

ASTHMA PERMANENTLY CURED.

Well-known Canadian Notary Public Suffered for 35 Years—Permanently Cured by Clarke's Kola Compound.

R. D. Pitt, Esq., Kamloops, writes: "I had suffered for at least 35 years from the great oppressiveness of asthma and shortness of breath. I had during these years consulted many physicians and tried all the remedies, until the doctor told me I might get temporary relief, but I would be always troubled. I tried Dr. Clarke's Kola Compound, and after taking the first bottle I became greatly relieved, and three bottles have completely cured me. I can now breathe as naturally as ever, and asthma does not trouble me in the least. I feel it my duty to bear testimony to the marvelous effect this remedy has had in my case, and would urge all suffering from this disease to try Clarke's Kola Compound, as only those who have suffered all their years as I have can appreciate what a blessing this remedy must prove to sufferers from asthma. Three bottles of Clarke's Kola Compound are guaranteed to cure. A free sample will be sent to any person troubled with asthma. Address The Druggists & Macpherson Co. 121 Church Street, Toronto, and Vancouver, B. C., sole Canadian agents. Sold by all druggists. When writing for sample mention this paper.

Clarke's Kola Compound is the only permanent cure for asthma; is now successfully used throughout the leading hospitals in England and Canada.

Finds His Daughter After Twenty Years.

The curiosity of fashionable society in New York is raised to the highest pitch by the discovery that Charles F. McKim, the famous architect, has a daughter that only recently was rescued after twenty years of obscurity and installed in luxury in her father's New York home.

Those who had known Mr. McKim for ten years or more in New York never dreamed that he had a daughter. They knew that he had been married; that his wife had died, and that she had left no children.

The story began years ago, when Mr. McKim was a young man in Boston without fame or position in the world. To-day he is the head of one of the most successful firms of architects in New York. He is a man of wealth and public importance.

Mr. McKim graduated from Harvard in 1867, and when he returned to Boston he fell in love with a fair young daughter of the Puritan aristocracy, Miss Sarah Bigelow, a member of the ancient Massachusetts family of that name.

Miss Bigelow and Mr. McKim were married in 1875 in Boston, and afterward the young couple came to live in New York.

In 1876 a girl baby was born to them. She was christened Sarah. After this event a gradual estrangement seems to have taken place between the rising architect and his young wife.

Mrs. McKim obtained a divorce in 1880. Her little daughter, who was then 4 years old, was intrusted to her care. Within a few years Mrs. McKim was married again, this time to the Rev. J. S. Day, an Unitarian minister with a church in Newport at the time of his marriage. Mrs. Day changed her little daughter's name from Sarah McKim to Margaret Day. The latter was brought up with the idea that she was Mr. Day's daughter. A few weeks ago Mr. McKim learned of his daughter's whereabouts and succeeded in inducing her to return to his home, and the last two weeks McKim's friends have seen him driving about the city and Central Park with a beautiful young woman beside him. Last week the surprising fact leaked out that this young woman was his daughter. After his divorce Mr. McKim married Miss Appleton of the famous Boston family of that name, but she died a year after the marriage. Chicago Tribune.

A BRAVE WOMAN.

How a Drunken Husband Was Made a Sober Man by a Determined Wife.

A PATENT LETTER.

She writes:—"I had for a long time been thinking of trying the Samaria Prescription treatment on my husband for his drinking habits, but I was afraid he would discover that I was giving him medicine, and the thought unnerved me. I hesitated for nearly a week, but one day when he came home very much intoxicated and his week's salary nearly all spent, I threw off all fear and determined to make an effort to save our home from the ruin I saw coming, at all hazards. I sent for your Samaria Prescription and put it in his coffee as directed next morning and watched and prayed for the result. At noon I gave him more and also at supper. He never suspected a thing, and I then boldly kept right on giving it regularly, as I had discovered something that set every nerve in my body tingling with hope and happiness, and I could see a bright future spread out before me—a peaceful, happy home, a share in the good things of life, an attentive, loving husband, comforts, and everything else dear to a woman's heart for my husband had told me that whiskey was vile stuff and he was taking good care to stop it. I honestly believe it will cure the worst cases."

S. S. LESSON

LESSON V.—OCTOBER 29. PSALMS OF DELIVERANCE. Psalms 85 and 136. Memory verses. Psalm 126. 1-6. GOLDEN TEXT. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. Psalm 126. 5.

OUTLINE. 1. Thanksgiving for Forgiveness. v. 1-3. 2. Prayer for More Grace. v. 4-7. 3. The Answer of Hope. v. 8-13. 4. The Blessed Fulfillment. v. 16-18.

Time—Probably after return from exile. The second temple was dedicated B. C. 515. Place in view of Jerusalem and the temple.

1. "Thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob"—The time when this psalm written is not certainly known. It was certainly sung by the people after the turn from captivity in Babylon. The captive Jews, who were the descendants of Jacob, are implied by the phrase "captivity of Jacob."

2. "Forgiven the inquiry"—Borne or carried it away. An obvious allusion to the ceremony of the scapegoat. "Thou hast covered"—In the fact of forgiveness. Not only covered, but removed. "Selah"—Probably a musical term, and not essential to the psalm.

3. "Taken away all thy wrath"—More correctly, gathered it again after it had been launched forth.

4. "Turn us"—And the kind of turning is indicated by the word "salvation." Thou hast turned our captivity; now turn our souls from sin. "Thine anger . . . to cease"—The literal idea is: Let the sharp edge of thine anger be blunted and broken.

5, 6. The suffering of the Jews for their sins had been long and great; hence the wonder; and yet mingled with wonder in these questions is hope. To "revive" is to relieve, and when a people revive and raise above their sins they rejoice in God, who is then their salvation.

7, 8. "Why mercy"—Thy is here emphatic. "I will hear"—The prayer is ended, and now there is a listening for the divine response. "Let them not turn again to folly"—To sin, for sin is folly. Sorrowful experience teach the people wisdom.

9. "His salvation is nigh"—An eternal truth which comfort to those who will accept it. "That glory may dwell in our land"—In the rebuilding of the temple and in the restored worship.

10, 11. Poetic descriptions. Heavenly virtues which shall meet in the saints, springing up like flowers and shining out like stars.

12. "Her increase"—No more drought or barrenness, and so no more suffering.

13. A difficult verse. It seems to mean to go before Jehovah and made his footsteps a way for his people to walk in.

1. "Turned the captivity of Zion"—That is, of the Jews whose home was on Zion. Cyrus turned their captivity by his decree, but God was in it all. "Like them that dream"—The news "too good to be true."

2. "Then said they among the heathen"—A great deliverance when even the heathen talked about.

3. What the heathen say is truth, and we echo it, and we are glad.

4. Turn again"—Other Jews were still enslaved beyond the Euphrates; let all return. "As the streams in the south"—Especially the Nile.

5. A proverb, confirmed as a fact in her experience. Many illustrations of it.

ON A FRIEND'S RECOMMENDATION Mrs. Gampton Uses Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart and Receives Instant Lasting Relief—Immediate Relief is what the Sufferer Wants—and Gets when Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is Used.

"I was for a long time a great sufferer from heart trouble. I had palpitation and smothering accompanied by great weakness and painful spasms. I got very little relief from remedies, and doctors failed to give me real benefit. A friend of mine had used Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, and it has been a great relief to her. I procured a bottle and it has proved a great blessing to me. I think it a great heart cure and heartily recommend it to all like sufferers. Mrs. Gampton, 46 Bishop Street, Toronto."
