Canon Malone, visited Cherry Valley and administered Confirmation

With all the ceremonial grandeur and splendid ritual of the historic Church of England, St. Peter's Cathedral of this city yesterday celebrated its Diamond Jubilee. The Cathedral was founded sixty years ago, June 29th, 1869, as an outcome of the Oxford Movement which in the middle of the 19th century, exerted such a potent influence on the character and creed of the Church of England, seeking to model it on the early Church of the Apostles. St. Peter's, since its foundation, has enjoyed a vigorous and progressive existence, contributing greatly to the religious life of the community. The services yesterday were attended by large congregations which crowded the Cathedral to capacity.

This is a very flourishing institution having six hundred students a year. A magnificent new building was recently erected. Mr. and Mrs. Bagnall will visit their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Rodd at Meach Lake, Ottawa, before returning to Brooklyn. Mr. Rodd, who is a native of Brackley Point, is one of the officials of the Fisheries Department.

HOME ON VISIT—The many friends of Mr. P. S. McKenna, another successful P. E. Islander abroad, will be pleased to know that he has returned, after an absence of twenty years, to his native home in Emerald, where he is visiting his brothers and sisters. Mr. McKenna, accompanied by his wife and two daughters, Kathleen and Celestine, motored from Donnybrook, North Dakota, coming by way of Detroit, where they were joined by Wallace and Otto McKenna, brothers of Mr. McKenna, and by his sister, Pearl. Before leaving Prince Edward Island, Mr. McKenna was one of its most popular and prosperous young men. His many friends and acquaintances wish him a very pleasant and happy holiday among the scenes of his early life, also his wife and family on their first trip to our Province. (Island papers please copy).

DOUBLE WEDDING—Central United Church, Dunstaffnage, was the scene of an unusually pretty wedding Wednesday, June 26th, when Miss Edith J. Vessey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vessey, Dunstaffnage, was united in marriage to Mr. Elmer T. Brown, York, and another daughter, Miss A. Pearl Vessey, was married to Mr. William D. Cook of York. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. E. Boothroyd. The church was beautifully decorated by friends of the brides and was filled to capacity with guests and friends eager to witness the happy event. The brides were given away by their father and were charmingly dressed in white crepe de chene and lace, and wore bridal veils and orange blossoms and carried magnificent bouquets. After the ceremony a reception was held at the brides' home, and a large and lively charivari added greatly to the joy of this happy event. Wedding presents were valuable and numerous, testifying to the popularity of the contracting parties. Both happy couples left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes and on return will reside at York. The Guardian joins in extending congratulations.

SAD DEATH—The death occurred at Georgetown on Friday, June 29th, of Ethel Louise Anderson, age 5 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, after a short illness. All that medical skill and kind nursing could do was done, but God willed otherwise. She was cared for by her devoted mother, who was with her until the end came. She was bright and intelligent and her death in the home has cast a sad gloom. Suffer little children to come unto me, for such is the Kingdom of Heaven, where Ethel Louise is a bright Angel. She leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing parents, five brothers and two sisters. Sincere sympathy is extended to the family. A

The party of representatives of the United Church in Canada which is touring the Maritime Provinces under the auspices of the "New Outlook," arrived in Charlottetown yesterday morning and spent the day in visiting points of interest in the city and province.
