murray Harbor North and Mrs. Samuel Lewellyn of Pembroke, and a large circle of relatives and friends who have the sympathy of the whole community in their loss of mother, sister, relative and benevolent friend, for in truth it can be said she had no enemies nor was enemy to none but always had a smile and a kind word for all.
