A. A. Moore, Pownal, the newly appointed roadmaster, is displaying much zeal in the discharge of his duties. The greater part of the rutts have disappeared and the bridges levelled and repaired. Mr. Moore is the right man in the right place.

W. A. McQuarrie, Hampton, was a visitor to Charlottetown yesterday. Mr. McQuarrie brought with him a curiously shaped egg, resembling a half circle, the shell, apparently being perfectly and evenly formed. The hen, which laid the curio, excelled herself as her usual product is of the ordinary shape and size.

The ecumenical exercises of the University of New Brunswick began today with baccalaureate sermon at the Methodist Church by Rev. George M. Campbell, D.D., principal of Mt. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, Fredericton Exc. (Rev. Dr. Campbell is a former pastor of the First Methodist Church, Charlottetown.)

The members of Court Charlottetown, C. O. F., are anticipating a visit from Mr. Strong, Brantford, Ont., the Superintendent of Organization. Mr. Strong will be here in the course of a few days and the members will be notified personally of the date of his arrival and of the social program which is being prepared for an evening during his visit.

Persons desiring advertising of any kind inserted in The Guardian are requested to leave their order for same at the business office on ground floor as early as possible during the day, as the writing staff at night requires all their time for their own work, and finds it difficult to handle even emergency advertising, which latter but lessens the amount of news.
