De Gaulle To Leave For No. Africa Soon

LONDON, April 4—(CP)—Gen. Charles De Gaulle is going to leave "immediately" for North Africa to confer with Gen. Henri Giraud, a fighting French spokesman said tonight.

The spokesman reported that all arrangements had been made for a meeting with the French African leader to bring about unity among the Anti-Axis French. Gen. Georges Catroux has been conferring with Giraud, making preliminary arrangements.

It was also reported that Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, who returned by air today from his visit to the United States and Canada; will confer with De Gaulle tomorrow.

"Skip Bombing" Said Effective

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, April 4 —(AP)—Low-level "skip bombing" in which American bomber crews had been specially trained before leaving the United States for North Africa, was credited today with the destruction of one enemy troop ship and two merchant vessels by a sea sweep of medium bombers.

Capt. Clayton W. Heinlen of East Cleveland, Ohio, described the skip-bombing attack of March 31 in these words:-

"It's almost like launching a torpedo. You aim the first bomb at the hull of the ship—right at the water line—as you come up to the ship from the side. Then you just let a string of bombs walk right up the side of the ship and over it."

Presentations To Mr. Burleigh Taylor

The members of the Y's Men's Club and the directors of the Y.M.C.A. with their wives met at the "Y" yesterday afternoon to tender a farewell to one of their most treasured members, Mr. Burleigh Taylor, who leaves for Hamilton, Ontario this afternoon.

A farewell address outlining the splendid service rendered the Y's Men's Club by Mr. Taylor since he came to Charlottetown was read by Mr. W. A. Livingstone, president-elect of the club. A lovely brief case was presented by District Governor Mr. J. A. MacNair.

Mr. A. W. Matheson, secretary of the Board of Directors of the Y.M.C.A. then read a farewell address outlining the outstanding contribution Mr. Taylor had made to the association during his stay in Charlottetown. Mr. A. J. Haslam, president of the association, presented Mr. Taylor with a travelling bag.

Expresses Appreciation

Mr. Taylor in expressing his appreciation referred to the four and a half years which he spent in Charlottetown as the happiest years of his life, years in which he had made many life long friends.

He stated that his associations with the members of these organizations were also most pleasant and he deemed it a pleasure to work for them.

Mr. Taylor dealt at length with the part religion should play in our lives and passed on to those present conclusions he had drawn from life.

It is not indifference nor carelessness which keeps Christ from coming into our lives but our self-consciousness that our hearts are not fit places for Christ to dwell in stated Mr. Taylor. If we considered Christ as a brother rather than a stranger we would live closer to Him and be more ready to do His will.

After refreshments were served by the Y's Mennettes, all present joined hands and sang Auld Lang Syne.

During serving of refreshments Y's Man Prof. J. Inch, club pianist, played several selections on the piano.

Prominent In Many Organizations

Some indication of the place Mr. Taylor has filled in community activities is shown by the offices he held in various organizations.

Besides being treasurer of the Y.M.C.A. and retiring treasurer and vice-president elect of the Y's Men's Club, he was treasurer of the Diocesan Church Society of the Province, treasurer of St. Paul's choir, president of the Men of St. Paul's and secretary of the Community Concert Association.

The members of St. Paul's choir presented Mr. Taylor with a handsome club bag and an accompanying letter of appreciation.

The Charlottetown staff of the Royal Trust Company, with which he has been accountant, also remembered him with a beautiful leather travelling kit.

Jury Decides Death Saturday Was Accidental

At the inquest held on Saturday afternoon before acting Coroner Mr. George J. Tweedy, K.C., The jury empanelled to inquire into the death of William Carroll, Alley St. whose body was found at the foot of the stairway in his home on Saturday morning brought in the following verdict:—"We the jury empanelled to enquire into the death of William Caroll find that he met his death between the hours of 8 p.m. on Friday and 8 a.m. on Saturday morning through falling accidentally down the stairs.

Either a broken neck or a fractured skull, caused his death, according to the evidence of Dr. J.A. MacMillan, medical witness.

Other witnesses giving evidence were: Wm. Murphy, Thomas McQuarrie, Gordon Lund, Const. G. Poole, and Const. Walsh.

According to the evidence the deceased was last seen alive at 8 o'clock Friday evening by Mr. Thomas McQuarrie with whom he was doing some carpenter repair work at a store nearby.

