WOMEN ARE EQUAL WITH BALKAN MEN
(By The Canadian Press)
MONTREAL, March 27—President Thomas Masaryk of the Czechoslovak Republic, who recently celebrated his 85th birthday, has throughout his career been a consistent advocate of equality of rights as between men and women, it was pointed out by Mrs. R. Krnansky, wife of the Czechoslovak Consul here.

Before the war, said Mrs. Krnansky, Masaryk then a university professor, championed the principle of equality on all occasions. His postulate, "A woman should be placed on a level with a man, culturally, legally and politically," became the slogan of the feminist press at the beginning of the present century. Following the war, President Masaryk had embodied in the Czechoslovak constitution the words, "Privileges of sex are not recognized," and equality of women with men thus became a fundamental law of that state.

President Masaryk's feminist sympathies, Mrs. Krnansky declared, were due in large measure to his wife, formerly Miss Charlotte Garrigue, whom he married in New York in 1878. In a letter written in 1910 he acknowledged his debt to her in the words: "I have clarified my views of women by the living example of my wife, since my wife has had the most decisive and the best influence upon the development and ripening of all my views and of my character."

This is an outstanding animal for which he received a large sum. Mr. Murphy is to be congratulated on raising such horses and it proves that if the farmer produces the stock, he can still command the highest prices.

SEWING CLUB MEETS.—The regular meeting of the Cape Traverse Sewing Club was held at the home of the leader, Mrs. Melbourne Howatt, on March 23rd. The meeting was called to order by the Vice-president. Roll call was responded to by four members. One new member joined at this meeting. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Hazel Sherman was appointed on the program committee for the next meeting. A program then followed, which was enjoyed by all. The members continued with their sewing. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Howatt. The honorary pall bearers were: Thomas Donahue, Robert McLaren, Wallace MacEachern, Dr. Allen, Felix Gallant, and Allan Shaw. The active pall bearers were: John Sullivan, John MacIntyre, Herbert MacDonald, R. MacGillivray, W. MacIntyre, F. Sigsworth. LITERARY EVENING.—The weekly debate of St. Joseph's Literary and Debating Society, Kelly's Cross, was held in the hall on Friday evening March 15. The President called the meeting to order, after which the minutes of the previous meeting were read, and adopted. A short program was then carried out. It consisted of instrumental music by Mr. Mark and Mr. Leo Flood, Reading by Miss Elizabeth Oussack, Song by Mr. Louis McQuaid, Reading by Mr. Melville Higgins. A very interesting five minutes' speech on "Ambition," was delivered by Mr. Gordon Waddell. In the course of his remarks, Mr. Waddell showed that Ambition is a very necessary quality for success in life. The debate which followed was participated in by Mr. Walter MacQuaid, Mr. Peter Toole and Mr. Wilfred Bradley on the pro side, and by Mr. Maurice Bradley and Mr. Frank Flood on the con side. The subject discussed was, "Resolved that the lot of the farmer is better than that of the labourer. The judges decided that the con side won by a majority of five points. Rev. Father Peters acted as critic. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

ENJOYABLE DEBATE.—On Friday evening, March 22, the members of St. Joseph's Literary and Debating Society, Kelly's Cross, met in their Hall for Debate. The President, Mr. Thomas McAvinn, occupied the chair and opened the meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary and adopted. The program consisted of a Reading by Miss Helen Nantes, Step Dance by Mr. George Monaghan, Reading by Mr. Peter Toole. The five minutes' speech on the "Life of Napoleon Bonaparte" delivered by Mr. O'Leary Curley was both interesting and instructive. The Question Box Committee answered the questions placed in the box during the week. The subject for debate was "Resolved that Canada is a more desirable country to live in than the United States. An interesting discussion and a lively rebuttal ensued. The speakers taking part were, pro, Mr. O'Leary Curley, Mr. Wilfred Bradley, and Miss Helen Nantes, and on the con side were, Mr. Thomas McAvinn, Mr. Emmett Goodman and Mr. Louis McQuaid. During the debate the Vice President Mr. Peter Toole, occupied the chair. The patriotism of the audience was discernible in their leanings towards the pro side but the judges decided that the arguments

Play Well Presented
The Kelly's Cross Dramatic Club presented the three-act comedy drama, "Mammy's Lil' Wild Rose," in the Parish Hall on Monday evening, March 18th. In spite of weather conditions, a large audience greeted the players, and showed their appreciation by rounds of applause.

The scene is laid amid the mountains of Virginia. The play is the story of Uncle Joe and Mammy Celia. These parts were admirably portrayed by Joseph and Mrs. Kelly. Rose O'May, very cleverly acted by Miss Alice McManus, is an orphan girl, who has been brought up by her maiden aunt, Hester O'May, impersonated by Mrs. J. W. Bradley. Rose, who has been denied the care and love of the vicissitudes of life, to decide between the promptings of her heart and the urgings of unscrupulous friends. Miss Hester has betrothed her to Wade Carver, a wealthy neighbor. Played very realistically by Maurice Bradley, Rose meets Daniel French, from the city, and immediately falls in love with him. The role of Daniel French is very cleverly taken by Thomas McAvinn. The hand of Rose is also sought by Lester Van, played by George Courtvanne. The supporting parts: Letty Van, by Miss Helen Nantes, and Peggy French, by Miss Mary Monaghan, are equally well played, while the comedy roles of Orpheus, taken by Mark Curley, and Babe Joan, by Mary Trainor causes roars of laughter. The acting of the entire cast was well up to the standard of former plays, and this in itself says quite sufficient for the histrionic ability of the actors who go to make up the Kelly's Cross Dramatic Club.