The following morning Mr. McQuarrie called at Carroll's home to get the keys to enter the shop and found the dead body of the deceased at the foot of the stairway. Budget Debate In Legislature

Resuming the Budget debate in the Legislature on March 30, Tuesday, Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, leader of the Opposition, said the Premier had referred to the sinking funds as being on a high and satisfactory level. He noticed on page 21 of the Public Accounts the sinking funds were given at $55,000. On page 22 there was an entry of $55,550. This apparently meant the Government had paid $55,550 for $55,000 of Prince Edward Island bonds and put them in the sinking funds. He recalled that in 1927, in the auditors report of Messrs. Sharp and Poole, it was recommended that Island bonds of $59,000 in the sinking funds at that time be cancelled, thereby decreasing the net funded debt and making unnecessary the semi-annual handling of coupons.

Premier Campbell explained that the P.E.I. bonds now being held have been redeemed.

Referring to increase in old age pensions from $15 to $18 a month, Dr. MacMillan repeated his previous statement that the increase shoud have been to the full amount of $20. "I suggest that the reason you have left the $2.00 in abeyance is that you are leaving it until the next election," he said. "You want to make a political issue of it. You want to use it as a bribe. As proof of that I hold letters written by members of this Government advising old age pensioners how good this government has been to them. They were more solicitous about how many votes they would get, than they were about the pensioners."

"The administration of old age pensions," he continued, "is costing this Province too much. There are too many officials. There is no need of a superintendent of old age pensions. The work of that office can be done by the staff without the addition of any superintendent. You are throwing away $600 a year that you could save. In 1933 the administration of old age pensions cost $5,000; in 1934 it cost $6,600; in 1935 $6,000. Last year it cost $9,400, an increase of fifty per cent; and that is true of the way in which other departments of this government are administered. There is no economy; there is extravagance."

Government Boards

Dr. MacMillan cited the personnel and remuneration of officials on the Marketing Board, as given in answer to a question on the order paper. This board's total expenses amounted to $1,087. They made no report to the Government. "Have they done anything," he asked, "in the interests of agriculture? If so, the House should have a report of their work."

He referred also to boards set up by the Dominion Government. "You will find that there is political favoritism on every one of them," he said. "They are not appointed on a war basis. They are appointed on a purely political basis." He could remember the fiasco about one of those boards, the speakers' committee, set up by the Dominion Government. They objected to the secretary of the local board nominated to do the work, a man who was in a key position as a professor in both Prince of Wales College and St. Dunstan's University. The result was that there was so much dissatisfaction that the board went out of business.

"One gets the idea," said Dr. MacMillan, "that the Federal Government still considers that this is a Grit war, and that none or very few but Liberals should partake in the administration thereof."

Hon. J. A. Campbell: "That is not true of appointments so far as the City of Charlottetown is concerned. There have been as many Conservatives appointed on the different boards as there are Liberals."

Dr. MacMillan: "Let my hon. friend produce the list of appointments, and if he can demonstrate that there have been as many Conservative as Liberal appointments, I will retract everything I say on this matter."

Dr. MacMillan also charged that Stewart's Bakery had received no consideration in the matter of supplying bread. During the last war the bread business was divided evenly between all the bakers in the city. The public, he said, know what is going on. It is a case of Grits first and almost entirely."

He also referred to the separate portfolio of President of the Executive Council which this government had created. They paid the first occupant a thousand dollars a year for presiding at Council meetings. Now they pay $500 to the hon. member (Mr. Wright) but he makes the difference up in other ways.

Hon. J.A. Campbell: "That is all he is worth. We pay him accordingly." (Laughter).

Dr. MacMillan: "If that is all he is worth, I notice he is paid $500 as chairman of the War Labor Board and another $500 as chairmn of the committee on evacuee children. (He read the detailed expenditures of this committee as given in answers tabled.) "The president of the Council," he said, "gets more than fifty per cent of the vote, for doing what?" He recalled when the evacuee children were brough here under the chairmanship of the ex-chairman of this Executive Council, the Government refused to pay a bill of $31 for little essentials for the children, and the bill had to be paid by a volunteer society in Charlottetown.

The secretary of the committee, Dr. MacMillan said, is quite capable of doing all the work in connection with these children. He could not see why the president of the Executive Council should get nearly $600. "But it appears that his salary has to be built up until he is a Minister. The members of this Government have certainly looked after themselves. Here we have the Minister of Agriculture, and his son is assistant provincial auditor at a salary of $1,800, and also inspector of credit unions at $500, plus $375 travelling expenses. The Minister of Health and Education gets travelling expenses. What travelling does he do in the interest of public health in this Province? The clerk of the Executive Council gets $700 in that capacity. As deputy provincial secretary-treasurer he gets $1,300; as superintendent of old age pensions he gets $600, as suprintendent of insurance $400; about $3,000 altogether. Do you think he is worth it, a man here just a few years? We have a Deputy Minister of Public Works here for over fifty years and his salary is only $2,000 plus a small item of $250. The Deputy Minister of Agriculture gets $2,000. I mention those two men because they are the most important officials in the government service. One has been here fifty-two years and the other probably twenty years or more. Here is another man who comes in here and after six or seven years he is paid the salary of a Minister and a half. I suppose it was on that large salary that he was induced to become a candidate for the leadership of the Liberal Party."