The orchestra rendered beautiful Irish airs previous to the play. The specialties consisted of a song, "Ireland Must Be Heaven For My Mother Came From There," by Miss Mary Creamer, and a step dance by little Miss Sylvia Flood, both of which were heartily enjoyed. The accompanist of the evening was Miss Freda Peters.

The play was under the capable direction of Rev. Father Peters. The cast was as follows:
Daniel French, from the city — Thomas McAvinn.
Lester Van, Daniel's Onum — Gerald Nantes.
Wade Carver, an unwelcome suitor — Maurice Bradley.
Orpheus Jackson, a native Romeo — Mark Curley.
Old Joe "Dat's a fac" — Joseph Kelly.

Mammy Celia, a black treasure — Mrs. Joseph Kelly.
Hester O'May, Rose's Maiden Aunt — Mrs. J. W. Bradley.
Peggy French, Daniel's Sister — Mary Alice Monaghan.
Letty Van, Peggy's Chum — Helen Nantes.
Babe Joan, a mountain charmer — Mary Trainor.
Mrs. Courtvanne, A lonely woman — Mrs. Mark Smith.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 27—(G.P.)—Being a non-Aryan in this hotbed of minor league hockey has some small advantages, according to Samuel "Porky" Levine, rousing out his fourth year as goal-keeper for the Kansas City Greyhounds, champions of the American Association.

One of the few Hebrew players in the puckchasing game, Levine is one of the most popular players with the fans the Greyhounds ever had on the roster. Besides, he is the only player to receive substantial salary increases each year since joining the club.

Levine, who holds the Association record of 13 straight shutouts, has the best four-year record of any goal-keeper in the league. "Presently he is in a tight duel with Mike Karakas of the Tulsa, Okla., Oilers for this season's puck-blocking honors.

The Greyhounds have received numerous offers for his services from clubs in the National League, the International and the Canadian-American leagues but the insistence of the fans he be kept prevents any deal.

He learned his netminding in Troquois Falls, the northern Ontario town which also was a training ground for Dave Kerr, New York Ranger star. Like Kerr, Levine frequently leaves his net to meet the approaching enemy but whereas the New Yorker generally stays erect, Porky dives head first for the puck, risking life and limb to block a shot. This is one of the reasons for his wide popularity.

The story goes the rounds, although emphatically denied by Levine and his coach, that his unusual style, irked the Greyhound mentor so much at first, he tried tying a rope around the goaler's neck with the other end fastened to the goalpost. Levine still strolled about, however, and when the coach saw how effective his style really was he gave up trying to keep the wanderer at home.

When he first came here in 1931 Levine was merely on loan to replace the local team's injured netminder. It was planned to send him back to the Chicago Shamrocks as soon as the need for his services expired. His spectacular style, however, won the fans immediately and the club officials promptly bought him outright.

Levine led the league goal-keepers this year. Next year he was runner-up to Karakas and last season lost out by one point to Mickey Murray, the Galt, Ont., puckstopper performing for St. Louis Flyers.

Although barely 27 Porky has had a fairly wide range of experience. He played a few games in the National League and spent some time at Windsor, Ont. He turned professional with Detroit Falcons of the N. H. L. in 1926 when only 18. He then went to the Shamrocks and was loaned by that team to Minneapolis before coming here. He has also played for Seattle.

He is scaling 180 pounds at present although only five feet, eight inches tall.

Potatoes as Food
The human body is often referred to as a furnace, the food as the fuel and the heat given off as the energy. Of the three elements in that fuel, namely, protein, fat, and carbohydrate, the last named is referred to as the energy giver. Potatoes supply energy. As regards their general composition, they are slightly acid and contain a quantity of starch, a trace of sugar, a small amount of minerals and proteins and a large amount of water. The percentage of these component parts is:—carbohydrate 18 per cent; minerals 9 per cent; protein 2.1 per cent; fat 1 per cent; water 79.9 per cent. The following are recipes for the everyday use of potatoes:—

Boiled Potatoes
Select potatoes of uniform size, pare, and drop at once in cold water to prevent discoloration. Cook in boiling salted water until soft, which is easily determined by piercing with a skewer.

For seven potatoes allow one tablespoon of salt, and boiling water to cover. Drain from water and keep uncovered in a warm place until serving time. Avoid sending to the table in a covered vegetable dish. In boiling large potatoes, it often happens that the outside is soft, while the centre is underdone. To finish cooking without breaking potatoes apart, add one pint of cold water which drives heat to centre, thus accomplishing the cooking.

Select smooth, medium sized potatoes. Wash, using a vegetable brush, and place in dripping pan. Bake in a hot oven forty minutes or until soft; remove from the oven and serve at once. If allowed to stand, unless the skin is ruptured for to enjoy an eternity of bliss with its Creator. In eloquent terms he paid a glowing tribute to the deceased. In the course of the service at the house the following hymns were sung: "Jesus Lover of My Soul," "Rock of Ages" and "Abide with Me." The singing was led by Mr. L. Gamble.

The pall-bearers were: Bert J. Trowsdale, John Campbell, James Campbell, Edward Trowsdale, Gordon E. Waddell, Annes Maters. (Patriot Please Copy)