Liberal Caucus

Continuing, Dr. MacMillan went on to discuss the results of a Liberal party caucus over the question of party leadership. It was reported that the government official whose name was balloted on was present.

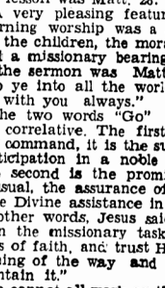
War Traffic Occasions New Appointments

E. B. ROBB J. H. NORTON F. L. DOUGAN

As a result of the tremendous volume of traffic, both freight and passenger, that has developed throughout the Atlantic Region of the Canadian National Railways since the outbreak of war, which has greatly enlarged the work and responsibilities of all departments, it became necessary to enlarge the supervisory organization of the area and on the recent retirement of R. J. S. Weatherston as General Freight and Passenger Agent, Atlantic Region, the passenger and freight organizations were separated into two complete jurisdictions with J. H. Norton as General Freight Agent, headquarters at Moncton, N. B., formerly Assistant General Freight Agent, and F. L. Dougan, General Passenger Agent, Moncton, formerly District Passenger Agent, Halifax, N. S.

Other appointments include E. B. Robb as Assistant General Freight Agent at Moncton, N. B., from Special Traffic Representative, Halifax, N. S.; A. Green as Division Freight Agent, Halifax, formerly Division Freight Agent, Saint John, N. B.; D. B. Bishop, Division Freight Agent, Saint John, N. B., formerly Division Freight and District Passenger Agent, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; W. C. Moir, District Passenger Agent, Halifax; Geo. T. Stone, Division Freight and District Passenger Agent, Charlottetown, P. E. I.



A. GREEN

W. C. MOIR

James Hunt Norton was born at Shaftsbury, Dorset County, England, and entered the employ of the railway at the age of fifteen on June 1, 1899, as a Messenger in the Car Mileage Office at Moncton.

Francis Leo Dougan is a native of Charlottetown, P. E. I., and entered the railway service as Relieving Agent at Georgetown, P. E. I., March 10, 1904.

Edward Burnyeat Robb was born at Moncton, N. B., and entered the employ of the railway as Messenger in the Operating Department in that city, Dec. 5, 1904. In December, 1914, he was made Travelling Freight Agent, Montreal, and in December, 1917, District Freight and Passenger Agent at Cochrane, Ont. In October, 1919, he went to Halifax, N. S., as Division Freight Agent, and in January, 1941, was appointed Special Traffic Representative there handling war traffic.

D. B. BISHOP

GEO. T. STONE

Waldo Clarence Moir was born at Halifax, N. S., and entered the employ of the railway as Clerk in the Passenger Department in that city on Feb. 21, 1912. He filled the position of Travelling Passenger Agent at Halifax previous to his present appointment, He is also a veteran of the last war, serving overseas from 1915 to 1918.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

In the absence of the minister Rev. Hugh Millar, D.D., Mr. Kenneth Oates R.A.F., took charge of both services. In the morning, Mr. Warren Lord gave a brief outline of the M. and M. Fund of the Church. The anthem for the morning service was "Light of the Lonely Pilgrims Heart",-J. A. Meale. The responsive reading was Psalm 24, and the lesson was Matt. 28.

A very pleasing feature of the morning worship was a short story for the children, the moral of which had a missionary bearing. The text of the sermon was Matt. 28-19.20, "Go ye into all the world .... Lo I am with you always."

The two words "Go" and "Lo" are correlative. The first expresses the command, it is the summons to participation in a noble enterprise. The second is the promise of the unusual, the assurance of an operative Divine assistance in the task. In other words, Jesus said 'Embark upon the missionary task on the basis of faith, and trust Him for an opening of the way and grace to maintain it."

We cannot all work on the mission field, but we can earnestly pray and give what we can. That for us is the "Go". His guidance and the giving of our gifts and prayers into the needs of mission fields becomes the "Lo".

In the evening Mr. G. F. Hutcheson spoke on the work of Home Missions in a further appeal for the M. and M. Fund. The scripture was Job 1-1 to end. The anthem "Bountiful Lord Jesu" Solo-selection from Handel's Messiah", Mr. Stanley Beard.

Mr. Oates spoke on the text Phil. 3-14 "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." We cannot all excel in literature, art or music, but we can all excel in the art of good living. We must look to and follow the best example of Him who has stood the test of time. God's grace is inexhaustable and is available for all of us.

The music for the day was under the direction of Mr. A. Roy Kendall organist and choirmaster.
